Attends Funeral

Mrs. A. R. House attended the funeral of her brother, William Thomas Dunford, 73, a retired director of the Brown and Williamson Tobacco Company, Saturday, April 22, in Petersburg, Va. Graveside services were held at 11 a.m. in Blandford Cemetery by the Rev. H. Edward Henderson, pastor of the Second Baptist Church and the Rev. Lucius M. Polhill, executive secretary of the Virginia Baptist Board of Missions and Education.

A native of Edgecombe County, he had resided in Petersburg since 1919. He was a past master of Petersburg Lodge No. 15, AF and AM, a member of Acca Temple, AAONMS; the Appomattox commandery, No. 6, Knights Templar, Petersburg Union Royal Arch Chapter No. 7 and a charter member and past president of the Petersburg Lions Club.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Adell Bateman Dunford of Petersburg; two sons, James H. Dunford, Louisville, Ky., and William T. Dunford, Newport News; two sisters, Mrs. House and Mrs. W. W. Mettannett of Pittsburgh, Pa., and two grandchildren.

Mrs. R. D. Massey accompanied Mrs. House to Mr. Dunford's funeral.

Insects once occurred with a wing span of 30 inches; a body length of 18 inches.

Telephone Talk

Your Telephone Manager

NEW, IN THE BARNYARD! It's the farmer's newest "hired hand"—the Farm Interphone. If you farm and want to save time, effort and money, you'll be interested in this completely new telephone system that gives you both regular telephone service and intercom service from various locations around your farm. With the Farm Interphone you can take and make calls from work areas, talk on-the-spot with people in the house and other buildings, monitor sounds around the farm—and do many more things than we have room to list! We'll be glad to give you all the details if you'll drop by our business office.

WHAT'S COOKIN'? ... For Mom, 1,092 meals a year. And maybe 55,000 meals in a lifetime! For the woman who has to prepare those meals, convenience means a lot! Here's a suggestion for a kitchen help that'll save a lot of time and steps, give pleasure, too. Why not get a kitchen extension phone—a wall phone that's out of the way of all the doin' and fixin' but always at hand when it rings, or when you need to make a call. Just call us to order your kitchen extension in your favorite color.
