Personal Notes

Bob Horton of Cincinnati flies to Richmond Thursday (today) for a business meeting. From Richmond he will come to Zebulon for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Doris Privette, and mother, Mrs. John Horton, who is at a rest home in Wake Forest.

"It's a big challenge, and there is a lot to learn."

That's what Ann Hopkins said since she has become affiliated with the National Institute of Health in Bethesda, Md. Miss Hopkins began work with the hospital the first of the year.

Right now Nurse Hopkins is associated with the hospital's cancer clinic.

"Oh, yes, it's interesting, but a big challenge and a lot to learn," she said.

She expects to be with the hospital for approximately a year for this graduate study. She graduated from the University of North Carolina Medical School of Nursing in June.

Miss Diana Chamblee, a freshman at ECC, spent the weekend here with her grandmother, Mrs. M. B. Chamblee.

Houseguests of Mrs. Chamblee for the weekend were her nephew and his family, Lt. and Mrs. Frederick Josey and son of Norfolk.

Mrs. Milton Barber of Lexington, the former Margaret Brown of Zebulon, is recuperating at her home from recent brain tumor surgery. About 46 years old, Mrs. Barber underwent the delicate operation at Baptist Hospital in Winston-Salem. She was stricken the latter part of October. She is beginning to learn how to talk and walk again. There are nurses around the clock for her.

Mrs. John Liles left Tuesday for her home in Sanford after visiting her mother, Mrs. Millard Chamblee.

Remember Christmas Day here? Every branch and twig sheathed in sleet. But in Orlando, Fla., it was just right.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Finch were in Orlando during the Christmas holidays visiting their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Finch.

"The weather was just perfect," Mrs. Finch said. "In fact, we turned on the air conditioning on Christmas Day."

Dave and Ginny and their children are now residing in their new colonial style home. All are doing very nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Finch left December 15 and returned January 3.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hinton spent the weekend in Roanoke Rapids with Mrs. McRae Faison.

Coressa Chamblee won't be going to Washington to see the Mona Lisa. When she visited Paris several summers ago, Mrs. Chamblee went to the Louvre and feasted her eyes on the famous painting all she wanted to.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Newton came from Oxford Sunday for the GA coronation ceremony of their granddaughter, Vickie Tart. Other relatives attending the service held in the Zebulon Baptist Church were Wayne and Jackie Newton of Oxford, Misses Elizabeth Ann Lumpkin and Arlene Loftis of Stovall and Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Guess and son of Raleigh.

Mrs. Foster Finch and Mrs. Millard Chamblee motored to Burlington last week for a visit with Mrs. Chamblee's granddaughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Knight.

Another milestone was passed by Philip Massey on November 5. On that date he celebrated his 75th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kimball celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary Saturday, January 5. The couple were entertained at a dinner party in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. Newton of Fayetteville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Falc Bunn Sunday. Mrs. Bunn and Mr. Newton are sister and brother.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hilliard spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hilliard and family of Sanford.

Roney Narron, a patient at the Veteran's Hospital in Durham since September 1 after suffering severe burns in a fire at his home, is improving. He had to have the amputation of one finger from the fire accident and must under go another finger amputation and the removal of a knee cap at a future date.

Mrs. Ben Thomas and Mrs. Armstrong Cannady attended a coffee hour for the Mothers' March of Dimes chairmen Tuesday at 10 o'clock at the Governor's Mansion. They were among several others from across the state at the Mansion at the request of Governor and Mrs. Terry Sanford. However the Governor and his First Lady were not present for the occasion. Coffee, open face tomato sandwiches, chicken salad sandwiches, cheese straws, and cake was served. The cake was four-tiered and had 25 written on it, it being the 25th birthday of the March of Dimes campaign.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Seago are advertising their house for sale. Rumor is that they plan to move to Raleigh. He is a consultant engineer with the State and she is a member of the Wakelon High School faculty.

Card of Thanks

The family of Mrs. Emma Daniel is grateful for the many deeds of kindness during the illness and death of their mother. May God bless and watch over you.

Bake potatoes in a muffin pan. The potatoes will not move around and will be easy to remove from oven.
