

THE ZEBULON RECORD

VOLUME 37, NUMBER 27, ZEBULON, N. C., AUGUST 9, 1962

No Thalidomide Here

No thalidomide can be found in Zebulon.

A check with three doctors, Dr. Ben Thomas, Dr. George Tucker, and Dr. Durwood Stallings, revealed that not one has prescribed the drug.

Both drug firms here—Zebulon

Drug and Morgan Drugs—reported they have not had any of the drug, now being blamed for malformation of thousands of babies in Europe, Canada and Australia.

Mrs. Mary Temple, Wendell-Zebulon Hospital nurse director, said none of the drug has been received or used at the local hospital.

Headline Causes Stir

A headline in last week's paper caused a bit of a stir among some members of the Wakelon School Board who were disturbed by a headline which stated that a Cuban refugee had been "approved" as a teacher in the school system.

Dr. Jose L. Roy Barreau was interviewed by the board for the position of Spanish instructor in the high school for the coming year. He was not, however, approved by the board.

It has been reported that two members of the board did not approve hiring a second foreign language teacher. They preferred strengthening another department in the school.

One board member said he is in favor of a teacher of Spanish in the school. He said he thinks Spanish is infinitely more important now than French, the only foreign language taught in the school.

"However, we really ought to have Russian taught," he added.

Wake County has been allotted an additional teacher and Supt. Fred Smith agreed that this teacher may be employed in the Wakelon system.

The county will pay the salary for Dr. Barreau, if he becomes a member of the Wakelon faculty. At first, the salary was to be made up of donations from citizens of the school district.

Interested citizens in the project have expressed hope that the school board will think strongly before it decides to miss the opportunity of enriching the school's foreign language curricula.

The board did not meet Monday night. Chairman Philip Olive could not say when the group will hold another meeting.

Operation

Policeman L. A. Baker underwent an operation last week on his right ear for the removal of a growth. He is doing very well and has not had a report yet as to whether or not the growth was malignant.

Hospital Has Its Biggest Month

Wendell-Zebulon Hospital was fairly bursting at the seams Thursday, August 2.

According to hospital officials, there were 27 patients—23 adults and three babies.

This is the biggest patient list so far. The hospital has beds for only 20 patients.

Biggest Day At Hospital Aug. 2

Wendell-Zebulon Hospital officials said Tuesday they had the greatest daily census during the month of July than any month since the hospital opened.

There were 104 admissions; 44 operations were performed; and nine babies were delivered.

Final Session

The final session of the Dale Carnegie class is August 14. Following the class the 11 members and instructor will hold a banquet at Dolphin's Restaurant in Wendell.

KNIFING

Junius Royal didn't duck quickly enough and the sharp blade ripped his cheek, and so

Louis Bobbitt, about 50, has been charged with assault with a deadly weapon, to wit a pocket knife.

Royal was cut, according to Police Chief Willie B. Hopkins Friday night. The affray occurred on Barbee Street.

Bobbitt is in jail in lieu of $100 bond. He will be given trial in Zebulon Recorder's Court.

Both men are Negroes.

Five Churches To Hold A Simultaneous Revival in Sept.

PLANNING . . . Ministers of five Baptist churches are shown laying plans for the first evangelistic crusade to be held in Zebulon community. Left to right are the Rev. Gilbert McDowell, Pilot Church pastor; the Rev. Horace Hamm, Wakefield pastor; the Rev. Garland Foushee, Pearce pastor; the Rev. Claude Walker, Hopkins Chapel pastor; and the Rev. Robert Ward, Union Chapel pastor, planning the crusade to be held in the Pearce community baseball park September 7, 8, and 9. Dr. Leo Green of the Southeastern Baptist Seminary will be the evangelist conducting the series of meetings.

The first simultaneous evangelistic crusade ever to be held in the Zebulon community is set for September 7, 8, and 9.

Sponsored by the churches of Pearce, Pilot, Union Chapel, Hopkins and Wakefield, the crusade will be held in the Pearce community ball park.

The ministers of the churches voiced unanimous opinions that such a crusade will "create a new stimulant for our churches and every individual that participates." They said, too, that they "feel that evangelism is the very heart of Christian life."

The amply lighted ball park where the three-night services are to be held will furnish accommodations for the many persons expected. One of the ministers said at least 1,000 persons are expected nightly. Services will get underway at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. James Leo Green, professor of Hebrew and Old Testament at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest, will deliver the nightly sermons.

Dr. Green was born at New Albany, Miss., on November 27, 1912. He has an A. B. degree from Mississippi College, Th.M. and Ph.D. degrees from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, has taught Old Testament and Hebrew at Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary where he is acting head of the department, and has held pastorates in Pensacola and Gainesville (Fla.). He has been associated with the Seminary since 1951.

His wife is the former Mary Ruth Huff of Forest, Miss. They have three children, James Leo, Jr., 14; John Richard, 9; and Rebecca Lynn, 6.

Dr. Green has been active in evangelistic work; conducted many programs of religious focus, emphasis, etc., on campuses of numbers of colleges and universities.

Douglas McCullough will be in charge of the singing at the three-night evangelistic rally. A Tennessee native, he is a graduate of Howard College in Birmingham, Ala., and attended Southeastern Seminary. He has served as pastor of churches in Alabama and North Carolina. He is presently serving as pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church in Kinston.

The combined 100-voice choirs of the churches participating will sing at the crusade. Cadwain Cone, Pilot Baptist Church organist-choir director, will accompany the song sessions.

Fires Take Toll of Tobacco Barns; Adds Up To $5,000

Approximately $5,000 has gone up in smoke from tobacco barn fires during the last week, and the Zebulon Rural Fire Department was called to help extinguish six fires within a week.

July 17 at 5:30 p.m. damage from fire to a tobacco barn on the M. T. Taylor farm resulted in a $1,000 loss.

There was no estimate of loss when a bad burner caused a fire in a barn belonging to Earl Horton, one mile southwest of Zebulon. This fire was at 1:45 p.m. on July 23.

Paul Strickland had a loss of $1,250 when his barn caught fire on July 28 at 2:35 a.m.

A bad oil burner was the cause of a fire in the barn belonging to Ebbie Stallings at 6:15 p.m. Friday. Loss was $1,000.

The cause of a fire to Jesse Bailey's barn last week was unknown. The barn was full of green tobacco and the burners had not been lighted. Damage was listed at $200.

Little Business

The Town Board acted on three issues Monday night. It unanimously passed a rezoning ordinance which allows Carolina Power & Light Co. sub-station here to expand. The sub-station is in the residential district.

The board rejected all bids on a truck for the Sanitary Department and on a 1953 police car. These bids are to be readvertised.

Forrest Hendricks, Robert Edd Horton and John Hilliard were reappointed by the Wake County Board of Commissioners to the Zebulon Planning Commission. These three men will represent the outside area of the town. Their terms expire in 1963.

SUSPECT

A suspect is being held in Zebulon jail for burglarizing the home of Dillard Targ on North Street Monday night. Police would not reveal his identity. He was apprehended by Night Policeman Wendell Perry. An investigation is continuing.

Lewis Liles Performs In 4-H Talent Parade

Lewis Liles was one of 30 outstanding 4-H club members of the State to be selected to perform in the 4-H Parade of Talent on July 27 at the Coliseum.

Liles represented Wake County in the talent show. He presented Rachmaninoff's Prelude in C Sharp Minor on the piano.

The popular Wakelon student and outstanding community and county 4-H leader was the Wake County and district winner in the recent talent contests. He is also an accomplished pianist, organist and dancer.

Liles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Liles of Route 2, Zebulon.

Businessman Is Patient

Frank Kannon, long-time Zebulon merchant, is a patient at Wendell-Zebulon Hospital. He was admitted last Thursday and is suffering from a bleeding stomach ulcer. The popular young merchant is expected to undergo an operation when he is built up sufficiently.

Two Brothers Shot On Street Here; Receive Only Minor Injuries

A shot pierced the ears of bystanders and caused on-lookers to shudder Saturday at 12 o'clock when James T. Richardson fired at Charles Richardson and Lee Richardson.

The three men are all Negroes. Charles and Lee Richardson are brothers.

According to Police Officer Willie B. Hopkins, James Richardson took a bead on the brothers with a shotgun. Charles Richardson suffered shot in his back, and Lee Richardson was wounded in the face.

Police Officer Hopkins quoted the Richardson brothers as saying that James Richardson wanted some money from them and they wouldn't give the money to him.

Richardson was about 50 feet from the brothers when the shooting occurred at the corner of Ardenell Avenue and Barbee Street.

The brothers received first aid from a local physician.

Richardson, who gave his address as Route 1, Zebulon, is charged with assault with a deadly weapon, disorderly conduct, and discharging fire arms in the town. He will be given trial in Zebulon Recorder's Court. He was placed in jail in lieu of $1,000 bond.

The Richardson brothers gave their address as Route 4, Zebulon.

Norwich Mills . . . Wendell Division

Underwear Factory Begins Operation Monday Morn

The Wendell branch of Norwich Mills, Inc., began operation Monday, according to George M. Kloster, manager of the Wendell and Clayton divisions.

The Wendell company manufactures nationally known underwear and sweat shirts.

Kloster said the branch is now in a training program with 15 persons. When the plant gets into full production 80 workers will be employed.

The plant, located on Highway 264 at Wendell city limits, has 15,000 square feet of floor space.

Kloster said he is "looking forward to a very nice and successful operation."

Milton Riddell will be assistant manager of the Wendell and Clayton plants.
