Johnson Wins In Wendell Municipal Election Tuesday

Ira H. Johnson, prominent Wendell citizen, was elected mayor Tuesday with an overwhelming vote of confidence. He defeated Dr. J. R. Hester by a vote of 300 to 180.

This is Johnson's first successful attempt for the town's highest office. He ran once before and was defeated by W. A. White by one vote.

Three incumbent members of the town board were reelected for two more years and two other incumbents were unseated.

In the town board race, incumbent Leo T. Britt led the field of 15 candidates with 322 votes. Other incumbents reelected were C. B. Dean with 307 votes and Willard E. Perry with 222.

Newcomers elected to the town board were W. A. White, who was placed third in the balloting with 238 votes and Dover Hinton, who polled 232. This is Hinton's first political victory.

Unseated board members were M. Curtis Todd, 204 votes, and Mossey E. Faison, 181.

Wendell Mayor Joe Henderson didn't seek reelection. Odell Doan was unopposed for town constable.

Other candidates for a seat on the town board were: Benjamin Tongue, 143; Silas L. Todd, 141; Mrs. Annie L. Wilson Bilisoly, 98; John M. Radford, 64; E. O. Andrews, 52; R. E. Barham, Jr., 46, and Oscar M. Chaplin, 37.
