

Bannister-Temple Speak Vows

In a formal ceremony Sunday afternoon, July 30, at five o'clock at the Zebulon Baptist Church, Miss Martha Eason Temple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gardner Temple of Zebulon, became the bride of Rolly Bannister, Jr., son of Mrs. Rolly Bannister, Sr., of Clinton, S. C., and the late Mr. Bannister.

Dr. George Griffin of Wake Forest College and former pastor of the bride officiated at the double ring ceremony. Music was presented by Charles Horton, organist, and Miss Julia Ribet of Raleigh, soloist, and J. A. Spell, Jr., of Raleigh, violinist. Miss Ribet sang "I Love Thee" and "Lord, Who at Cana's Wedding Feast." Mr. Spell played a sonata from Bach and Schubert's "Ave Maria."

The vows were said before an altar decorated with altar baskets filled with white floral arrangements and lighted cathedral tapers in candelabra. Pews along the aisle were marked with lighted tapers set in white arrangements tied with satin bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal gown of Italian silk and alencon lace, featuring a sabrina neckline of lace reembroidered with pearls and iridescents, basque bodice, and long sleeves tapered to points over the hands. Her bouffant skirt had a tunic overskirt bordered in reembroidered lace and ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of imported illusion was attached to a coronet of imported orange blossoms. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Matron of honor was Mrs. W. E. Dillon of Albemarle. Maid of honor was Miss Shirley Snyder of Raleigh. They wore full-length gowns of pink silk organza accented with back bows and carried bouquets of pink roses. They wore matching pink picture hats.

The bridegroom's brother, Charles Bannister of Clinton, S. C., was best man. Ushers were Wallace Gardner Temple, Jr., brother of the bride; Yono Mork, Julian Barnes, Gerald Coates, Lawrence Medlin and Jack Westbrook, all of Raleigh.

The bride's mother was gowned in a full-length sheath of peony pink chiffon with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses. The mother of the bridegroom wore a full-length blue sheath of embroidered silk organza over taffeta with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses.

The bride was graduated from Campbell Junior College and Atlantic Christian College, where she was a member of Phi Sigma Tau Sorority. She teaches physical education at the State School for the Blind in Raleigh.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Presbyterian College in Clinton, S. C., where he was a member of Pi Kappa Phi fraternity. He is employed as credit manager with American Discount Company in Raleigh.

After a wedding trip to the coast the couple will reside at 1616 Harper Road, Raleigh.

Reception

Immediately following the ceremony the parents of the bride entertained at a reception. The home was thrown ensuite for the occasion and beautifully decorated with floral arrangements.

Greeting the guests on the terrace were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Temple. On the enclosed porch the guests met Mr. and Mrs. Foster Finch, who directed to the register presided over by Mr. and Mrs. Alton Temple. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith introduced the guests to the receiving line, composed of the wedding party.

Mrs. L. R. Temple, grandmother of the bride, directed to the dining room. Misses Marrisita and Audrey Hoggard, aunts of the bride, presided at the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. R. H. Brantley, Mrs. Charles Cimmero, Mrs. Charles Bannister, and Misses Sandra and Mary Russell Temple.

Refreshments of strawberry punch, ribbon sandwiches, chicken salad puffs, individual bridal cakes, nuts and mints were served from a silver appointed table covered with a pink swiss embroidered cloth and centered with a five branched silver candelabra filled with roses, mums, snapdragons and greenery and lighted tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Geddie directed to the gift room, presided over by Mrs. Wallace Chamblee and Mrs. B. H. Johnson. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Temple.

More than 200 guests registered.

After-Rehearsal Party

The Woman's Club was the scene of an after-rehearsal party last Saturday night following the Bannister-Temple wedding rehearsal. Hostesses were Miss Marrisita Hoggard and Miss Audrey Hoggard, aunts of Miss Martha Temple, who married Rolly Bannister, Jr., Sunday at Zebulon Baptist Church.

A green and white color scheme was used in decorations and refreshments.

Members of the wedding party, relatives of the bride and bridegroom, and out-of-town guests attended.
