

Charged With Slapping

Diane Bailey

Local Girl Cuts Rock'n Roll Record

Diane Bailey's recording of "Someone Else's Hands" is rockin' and rollin' across the airways of the nation. The pretty young Zebulon girl's recording was released last week.

The rock 'n roll number was recorded early this year by Swan, a Philadelphia recording company. She has also recorded two more records to be released at a later date.

This is the young lady's first entry into the big time recording field. She has previously done recordings for a Chapel Hill recording firm.

Diane, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson Bailey of Route 1, Zebulon, is to appear on Dick Clark's Band Stand teevee show in the near future. She is also making personal appearances throughout North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland television stations.

She is being managed with her career by Thomas Lawrence of Enfield.

HOSPITAL NOTES

The following were patients at Wendell-Zebulon Hospital Wednesday morning.

White

Wayne Cook, Jr., Etta Robertson, Ida Young, Harris Perry and Elizabeth Eddins.

White Birth

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Walston of Wendell announce the birth of a son at Wendell-Zebulon Hospital August 13. Mrs. Walston is the former LaGonda Cook of Tennessee.

Police Chief Willie B. Hopkins has been charged with slapping a young man he argued with over a sports car the chief claimed had been seen speeding through the streets of Zebulon.

Tony Murray, 22, of Route 4, Zebulon, a life insurance salesman, swore out the warrant against Hopkins Thursday, August 10, before Wendell Magistrate H. V. Andrews. It was served on Hopkins by Wendell Constable Billy Gay Friday.

Hopkins posted a $50 cash bond and the trial has been set for August 17 at 7:30 p.m. in Wendell before Magistrate Andrews.

Murray charged the chief with simple assault. He said that Hopkins gave him a "real hard" slap across the left jaw as the upshot of an argument after he told the chief the speed limit on a street was 20 miles an hour. He said Hopkins told him the speed limit was 15 miles an hour.

Hopkins would not comment to the press about the allegations brought against him by Murray.

Scouts Tour Canada, Eastern United States

Three Zebulon Boy Scouts were among 65 Scouts of the Oconeechee Council who left Thursday, August 10, from Raleigh for a tour of Eastern United States and provinces of Canada.

Avon Privette, Jr., Rodney McNabb, Jr., and Ben David Thomas are the Scouts from Zebulon on the 2,000 mile journey and Canadian Good-Will Tour. In Canada they will visit this country's major cities of Montreal, Toronto and Kingston. On their way back they will stop in New York City and visit television programs and attend a major league baseball game between the Yankees and White Sox at Yankee Stadium.

Privette was named games and activities leader of his group on the trip.

Privette and McNabb are members of Troop 540 and Thomas is a member of Troop 525.

The trio is scheduled to return Friday, August 18.

NURSE LEAVING

Mrs. Valaria Perry leaves today (Thursday) for Anchorage, Alaska, to join her husband, Henry, who is stationed with the U. S. Army there. Mrs. Perry has worked as a nurse for Dr. D. B. Thomas for the past eight years.

Succeeding Mrs. Perry is Mrs. A. W. Boyette. Mrs. Boyette, the former Marjorie Nordskog of Chicago, is the wife of A. W. Boyette of Route 1, Zebulon. Her husband is a registered surveyor. The couple has two children Roxanne, 15, and James, 8.

Anti-Consolidation Forces Waiting

Anti-four-school consolidation forces are just waiting it out.

Foster D. Finch, attorney for the East Wake County group, said Tuesday he understands there will be no further hearings on the consolidation matter until after September.

"Any time after the Board's first meeting we will be prepared to present our plan," Finch said.

The Board is scheduled to meet the first Monday in September.

Manager First Federal Now Serving Office Full Time

R. D. Beam, executive vice president of First Federal Savings and Loan Association, recently announced that Hal Clifton Perry had assumed the duties as manager of First Federal's Zebulon office. Perry, who has been spending part of his time at the Main Office of the Association in Raleigh and part at the local office, will now be at the local branch during its office hours for the entire day.

Perry, a native of the Zebulon area, was employed by First Federal on June 5 of this year. He was previously employed by the Franklin County School system as a vocational agriculture teacher. He is married to the former Armenia Hocutt and lives on Route 3, Zebulon.

"Although Mr. Perry has been a member of our staff for only a short time," states Mr. Beam, "we believe that his previous experience in dealing with people and his understanding of the area will enable him to meet its needs. We are confident that the folks in and around Zebulon will find it a pleasure to discuss both savings accounts and loans with Mr. Perry and that his addition will mean even better service and growth by Federal's local office."

The ZEBULON RECORD

VOLUME 36, NUMBER 28, ZEBULON, N. C., AUGUST 17, 1961

Town Board's Attention Is Called To Water Meters, Shrubbery

Response Good

Memorial Gifts To Hospital

Zebulon's initial response to requests for memorial gifts to the fund for landscaping the Wendell-Zebulon Hospital grounds has been good, according to C. V. Tart, chairman of the project to beautify the grounds, even though no organized effort has been made to solicit gifts.

Methodist Men's Conference At Duke This Weekend

The Annual Conference for Methodist Men is scheduled for Duke University this weekend. The Conference will bring together men from all over the Conference's 56-county area.

At least two delegates are slated to go from Zebulon Methodist Church for the entire weekend with others planning to attend a portion of the activities.

Garland L. Richardson, an immediate past president of the Zebulon MM, and Wayne L. Davis, will represent the Zebulon Methodist Church at the conference.

The conference begins Saturday at noon and closes Sunday with the worship service in the Duke Chapel.

Tripp Bros. Open Wendell Warehouses

A new tobacco warehouse firm opens in Wendell for the 1961 marketing season.

The widely-known Tripp Brothers of Greenville, N. C., who retired in 1958, have re-entered the tobacco business choosing Wendell as the location of their new tobacco auction house.

The Tripp Brothers, Jasper L. and C. Morris Tripp, are operators of the new firm which will use the Farmers Warehouse for their new location at the corner of Third and Cypress Streets in the heart of Wendell's business section.

The Tripp Brothers operated the world's largest tobacco warehouse in Greenville. This warehouse—which they sold—covered eleven and one-half acres. It was known world-wide as the world's largest warehouse.

The experienced operators promise to favor the farmer in every possible way. Reputable in every dealing of past years, they expressed the sincere desire to aid every farming family to get the maximum for every pound of tobacco sold by them.

As members of the Wendell Tobacco Board of Trade, they offer full support to the local area.

Jasper L. Tripp has lived in Raleigh since retiring. He is married to the former Lucille Baker of Washington, N. C. They have two children: one son, J. L., Jr., who is a senior at State College, and one daughter, Judy, who is a rising senior at Needham Broughton High School in Raleigh. They reside at 1703 St. Mary's Street, Raleigh.

C. Morris Tripp of Mt. Sterling, Kentucky, will live in Wendell with his wife, the former Frances Greer of Mt. Sterling. She will be bookkeeper for the firm.

AUDIT

The town books and the books of Zebulon Recorder's Court are being audited this week by R. L. Steel Company of Raleigh.

William Parrish appeared before Mayor Ed Hales and the Town Board of Commissioners August 7 to express his views on paving the area in front of his laundrette business on East Vance Street. He was assured by the Board they would give the matter consideration and notify him of their decision.

The clerk of the town was asked to write a letter of appreciation to Victor Bell for providing Dr. Lee Sedwitz, Wendell-Zebulon Hospital surgeon, a house until a permanent home could be secured for the surgeon and his family.

Town Clerk Willie B. Bapkins was asked to inform Frank Kannon of the danger caused by the shrubbery on his lot which blocks the view on Gannon Avenue and to ask Mr. Kannon to remove the shrubbery. The clerk was asked to also check all intersections of the town for like conditions and to inform property owners if such conditions exist.

Attention was called at this meeting to the complaints regarding water bills and the need for correct readings of all water meters and the need for meter repairs. The clerk is to ascertain the number of new water meters needed and to repair immediately all those meters that can be repaired. A report is to be made to the Board at its next meeting of the number of new meters needed.

Proposed drafts of water and sewer and sub-division ordinances were read to and discussed by the Board.

Mrs. Melvin Lanier was appointed to fill the vacancy of town librarian. The vacancy was created when Mrs. Gilford Bufkin resigned to take a job in Raleigh.

Present at the meeting were Mayor Ed Hales and Commissioners J. R. Alford, T. B. Hepler, G. K. Corbett and Mrs. Elizabeth Ellett.

C. B. Eddins Dies Tuesday PM In Raleigh Rest Home

Charles Bernice Eddins died Tuesday afternoon at Mayview Rest Home in Raleigh after a two months lingering illness. He was a patient at Wendell-Zebulon Hospital until Monday when he was transferred to the Raleigh rest home.

Eddins was born July 1, 1884, in Eastern Wake County. He was the son of the late J. M. and Nora Whitley Eddins. He was one of eight children of the couple.

He was married to the former Mary Chamblee of Zebulon. She preceded him in death in 1949. They were the parents of eight children.

Eddins was a retired farmer and cobbler. He operated a shoe repair business in Zebulon for 28 years.

Surviving are five sons, C. B., Jr., of Claxton, Ga.; Sidney of Zebulon; Mike W. of McKees Rocks, Pa.; Vassar A. of North Augusta, S. C.; Wilmer B. of Dublin, Ga.; two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth E. Pearce and Mrs. Georgia E. Croom, both of Zebulon; one sister, Mrs. Maggie King of Raleigh; one brother, Robert Eddins of Wakefield; 18 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Funeral rites will be held Friday morning at 11 o'clock from Zebulon Baptist Church of which he was a member. The Rev. David Daniel, pastor, and the Rev. W. K. Quick, Zebulon Methodist minister, will officiate. Burial will be in Zebulon cemetery.

C. B. Eddins
