Student Counselors Honored at Tea

Student counselors who acted as "Big Sisters" to freshmen women in Cotton Hall and Woman's Hall during the 1960-61 school term at East Carolina College were honored at a tea Tuesday afternoon, April 25, in the parlor of Cotton Hall.

Student counselors are chosen each year from the rising sophomore class to live in freshmen dormitories and to guide the freshmen women as they adjust to college. Counselors are chosen on the bases of leadership abilities, personality, character and scholarship.

Anne Creech, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Creech, was one of the counselors who was honored at the tea.
