

Witnesses

Jehovah's Witnesses of circuit 36 will hold their first semi-annual circuit convention for 1963 at Sanford, according to a statement made this week by Cephas Dunston, presiding minister of the north unit congregation in Zebulon.

Members and friends of the Zebulon congregation are making plans to attend the gathering.

The meeting is scheduled to take place Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, April 5-7, at the National Guard Armory in Sanford.

If you want to bake only a few muffins, put a little water in the unused cups and your pan will not warp out of shape.

Snow Postpones Bridge Club

The heavy snowfall recently caused the Wednesday Afternoon Club to be postponed. However, Mrs. John Kemp entertained the club on Thursday at her home on North Street.

Playing the three progressions were Mrs. E. C. Daniel, Mrs. S. G. Flowers, Mrs. J. F. Coltrane, Mrs. F. L. Page, Mrs. B. H. Johnson, Mrs. E. H. Moser, Mrs. C. V. Whitley and Mrs. A. R. House.

The hostess served a congealed fruit salad, Virginia ham biscuits, fresh coconut cake and coffee following play.

Spring greenery and jonquils were used for decorations.

FARMER

Zebulon Jaycees presented Victor M. Pace the area's "Outstanding Young Farmer of the Year" award last Wednesday night at the civic group's semi-monthly meeting.

Bobby Perry, chairman of the committee to pick the recipient of the award, made the presentation. Pace is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Pace of Wakefield community. He farms about 75 acres of land in Wake County, and specializes in tobacco, corn, small grain, and cotton.

The 25-year-old farmer was born and reared on the farm and graduated from Wakelon High School in 1956. He has been raising his own crops since age 14 and has farmed intensively since 1958.

He is married to the former Dean Richardson of Route 1, Wendell. They have two children.

He is a former superintendent of the Wakefield Baptist Church Sunday School and is a member of the Senior Board of Deacons of the church.

Card of Thanks

I wish to take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the people of the Zebulon community for the many telegrams, flowers, cards, and letters that were sent to Siler City and Staley during the illness and recent death of my mother. The visits and prayers were greatly appreciated and helped so very much.
