ZEBULON RECORD

VOLUME 38, NUMBER 6, ZEBULON, N. C., FEBRUARY 7, 1963

Architect's drawing of low rent housing unit.

Local Housing Project Begins Wednesday

Construction of low cost housing units got underway here Monday, according to Melvin Massey, executive director of the Wake County Housing Authority.

The 12 white and 20 non-white units here will cost an estimated $390,914. The entire project for the towns of Zebulon, Wendell, Wake Forest and Apex will cost in excess of $1,442,000.

The white units will be located between East Horton and Vance Streets. The non-white units will be across the highway from Devil Dog Manufacturing Co.

The units will have outside walls of brick veneer over cement blocks. The interior will be plastered. There will be one, two and three bedroom units and four and five single bed units.

Completion date for the four projects is January 1964, Massey said.

The construction contract was awarded to W. H. Weaver Construction Co. of Greensboro. Dixie Plumbing Co. of Raleigh was awarded the plumbing contract. The electrical and heating contracts were awarded to Larving Co. of Charlotte and E. L. Scott of Kinston, respectively.

John J. Rowland of Kinston is the architect for the project.

Men Order Gas and Oil, Leave Without Paying

Riding on unpaid gasoline and oil landed two Negro men in jail Saturday night.

Grover Lee Dunn, about 27, of Route 4, Zebulon, and George Williams, Jr., about 42, of Rolesville, were apprehended Saturday night by Zebulon police and charged with larceny and careless and reckless driving. They are in Wake County jail with a bond of $200 each.

Police said the two men drove up to Sinclair service station at the corner of Arendell and Gannon Avenues and ordered their 1955 Ford serviced with gasoline and oil.

Durwood Richardson, attendant, told police he gassed and oiled the car and then the men drove off without paying for the merchandise. He took the license number and later saw them drive through town and then notified the police.

Police found the car ditched between Barbee Street and the National Guard Armory. However, no one was in the car and so the vehicle was towed to a local garage.

About an hour after police discovered the car the men came to the police station to reclaim the car. Both denied to police they had driven the car. Under questioning, however, Dunn admitted he was driving the car.

Police said Richardson said the men got three quarts of motor oil and $2 worth of gasoline.

Damages to the car were minor, police said.

Dunn was charged with larceny and careless and reckless driving. Williams was charged with larceny.

County Board of Commissioners Votes Delay in Site Approval

90-Day Study Period Is Set

The Wake County Board of Commissioners, after hearing arguments for and against a proposed school site for a consolidated high school in eastern Wake County, voted Monday to postpone for 90 days a decision on approval of the site, which would serve Zebulon, Wendell, Knightdale, and Rolesville.

The decision to postpone final action came in the face of an appeal by Education Board Chairman C. V. Whitley and School Superintendent Fred Smith to the commissioners to approve the site.

Smith told the commissioners that he would never permit the consolidated school to be built on a site other than the one recommended by the Board of Education, since it would take too long for Rolesville students to get to other sites.

Raleigh lawyers J. W. Bunn and Clem Holding appeared before the commissioners to urge that other sites be considered. Bunn spoke in favor of a site between Lizard Lick and Hephzibah Church owned by Miss Pattie Lee, and Holding stated that detailed studies had been made showing several other available sites would be far more economical than the Board of Education site.

After the appeals were made, the Board of Commissioners voted unanimously to appoint a five man committee from its membership to study the matter and report back in 90 days. Named to the committee were Commissioners W. J. Booth of Apex, chairman, W. W. Holding III, of Wake Forest, Billy K. Hopkins of Zebulon, James (Continued on Page 6)

Children's Pictures to Be Made for Zebulon Record

It is an undisputed fact that the responsibilities of tomorrow's world, our Nation, and Community will rest upon the shoulders of the children of today. Since this is true, the publishers of this newspaper would like to give you a good look at these future "World Builders."

The only way we can do this is by publishing pictures of them in a feature series. To assure the latest and best reproduction pictures . . . they must all be of uniform size and quality.

An expert children's photographer with all the necessary equipment for this specialized work, will be here Saturday, February 23. Pictures will be taken at Zebulon Woman's Club and will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

No Charge to Parents

There is no charge to the parents. There are absolutely no strings to this invitation. It is bonafide in every sense of the word. Parents do not have to be subscribers, nor even readers of this newspaper to take advantage of this feature. Neither are they obligated to purchase pictures after they are taken. Those who want some additional prints may obtain a limited number by arrangement with the Studio representative when they select the pose they want printed in the paper. It is entirely up to them.

The Zebulon Record simply wants pictures of all the youngsters and the more, the better. So the Mothers and Fathers of the community in which this paper circulates should remember the date—February 23 at Zebulon Woman's Club—and not fail to bring their children to the photographer.

You will be mighty glad, afterwards, if you did, and very, very sorry if you do not permit your children to participate in this event. The kiddies will have much fun and both Mother and Dad—and the youngsters, too—will be very proud to see their pictures in print later.

Appointments may be made by calling the Zebulon Record, AN 9-4231.

Argument Results In Call for Police

Police were called Saturday night to the home of Mrs. Mary Woodlief of Route 4, Zebulon, where they arrested Donald Wilson.

Mrs. Woodlief told police officers that when she came home she found Wilson there. After an argument, she called officers.

Wilson was charged with disorderly conduct, trespassing and assault with a pistol by pointing it at Mrs. Woodlief.

Wilson, a Warren County resident, was jailed and placed under a $200 bond. He will be tried in Zebulon Recorder's Court February 27.

Husband & Wife Work to Keep School Clean

How would you like to get up during the cold winter months and get two boilers going.

And how would you like to sweep approximately 30 rooms for 180 days of the year.

That's what Repsie and Walter Boyette, custodians of Corinth-Holders School, have been doing for 36 years.

"We enjoy it," Mr. and Mrs. Boyette said, "or else we wouldn't have stayed in it this long."

Boyette became janitor in 1927. His first job was tending to the plant which provided electrical current for the original building. A year later he became full-time custodian.

"The old building has 12 rooms plus an auditorium which later served as a gymnasium before the present modern gymnasium was built," Boyette said.

In 1928 a high school building was erected and Boyette and his wife began the daily routine of cleaning. This building has 15 classrooms and a full basement. The basement has now been turned into a cafeteria and the couple doesn't have to care for it.

"Work begins about two o'clock each school day," Mrs. Boyette said. "This means every classroom which is used is gone over by us."

The sweeping and cleaning takes from three to four hours for the two.

Mrs. Boyette began helping her husband when they were married in 1927. She has been with her husband on the job each year since except the years when she gave birth to her three children.

"I wouldn't say children keep the rooms any worse today than years ago," soft-spoken Boyette said. "They did some things then they don't do now and do some things now they didn't do then. I'd say it's about equal."

Boyette spoke of some children who disfigure the desks, take the screws out of the desk feet, and scratch or cut scars on the furniture. He feels this is an abominable act.

"It gets mighty dusty now sweeping," the couple said. "There has been no oil on the floors for the past three years and the dust presents somewhat of a problem."

Boyette said plans are to wax the floors when the oil has vanished from the wood.

What do they dislike most?

"Cleaning up vomit," Mrs. Boyette hurriedly answered. "We wish the teachers would scurry the child to the bathroom when he becomes ill."

Most of the illnesses occur in the lower grades.

Boyette said approximately sev-
