

Students Honored

Jane Ihrle and James C. Hawkins, Jr., were recently honored by the Jaycees at a banquet because of their outstanding scholastic standing in Wakelon School.

Miss Ihrle and Hawkins were named the top students in their class of 51. Hawkins, son of principal and Mrs. J. C. Hawkins, has a four-year average of 96.1. Miss Ihrle has a four-year average of 95.3 and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ihrle III.

"Education today is in a crisis," said Thomas Grimes, assistant superintendent of Wake County schools, "and deserves your every support."

Grimes was the principal speaker of the evening.

"The changing character of the world's work and our changing communities have involved educators in some mammoth decision-making," he said.

He noted that in the late 1920's there were some 130 school systems in Wake County. By 1940, there were still 103 separate systems whereas today there are only 30.

"Our educational advances have succeeded over tremendous odds," he told the group.

Grimes pointed out that Wake County school enrollment has grown more in the last ten years than 63 other school systems in North Carolina.

"We can't do the job with a school that is 10 to 15 years behind the times," he said.

Grimes was introduced by Bill Quick, first vice president of the Jaycees, who also presented the awards to the students.

The invocation was given by the Rev. David Daniel.

Miss Ihrle is planning to attend either Pfeiffer College or Woman's College. Hawkins probably will enroll at the University of North Carolina or Randolph Macon College.

Some 40 persons were present for the banquet honoring the two seniors.

Middlesex GA's

The Middlesex Jr. GA's held their Mission Study Course Friday, March 1, at 7:30 p.m. There were 14 girls present.

Mrs. Joyce McCollough, the pastor's wife taught the course. The mission book was titled, "Butch Discovers America," based on the activities of the Home Mission work of Southern Baptists. Mrs. McCollough also showed a film in connection with the course.

During the break Mrs. Florence Overman served hot chocolate and brownies.

Immediately following the study Miss Annette Morris, president, presented a gift to Mrs. McCollough as a token of appreciation for teaching the course.

On Monday, March 4, the girls held their regular meeting at the church.

Miss Debbie Drake, program Chairman, presented the program on Home Missions. Those participating on the program were: Virginia Price, Annette Morris, Jane Wright, Brenda Liles, Margie Caines and Anita Strickland.

Miss Annette Morris, president, presided over the business session. Reports were given by various committees. Plans for G. A. Camp were discussed by Mrs. Janet Batten and the group. Requirements necessary for attending camp were also pointed out. The Junior GA's had never given their group a name. They discussed various names and decided to call it the May Dixon GA's. She was a former counselor of the group and had given much of her time and tireless effort in guiding the girls.

Mrs. Overman served juice and cookies to the 12 girls present.

The girls joined the Intermediate GA's to practice the "GA 50th Anniversary Song." Miss Juanita Davis played for the group.

The girls were dismissed by Mrs. Florence Overman with prayer.

Dean's List

Leary Davis is one of 90 juniors at Wake Forest College who was named to the school's Dean's List for the spring semester. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Davis of Zebulon.

WINNERS

Four members of the Wakelon Chapter of Future Farmers of America won the Wake County Beef Cattle and Swine judging contest held at Wendell and Wakelon on Monday, March 18.

Members of the team were Dan Perry, Larry Perry, Hilary Pearce and Carl Bunn. These boys scored 1060 points out of a possible 1200 points.

Apex and Rolesville chapter members tied for second place with a score of 990 each.

The dairy judging team of Wakelon came in seventh place in the dairy judging events. Members of this team were Dwight Pearce, Linwood Oakley, Frank Pulley and Vicky Murray.

Wendell chapter members won first place and Cary chapter members came in second in the dairy judging.

C. V. Tart is the instructor and counselor of the Wakelon FFA.

Wednesday Afternoon Bridge Club

Mrs. I. D. Gill was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Bridge

Club last week. Arrangements of peppermint carnations were used for decorations.

Members playing were Mrs. Foster Finch, Mrs. Ben Thomas, Mrs. Helen Gregory, Mrs. Wallace Chamblee, Mrs. Fred Page, and Mrs. Robert D. Massey. Mrs. Jack Collie of Bailey was guest.

Taking home high score prize was Mrs. Finch; low, Mrs. Page. Mrs. Collie was remembered with a gift.

Following three progressions the hostess served pecan pie, chicken salad sandwiches, pickle and coffee.

Vaccinations

A rabies clinic will be held at Wakelon and Shepard Schools on March 28. Times of the clinic will be 5 to 6 at Wakelon and 6 to 7 at Shepard.

All dogs vaccinated in 1960 must be vaccinated in 1963, according to county officials. The Wake County Board of Health has approved chick-embryo rabies vaccine to be given once every three years when administered by a licensed veterinarian.

A charge of $2.00 will be made for each dog vaccinated.

Farm Management,

The Adult Farmer Class of Wakelon High School will hold a series of three classes on farm management and record keeping on the nights of March 25, 26 and 27 in the high school agriculture department, C. V. Tart, teacher of agriculture, has announced.

These classes, Tart said, are designed to point out the need of keeping good records, types of records that would be most useful, use of the simplified farm record book, use of records in analyzing the farm business and making future plans, and the use of records in filing income tax and social security.

The classes will begin at 7:30 p.m. with Tart leading the class instruction and discussions. The public is invited.

To remove wall paper that has been painted with rubber base paint, a steamer or spray gun will not penetrate the rubber base paint but if you scratch the paint and make it porous the steam will be able to get under the paper and then can be removed. A good scratcher can be made by driving nail holes in end of tin can.

ROTARY

Rotarians from Zebulon will attend the annual conference of the 771st district of Rotary International on March 24 and 25 in Wilson, Dr. L. M. Massey, president of the local Rotary Club, said this week.

Representatives from 38 other Rotary clubs from the North Central and North Eastern part of the state, comprising the district, will also attend the conference. This meeting is held each year, President Massey said, to review Rotary service activities and to make plans for increasing their effectiveness during the coming year.

C. B. Martin of Tarboro, District 771 Governor, will preside at the conference sessions.

At the conference a Rotarian will be nominated to serve as governor of this Rotary district for 1963-1964. He will take office on July 1.

Dean's List

Miss Jo Ann Bunn was named to Peace College's Dean's List for the spring semester. She made all "A's" on her courses. A senior at the preparatory college, Miss Bunn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Bunn of Zebulon.

This is the face of the Guard SEASONED

He is a foot soldier... a marksman... expert at hand-to-hand combat. He's an officer... or a sergeant... or a private.

He's up on the latest weapons. He knows all the tricks of modern ground fighting. He is the ultimate assault... the final street fight... the occupation.

He's fit... and ready. And he aims to stay that way. For he trains, not only at his local armory, but every summer in the field.

His is the face of hundreds of thousands of National Guardsmen serving the nation through their communities.

His combat-readiness is vital. His sacrifice cannot be done without.

He is one of the many facets of the modern National Guard keeping the nation secure.

Right now, America's Home Team is flying supersonic aircraft on air defense, ready 24 hours a day on runway alert, manning radar installations, winging around the world in heavy transports.

Right now, the Home Team is manning Nike-Hercules missile defenses, training special guerrilla forces, and, of course, ready as ever to aid in every kind of civil disaster.

The Home Team is ready... now!
