Homecoming

Homecoming Day observances will be held at Corinth Baptist Church Sunday, September 30. The Rev. Paul Hardy, pastor of First Baptist Church of Yanceyville, will be the guest minister. Services get underway at 10 a.m. with Sunday School. The worship hour is 11 o'clock. Dinner will be served on the grounds following the worship hour and singing will be held in the afternoon.

Depot Agent Retires

H. E. Mann retired as depot agent with Norfolk-Southern Railroad Friday, September 7. He had served the Zebulon agency since 1932. Mann spent 48 years with Norfolk-Southern. He was recently complimented by S. C. Cherry, assistant vice president of operations, for his "faithful, loyal, and devoted service." Mann and his wife, pictured above with him, plan to move from Zebulon to Newport in Carteret County, of which he is a native. He said he is anxious to "see how the trout are running," being an avid fisherman. Mrs. Mann was regretful of leaving Zebulon, saying she wouldn't mind "if I could carry the surroundings and my neighbors and friends with me." Stephen C. Alford is serving the agency now.

Jaycees to Man Station WETC

The 25-member Jaycee chapter of Zebulon will man the airways on Sunday over radio station WETC, 540 on the dial.

The Jaycees, in an attempt to raise money for the cottage of boys supported at Hallsboro, will take over the operation of the station throughout the day.

The chief announcers during the day will be Teddy Davis, David Daniel, and Bruce Creekmore. Other Jaycees will take care of the weather reports, the news and advertising spot announcements.

The 11:00 Worship will be broadcast from the Zebulon Methodist Church and sermon by the minister will center on the Jaycee Creed.

All the proceeds from advertising realized by the Jaycees will go towards the support of the boys sponsored by the N. C. Jaycees.

Bruce Creekmore spearheaded the local project.

Union Service

The quarterly fifth Sunday night union service of the Zebulon Baptist Church and Zebulon Methodist Church will be held this Sunday evening, September 30, at 7:30 p.m. The service this quarter will be at the Zebulon Methodist Church. Sermon will be by the Baptist minister, the Rev. David E. Daniel and music will be by the Methodist Church choir. The host pastor, the Rev. Bill Quick will preside.

Bulldogs, Blue Flames Battle to 14-14 Tie; Oxford Game Friday

By Bill Quick

The Wakelon Bulldogs were slowed somewhat on Friday night as they saw their unblemished 1962 record marred by a 14-14 tie with the Nashville Blue Flames.

Reminiscent of the 1960 contest when Wakelon eked out a 14-13 victory in the dying moments of the game, the gridiron skirmish was a thriller to the finish.

Wakelon won the toss, elected to receive and after marching for eight yards was forced to boot. On a 80-yard sustained drive that was climaxed by a 50-yard run by sophomore quarterback Wayne Wells, the Nashville eleven pulled ahead 6-0. Steve Evans kicked the vital extra point to push it 7-0. The Bulldogs offensive threats were stymied until the second quarter when senior quarterback Tommy Wood connected on a pass to end Thurston Debnam that covered 55 yards and Wakelon's first six-pointer. Wood passed to Creech for the extra point that tied the game.

Nashville began a drive that carried the Flames to the one-foot line when the gun sounded on second down.

Nashville took the lead again in the third quarter as fullback Charles Chappell bulled his way over from the 5-yard line. Evans again kicked the extra point.

Wakelon scored the tying touchdown on a 51-yard drive that culminated in a seven-yard run by halfback Randy Creech to paydirt. Freddie Ellington was called upon to attempt the extra point and Ellington pushed his way through the center of the Nashville line to tie the score 14-14.

Both teams had scoring opportunities in the remaining minutes

Last year the Nashville team pasted the Bulldogs 20-7.

The team travels to Oxford on Friday night to meet Oxford Orphanage at 8 p.m. Follow the Bulldogs!

of the fourth quarter but failed to materialize for either.

Wakelon FFA Chapter Completes Plans for Coming Year's Work

The Wakelon chapter of Future Farmers of America launched out on a program of work Thursday by electing officers to lead the organization through a year of activities. The main aim of the club this year is the development of agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The program being planned for the year will strive to attain this aim.

The FFA is composed of students enrolled in vocational agriculture. These students will participate in public speaking, parliamentary procedure, livestock judging, land judging and other activities that will develop leadership and cooperation. The organization plans to carry out activities that could benefit farmer and others in the community.
