

THE ZEBULON RECORD

MANN FILM LABORATORIE
PO BOX 5426
ARDMORE STATION
WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

VOLUME 38, NUMBER 3, ZEBULON, N. C., JANUARY 17, 1963

GA Queen Vickie Tart regally stands with her court. Miss Tart was crowned GA queen Sunday night in services held at Zebulon Baptist Church. Front row, left to right, Jane Hinton, Angela Hood, Carl Tart, crown bearer, Queen Vickie Tart, Sherrie Davis, flower girl, Faye Sawyer, Peggy Maiden, and Nancy Maiden; second row, Pam Jenkins, Arlene Hood, Donna Williams, Patsy Braswell, Phyllis Sherron and Judy Scarborough; third row, Deborah Stallings, Candace Debnam, Carolyn Perry, Connie May, Vickie Wood, Cathy Clark, Susan Pippin, Sherry Bowling, Carolyn Jo Massey, Ruby Lee Creech, Vickie Gordon, Diana Duke and Susan Davis.

Vickie Tart Is Crowned GA Queen In Ceremonies at Baptist Church

Miss Vickie Tart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Tart, was crowned Girls Auxiliary Queen during a candlelight service at the Zebulon Baptist Church Sunday evening, January 13.

"Following the Star" was the theme of the Girls Auxiliary Service of Recognition and Coronation. The GA colors of green, gold, and white were used to decorate the church and to mark the reserved pews. The Queen and her court wore white dresses.

Members of the Court were as follows:

Princesses—Jane Hinton, Angela Hood, Nancy Maiden, Peggie Maiden, and Faye Sawyer.

Ladies-in-Waiting—Patsy Braswell, Arlene Hood, Judy Scarborough, Phyllis Sherron, and Donna Williams.

Maidens—Cherry Bowling, Cathy Clark, Ruby Lee Creech, Susan Davis, Candace Debnam, Diana Duke, Cheryl Gay, Vicki Gordon, Patsy Hales, Pam Jenkins, Carolyn Jo Massey, Connie May, Diane May, Patricia Pearce, Carolyn Perry, Susan Pippin, Deborah Stallings, and Vicki Wood.

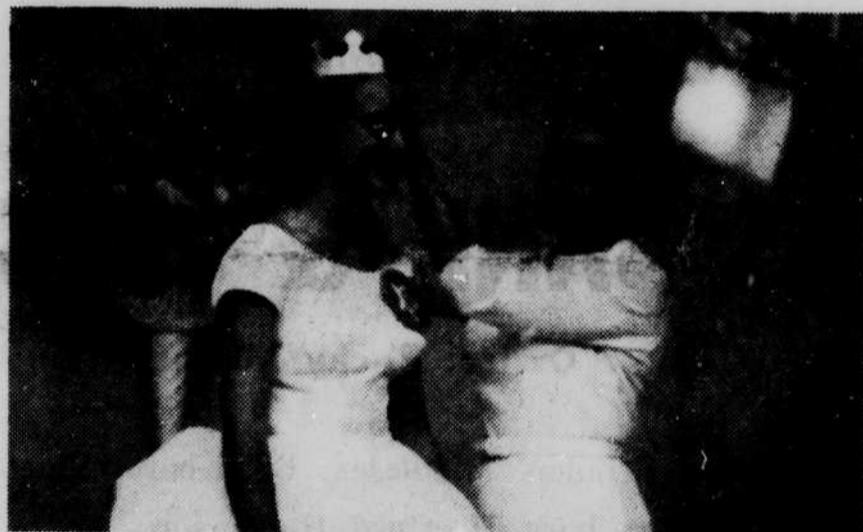

As each girl was recognized for her achievements in GA work, she was asked by Mrs. Lester Green, GA director, to tell something she had learned. Miss Tart earned the honor of being crowned Queen by completing all the steps in the GA program. The various steps include Bible study, mission study, community missions pro-

(Continued on Page 6)

Texas Native Is Speaker for PTA

Drew McFarland, a native of Texas, will speak on Monday night at 7:45 at the January PTA. McFarland is a graduate of Baylor University and did his master's and doctoral degree work at Southwestern Theological Seminary. He will speak to the group on civic moral consciousness with a special emphasis on the scientific education of teenagers regarding alcohol.

Devotional will be led by the Rev. Bill Quick, pastor of the Zebulon Methodist Church. Mrs. Ferd Davis, president, urges all PTA members and parents to be present.

Mrs. C. V. Tart, right, is seen placing the GA queen's crown on her daughter Vickie. The happy occasion, as shown by faces, took place Sunday night when Vickie was crowned GA queen in ceremonies held at Zebulon Baptist Church.

Peoples Bank Getting $50,000 Face-Lifting

Construction of the 36 by 50 addition to the local branch of Peoples Bank & Trust Co. began November 1. Cashier Robert D. Massey could not report when completion will be through, however.

The present building, located at the corner of Vance Street and Arendell Avenue, will also undergo renovation. The 25 by 50 room will be used as the main banking department. It will be finished in candlelight samara.

The addition will house book-keeping offices, general purpose room for meetings, etc., manager's office, storage-supply room, book vault, and rest rooms for men and women.

The manager's office will be finished in charter cherry paneling. The floors throughout will be done in terazzo.

An additional 200 safety deposit boxes will be installed bringing the total number of safety deposit boxes to around 500. There will also be a night depository.

The fixtures will be mahogany. The exterior of the building will be finished in porcelain enamel squares.

Russell Sorrell of Rocky Mount is the architect for the building. Isaac Smith of Rocky Mount is the general contractor. The cost of the construction and renovation is approximately $50,000.

Peoples Bank & Trust Co. of Rocky Mount opened the Zebulon branch September 1, 1935. The town had been without a bank for two years, since President Franklin D. Roosevelt declared the banking holiday on March 5, 1933.

The first bank to open in Zebulon was the Bank of Zebulon. This was in 1919. Then the Citizens Bank came into existence. Later, the two banks merged during the depression and became the Zebulon Banking and Trust Co.

New Cemetery Is Planned for Area

A new Biblical type cemetery with perpetual care has been planned for Wendell-Zebulon and surrounding areas.

L. R. Wilson, president of United Cemetery Consultants, Inc., of Raleigh said his firm has been secured for professional designing and development of the project.

The 22-acre cemetery will be named Gethsemane Memorial Gardens. It is owned locally and is located on US Highway 64 Bypass just below Wendell-Zebulon Hospital.

Plans call for a series of religious gardens, each to be one or two acres in size, and each with a central feature symbolic of some event in the life of Christ.

The cemetery organization is chartered by the Secretary of State and is operated under the supervision of the N. C. Burial Commission.

One of the most interesting and modern projects of Gethsemane Memorial Gardens will be the construction of 36 above-the-ground entombment crypts, located within the base of the first Memorial. The first Memorial will depict Christ praying in the Garden of Gethsemane and will be located within a flagstone court and meditation area in the center of the first garden.

Through Gethsemane Memorial Gardens the families of the Wendell-Zebulon area will have memorial facilities that up to this time have been available only in the largest cities.

