

THE ZEBULON RECORD

VOLUME 36, NUMBER 35, ZEBULON, N. C., OCTOBER 5, 1961

OPENS MONDAY

Cancer Loan Closet

The first loan closet system established outside of Raleigh opens in Zebulon Monday, October 9, according to Mrs. Aaron C. Lowery.

Mrs. Lowery, who will manage the local loan closet system, said the loan closet will have available to cancer patients hospital beds, wheel chairs, bed pans, urinals and dressings.

Mrs. Lowery said the local doctors are working closely with her and will advise her of the patient's financial status before loans of equipment are made.

She said she is very proud of the progress made and feels very strongly about the new venture. She said the people must be educated to the fact that cancer is not necessary and that it can be cured if it is caught in time.

She urges persons who suspect they have a cancer to contact the Wake County unit of the Cancer Society for x-rays. They can call TE4-1813.

Mrs. Lowery has distributed leaflets and pamphlets in local business offices, doctors' offices and at the Wendell-Zebulon Hospital. She said she has had response that they are being read, which makes her feel very proud that people are interested.

Mrs. Lizzie F. Askew has contacted Mrs. Lowery and asked to be made the chairman of the colored cancer campaign drive this year, Mrs. Lowery said. She congratulated Mrs. Askew on her work with the drive last year.

Approximately $1,000 was given by the local populace in last year's drive, headed by Mrs. Lowery's husband.

Mrs. Lowery was made a director of the Wake County Cancer Society in September. She has been attending meetings and conclaves and is one of the most active members of the Society. Her interest is unflagging.

Persons who feel they need assistance from the local loan closet are asked to contact Mrs. Lowery at her home.
