Mrs. Vera B. Rhodes

We had a large crowd at church last Sunday for the note burning and dedication service. Rev. Vernon Brooks brought the message. Special music was rendered by the men's quartet: Rev. Vernon Brooks, Harold Pippin, Harold Green and Sprite Ferrell. After the sermon Rev. Horace

Hamm called Rev. Mr. Brooks, Robert Eddins, and Bernice Strickland to the front. Mr. Eddins held the silver tray, Rev. Mr. Brooks held the note over the tray while Mr. Strickland lighted a match and the note, it burned and fell in the tray. After that a receiving line was formed by Rev. Mr. Brooks and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Eddins and Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Strickland and shook hands with the congregation. The WMS ladies and others spread a bountiful table on the patio porch. Some plates were sent to the sick.

The Farm Bureau Auxiliary met with Miss Mary Palmer last Monday night. Wallace Parker of Raleigh, Farm Bureau worker, made a picture of Miss Jean Perry, who will dance in the talent find next Monday night at the Sir Walter Hotel in Raleigh. She danced on our program. Business was discussed. Mrs. Shirley Blanker, home service representative of CP&L, then gave a cooking demonstration on Holiday Buffet. She prepared and served the dinner buffet style: jellied glazed ham, cinnamon apple relish, sweet potato balls, French green beans, peach gelatin mold, Christmas tree cake iced with green and trimmed with candy, and cranberry punch.

THANKSGIVING

Once more November's cornucopia spills
Her harvest largess over fields and hills,
Orchards and rangelands stretching sea to sea,
Fulfilling Spring's bright promise lavishly!

In town and village families gather in
For happy hours with reunited kin;
And savory fragrances from kitchens rise,
A true Thanksgiving incense, to the skies!

We thank Thee, Lord, for tables richly spread,
But most for peace that sweetens daily bread!
For friends and home, for work, and love that lights
Our busy days. And for those hard-won rights

To think, to speak, to worship as we please—
Lord, give us grace always to cherish these!
And more—help us to seek for ways to share
These precious gifts with all men everywhere.
