VOLUME 36, NUMBER 67, ZEBULON, N. C., MAY 24, 1962

Participate in Big Parade

ARMED FORCES DAY ceremonies included a colorful parade down Raleigh's Fayetteville Street with the gigantic 10-ton truck from Zebulon's Battery A. Sp4 Lawrence Perry is at the wheel of the truck, and Pfc Bobby Gravitt is at his right. Dwarfed behind the thundering truck is one of Battery A's huge 8-inch howitzers, a weapon capable of firing an atomic projectile. Preceding the truck and howitzer in the parade was a jeep carrying Lt. Dewey Brannon and Master Sergeant Ralph Creech. Behind the truck is a second jeep from Battery A with Pfc. Warren Boykin and Sgt Joseph Raper. Sp4 Loomis Stallings and Pfc Tony Pearce also participated in the parade. A second 10-ton truck and 8-inch howitzer from the Zebulon National Guard unit participated in Armed Forces Day ceremonies in Greensboro. The truck and howitzer shown above were displayed Saturday afternoon in Cameron Village.

Governor Appears on Program Honoring Wendell's Bo Todd

The Governor of North Carolina may have been present but a hand-some bespectacled Wendell High School youth was the honored guest.

Furney A. "Bo" Todd, Jr., was honored by the Wendell Lions at a banquet Monday night. Other townsmen were also present at the meeting held in the school cafeteria.

Bo was second place winner in the botany-biological division of the National Science Fair held in Seattle, Washington. His project was The Effect of Irradiation on Black Shank Fungus.

Governor Terry Sanford praised the high school youth and his teacher, Mrs. Elwood Perry.

The Governor said what is important in quality education is "providing a means and place where young people can seek excellence. Excellence is something for which we must forever strive."

"This business of quality education is to seek excellence," Sanford continued. "It is designed to achieve excellence and to develop the kind of men and women who can provide leadership for tomorrow."

Sanford declared there is no more important profession in the nation and no greater need than the teaching profession.

"What she (Mrs. Perry) has done is to literally touch the lives of hundreds of boys and girls," Sanford said.

The Governor defended his food tax legislation passed by the 1961 Legislature.

"As we pay these few pennies," he declared, "we are building a (Continued on Page 10)

These have included Free Will Baptists, Disciples of Christ, Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Baptists, Quaker, Lutheran, Holiness and Methodist.

Spirited Political Contests To Be Decided on Saturday

Zebulon Town Manager Willie B. Hopkins expects a "relatively light vote" in the Democratic primary Saturday.

Hopkins said he feels this is because it is an off-year election.

He said he does not expect more than 750-800 ballots to be cast.

Wade Privette is registrar for Little River Township (Zebulon). R. R. Thompson, acting town manager of Wendell, said he is "expecting a record vote" for Mark's Creek Township (Wendell).

He said he feels it will be the "biggest vote we have ever had."

Mrs. Bourke Bilisoly is registrar for Mark's Creek Township. Zebulon Attorney Ferd Davis and former Wendell School principal Carl Grad are seeking seats on the Wake County Board of Education.

W. J. Ammons, Jr., a Wendell farmer, Thomas Bailey of Wendell, a prominent business executive, and Billy K. Hopkins, a Zebulon farmer, have been actively campaigning for seats on the Wake County Board of Commissioners.

Willie Bullock of Zebulon is unopposed for justice of the peace. Polls will be open from 6:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.
