

Junior Play

"Finders-Creepers," a mystery comedy, will be presented Friday night, March 29, by the Wakelon High School junior class. The curtain will go up at 8 o'clock.

Excitement really begins when Hercules and Wilbur, 13-year-old bosom pals, arrive to spend the weekend with Hercules's Aunt Mary and Uncle Bob, who has recently taken a new job—that of an undertaker.

See Wilbur and Hercules go into action as they attempt to solve the case as matters go from bad to worse. The boys escape with their necks but not before one of the wildest finishes ever.

It's a play chock-full of choice comedy parts with well-paced, rib-tickling mystery comedy.

Mrs. Stanley Seago and Roscoe Spellman are co-directors of the production.

frames for box spring mattresses.

Wrenn's firm serves customers in the eastern and southeastern parts of North Carolina. He has a salesman on the road at all times.

Wrenn said he sells more than he can make and is very pleased with his business. He indicated that his business has grown faster than he has been able to expand financially.

He said sales are no problem. Some of his furniture is sold locally, but the majority of it is bought by firms outside of Zebulon.

Wrenn said smaller furniture manufacturers cause the larger manufacturing firms some concern. Smaller manufacturers will sometimes cut their prices in order to sell to customers. He, however, uses a little more selling power so as not to cut prices.

He is very pleased with his business and wishes he had more funds with which to increase his output of furniture. His business has steadily expanded and he believes that it will continue to do so.

Wrenn is the son of Mrs. C. F. Wrenn of Route 1, Zebulon, and the late Mr. Wrenn. He is one of five children of his father's and mother's second marriage. His father was a farmer.

Both he and his wife are members of Union Hope Baptist Church. He is active in church work, having taught Sunday School classes since he was sixteen years old. He presently is assistant teacher of the Young Peoples Sunday School Class and is assistant Training Union director.

For the past three years he has been Scoutmaster of the church's Boy Scout Troop. This is one of his most loved diversions. He said his hobby is bird hunting and only recently went to Georgia with friends on a quail hunting trip.

He belongs to no civic organizations, saying he has never had time to join.

A soft-spoken man of 33, Wrenn knows where he is going, what he is going to do, and has energy, initiative, and faith enough to accomplish his goals. One could say that he has already made a head start.

Confirmation

Three Zebulon youngsters were among 12 who were confirmed in Catholic rites at St. Eugene's Catholic Church in Wendell Sunday night, March 17.

James Smith and Patty Smith, children of Thomas Smith, and Zahayia Kannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kannon, all of Zebulon received the rites. Others receiving the rites were Billy Oakley, Daniel McDade, Michael Mantych, Bernard Vollmer, Melelia Underhill, Annette Thomas, Jan Whitley, Nadine Gay and Patricia McDade.

Catholic Bishop Vincent S. Waters of Raleigh performed the confirmation ceremony. He was assisted by Fr. John Breunig, St. Eugene pastor; Fr. James C. McSweeney of Raleigh, chancellor; Fr. Michael Carey, pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes of Raleigh; Fr. Robert Lawson, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes of Raleigh; and Fr. Charles O'Conner, pastor of St. Mary's in Wilmington.

Immediately following the ceremony Bishop Waters held a short instruction period for the youths, ranging in ages from 10 to 14 years.

Each candidate had an adult sponsor present for the occasion.

Prior to the ceremony, a covered dish supper was held in the parish hall.
