Miss Elaine Martha Schmidt Weds Joseph William Hilliard, Jr., April 21

The marriage of Miss Elaine Martha Schmidt and Joseph William Hilliard, Jr., was solemnized April 21 at the Epiphany Lutheran Church in Baltimore, Md.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Schmidt of Baltimore and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard of Zebulon.

The Rev. Raymond C. Meyers officiated at the double ring ceremony performed before the altar decorated with palms, cathedral tapers in seven branch candelabra and pedestal baskets of white mums, carnations, gladioli and greenery.

Prior to the ceremony nuptial music was presented. The soloist sang the "Twenty-third Psalm," and the "Lord's Prayer" as the benediction.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street-length gown of chantilly lace over mist satin with a scalloped neckline. The fitted bodice was outlined with pearls around the neckline. Her long sleeves came to points over the hand. The veil of imported illusion was attached to a fitted cap with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and lily of the valley and showered with satin streamers.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. John E. Turner, as matron of honor and Miss Patricia Ann Flanagan, as maid of honor. They wore identical dresses of pink silk organza and carried nose-gays of pink carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Elizabeth Schmidt, sister of the bride, and Miss Suzanne Carolyn Hilliard, sister of the bridegroom. Their dresses and bouquets were similar to the matron and maid of honor's.

The father of the bridegroom was his best man. Ushers were Robert Adair, Richard King and Thomas Lewis.

The mother of the bride chose a beige lace over blue with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Hilliard was gowned in an orchid lace over taffeta sheath with matching accessories. Each wore a corsage of white gardenias.

The bride is a graduate of Towson (Md.) High School and Towson Business College. She was employed with the State of Maryland Bureau of Internal Revenue. The bridegroom is a graduate of Towson High School and attended Baltimore Junior College until he joined the Army. He is stationed at Columbus, Ohio.

The couple honeymooned in Washington, D. C.

Immediately following the wedding the parents of the bride entertained at a reception for the bridal couple, the wedding party and friends at their home on Lyndan Road, Timonium, Towson.

Relatives of the bridegroom attending from North Carolina were his uncle, Roy Hilliard and Mrs. Hilliard of Durham, and his aunt, Miss Beulah Hilliard of Middlesex.
