

Personal Notes

Mrs. Cora Kemp is at Kenton's Rest Home in Willow Springs.

Mrs. Eunice Kannon, the mother of Barker Kannon, is a patient at Rex Hospital for observation.

Douglas Cook is a patient at Wake Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. Earl Horton has returned to her home after being a patient at Wake Memorial Hospital.

Miss Ann Creech, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Creech, is doing her practice teaching in the Elmhurst Elementary School in Greenville. She is a senior at East Carolina College.

Mrs. Janet Conn recently visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Whitford of Warrenton. She also spent some time with two other daughters and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stephenson and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ellis and son, all of Bailey.

Chief Petty Officer Lorenzo W. Bunn, Jr., and his wife are visiting his parents. Chief Bunn is being transferred from the U. S. Navy Cryptographic Repair School at Vallejo, Calif., to the same kind of school at Portsmouth, Va., where he will be an instructor.

Houseguests of Mrs. Wallace Chamblee are Mrs. Frederick Josey and son of Norfolk. They will be with her a week.

Mrs. Millard Chamblee spent the weekend in Durham with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wright.

Mrs. B. H. Johnson, Mrs. Carter Studdert and Mrs. Wallace Chamblee attended the wedding of Miss Threva Pippin and Ray Herring in the Smithfield Presbyterian Church Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

Mrs. John Kemp is in Virginia for the annual get-together of her sisters. She is visiting Mrs. LaPrade Jones of Fredericksburg and Mrs. Ralph Brown of Orange. While there she went to Richmond for a visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Rosenstock.

Pittman Stell is "very frail," according to one of his daughters. However, he is able to be up some each day. He has been an invalid for several months at his home on Arendell Avenue.

Wilber Conn, a field worker for the American Red Cross, is now stationed in Tampa, Florida. He assumed his new post December 30 after a two year tour of duty in Germany.

Jimmy and Nancy Murphy spent the weekend with their grandmother, Mrs. Ashley Murphy, while their parents, the Rev. and Mrs. Irving Murphy went sight-seeing in Washington, D. C.

Card of Thanks

I am grateful for the visits, telephone calls, cards, letters, prayers and other kindnesses while I was in Rex Hospital. May God bless you.

Mrs. Ethel Batchelor

SAFE AS AMERICA
U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Carroll announce the birth of a son, Anthony Charles, on February 2 at Franklin Memorial Hospital in Louisburg. Mrs. Carroll is the former Elaine Hopkins of Zebulon.

Mr. and Mrs. Otha Hayes, Jr., of Henderson announce the birth of a daughter, Shirley Faye, January 23 at Maria Parham Hospital in Henderson. Mrs. Hayes is the former Shirley Corbett of Zebulon.

Surgery

Mrs. Iris Temple, Hopkins Chapel correspondent for The Record, underwent surgery Monday at Wake Memorial Hospital. She is reportedly resting comfortably.

Dave Privette Has 71st Birthday

Dave Privette was 71-years-old Monday, February 7. On the occasion, his children entertained him at a dinner at his home last Sunday.

After the dinner the honoree sliced and served his favorite cake, chocolate.

Present were his wife and six children and their families: Mrs. Vivian Trevathan, Wayne, Frank, Curtis, Mrs. Wilbur Oakley, all of Zebulon, and Mrs. Cecil Alford of Arlington, Va.

He is the grandfather of 14.

Mrs. Farmer Fetes Diamond Card Club

Mrs. Pat Farmer was hostess to the Diamond Bridge Club last Thursday at her home on North Street. Arrangements of forced Japanese quince were used for decoration.

Playing were Mrs. Bernice Bunn, Mrs. Howard Beck, Mrs. Wilson Grimes and Mrs. Charles Flowers, members; Mrs. Wallace Chamblee, Mrs. Wilson Braswell, Mrs. Foster Finch and Mrs. Thurman Murray, guests.

After the close of three progressions the scores were tallied and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Beck, club high; Mrs. Grimes, club low; Mrs. Chamblee, guest high; and Mrs. Finch, guest low.

A Valentine motif was used in tallies and napkins.

Refreshments were coconut delight topped with whipped cream, open faced sandwiches, pickle and coffee. Fruit punch and party crackers were passed during play.

Quince Arrangements Used for Decoration

Arrangements of Japanese quince were used when Mrs. Wallace Chamblee entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club last week at her home on North Street.

All the club members were present, who were Mrs. W. C. Campen, Mrs. Helen Gregory, Mrs. F. L. Page, Mrs. Ben Thomas, Mrs. L. M. Massey, Mrs. Robert D. Massey, Mrs. Foster Finch and Miss Mary Palmer.

At the close of three progressions the hostess presented prizes to Mrs. L. M. Massey for high prize, and to Miss Palmer went low score prize.

The hostess served congealed fruit salad on lettuce, ham salad sandwiches, pickle and coffee.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank everyone of the Wendell-Zebulon Hospital for the wonderful care given me while I was a patient there. I am home now improving, thanks to all my friends, neighbors and loved ones for prayers, visits, cards, letters, flowers, gifts and candy. Also the kindness given my family. The fellowship and kindness of my roommates were great. The ministers were so helpful in my time of need. May God's blessings be with all.

Pettigrew High and family

MENU

MONDAY: Fish sticks, buttered potatoes, slaw, cornbread, butter, milk.

TUESDAY: Fried chicken, gravy, buttered rice, string beans, fruit cup, bread, milk.

WEDNESDAY: Frankfurter in finger roll, navy beans, tossed green salad, chocolate pudding, milk.

THURSDAY: Roast beef with gravy, mashed potatoes, steamed cabbage, tomato juice, applesauce, bread, milk.

FRIDAY: Vegetable soup, toasted cheese sandwich, carrot sticks, ice cream, crackers, milk.

UNION CHAPEL

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Creech and Brenda were visitors of Mrs. Pearl Phillips at Westhaven Rest Home in Raleigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Massey and children were supper guests of the Jimmy Youngs Monday p.m. Vance Denton had dinner Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Nita Denton, of Riley.

Larry King of Hopkins spent the weekend with Dwight Denton.

Mrs. Spencer Tant, Miss Carol Johnson, Mrs. Lonnie Tant and Brenda, and Miss Jean Denton visited Mrs. Ada Johnson of Bailey Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Curtis Horton of Bunn, Mrs. Mildred Ferrell of Raleigh and Mrs. Mamie Mitchell called to see the Leo Leffingwells and the Buck Richards Sunday p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben King and children of Hopkins called on the Vance Dentons over the weekend.

Cornell Ferrell of Raleigh spent the weekend with the Jimmy Youngs.

Mr. and Mrs. Fernie Richards and children of Raleigh spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Heber Creech.

Pearces News

Rev. Garland Foushee, pastor of Pearce Baptist Church, attended the Evangelistic Convention at Greensboro Monday through Wednesday.

The Minnie Baker Circle (I'm a member too) met with Mrs. Hal Perry Monday night at 7:30. Eight members attended: Mrs. E. G. Richards, Mrs. Ronald Pierce, Mrs. H. K. Baker, Mrs. C. D. Strickland, Mrs. Garland Foushee, Mrs. Ben Perry, Mrs. Elmo Privette and Mrs. Hal Perry.

The Pearce Baptist Church has a new electric organ. Amelia Perry is our organist.

Mrs. Luther Perry and Mrs. Ada Pearce visited Mrs. Perry's parents, the K. W. Bakers at Bethlehem, Sunday.

Mrs. Bertie Johnson had surgery last Wednesday at Mary Elizabeth Hospital.

Mrs. Fannie Yeargin is still in Rex Hospital and reported to be better.

Fernie Pearce is in Mary Elizabeth Hospital with pneumonia.

H. K. Privette and Mrs. Frances Perry are reported to be very sick.

John Chamblee of New Hope is very ill with a heart attack. He is in the hospital at Louisburg.

Mark Perry, son of the J. W. Perrys, Jr., had his tonsils and adenoids removed at Rex Hospital.

A fishing tackle show was held at the Pearce Annex Building Monday night, Feb. 4. Around 250 people enjoyed the sound and color movies shown on fishing. About $100.00 in prizes were given to the lucky ticket holders. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Earnestine Marshall has resumed the writing of Rosenburg and Pearce communities news items. Persons in these communities who wish to have items in these columns are asked to call Mrs. Marshall AN 9-2792 or mail her a check for $3.00 a year.

The granddaughter of Mrs. Janet Conn presided as mistress of ceremonies at the coronation ceremonies of the Dublin (Ga.) high school king and queen.

Miss Jean Glover presided over the elaborate ceremonies held last week in the school auditorium. The theme used by the student body for the occasion was "Isle of Dreams."

Miss Glover is 18-years-old and a member of the senior class at Dublin High. She is an honor student and plans to continue her education at a Georgia college.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Wilmer Eddins, who is the former Dorothy Conn.

COLORED NEWS

Mrs. Lizzie Askew

The Junior Choir of Wakefield Baptist Church observed its 8th Anniversary last Sunday night. An appreciative number attended. Finance contribution amounted to $45.00. The members are very much encouraged by the splendid response which the members and friends gave in raising the fund and thank every one. George Perry is organist for the Junior Choir.

The annual "Men's Day" program of Beaver's Chapel Congregational Christian Church will be observed Sunday at 11:30 a.m. Guest speakers will be the Rev. W. M. Lake of Burlington, former pastor, and the Rev. L. E. Young, pastor. The public is cordially invited.

The Missionary Circle of Wakefield Baptist Church will hold its meeting at the church Sunday at 3:30 p.m. All members are asked to attend.

Funeral services were held last Sunday for Cannon Richardson at Wakefield Baptist Church. Dr. C. E. Askew officiated, assisted by the Rev. Earl Preddy of Raleigh.

Mrs. Annie Stuart is doing as well as could be expected from an injury that happened recently.

J. R. Horton has been discharged from Wake Memorial Hospital, Raleigh, where he was treated for pneumonia.

Please remember "The Trip Around the World" at Wakefield Baptist Church February 17 at 7:30 p.m. The public is cordially invited. Come go with us.

Miss Loretha Mayo of South Eastern Business College, Durham, visited her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Daniel during the weekend.

The Junior Choir of Zebulon Baptist Church attended a musical program at St. Paul Disciple Church Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gray and son, Vincent of Rocky Mount, spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Gray's parents, the Harold Taylors.

Funeral services for David High, son of Mr. and Mrs. James O. High, were held last Saturday at Wakefield Baptist Church. Dr. C. E. Askew officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

LaVerne Vick and Baleria Parks are outstanding students in Shepard Elementary department. They are also exceptional fine Sunday School scholars.

Rosenburg News

By Earnestine M. Marshall

Too late for last week
C. B. Morris had an asthma operation Dec. 12.

John Carter, Robert Perry, Mrs. Susie Strickland, Mrs. Harold Mangum, Mrs. Daylon Price and others are sick.

Mrs. Earnestine Marshall visited her son, the Billy Gene Marshalls and grandchildren, who have flu at Wake Forest, Tuesday night. Mrs. Marshall spent last week in Goldsboro with her twin sister, Iva Dean Morris and Mrs. N. V. Childs.

Mrs. Marshall is staying home and farming this year.

Mrs. Earnestine Marshall has recovered from the carbon monoxide poisoning which struck her down Dec. 12. Also from asiatic flu.

Mrs. R. B. Moore of Poole Road, Raleigh, sister of Earnestine Marshall, is still in Wake Memorial Hospital in Raleigh suffering from a brain cancer operation last fall. No visitors except her husband and family.

Please renew your Zebulon Record subscriptions, new or old, with me. I love to write news for Rosenburg and Pearce Communities. Phone 269-2782. Address Route 2, Zebulon, N. C.

Mrs. Wilbur Gay spent last week with her husband who does property appraisal work in Greensboro. Their daughter, Carol is in college at Greenville.

The Marshall Stricklands and Ivey Sue and the Billy Liles of Lizard Lick visited their brother, L. C. Liles at Knightdale, Sunday.

Mrs. Grace Baker, the Charles Bakers and Sharron and Miss Doris Honeycutt, went to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., for a week with friends recently.

Mrs. Lois Honeycutt was very ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pearce and children of Zebulon visited their parents, the R. O. Pearces, Sunday.

Dillard Privette took his mother, Mrs. W. I. Privette, to Raleigh Saturday for a final check-up. She accidentally swallowed a small quail bone that pierced her intestines.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaih Jeans of Henderson were Sunday visitors of the Leroy Masons.

Mrs. Charlie Debnam helped the Wakefield Demonstration Club quilt Tuesday so the club could raise some needed funds.

Iva Dean Morris of Goldsboro and B. G. Marshall of Wake Forest visited Earnestine Marshall and Mrs. Marshall's sister, Mrs. R. B. Moore of Raleigh, Carlie, C. B. and the Willard Morrisses.

GRADUATES

Miss Carolyn Hinton accepted a position January 31 on the Smithfield High School faculty as piano instructor. She graduated January 21 from Indiana State University with a master of music degree. She will receive her degree in absentia in June.

Miss Hinton received a bachelor of music degree from East Carolina College in 1961, and also received a performance certificate, one of the highest honors awarded a student in piano.

She presented her graduation recital October 18. Her minor is in music history.

During the fall and winter semesters she held an assistantship in the music department of the college. This assistantship was a $500 stipend.

Miss Hinton, daughter of Mrs. Ollie Hinton of Zebulon and the late Avon Hinton, replaces Miss Joan Neighbors who died of a heart attack during the Christmas holidays.

Card of Thanks

I consider Mr. Frank Wall, operator of the Piggly Wiggly grocery store, a very true friend of mine. I highly appreciate him sending me cigarettes while I was in the V. A. hospital. I say thanks again for his kindness.

K. V. Watson