

Mrs. Cleo G. Perry Honored

Mrs. Cleo G. Perry

Approximately 100 persons turned out Saturday night, February 23, when the Wakefield-Zebulon Chapter 133, O.E.S., honored Mrs. Cleo G. Perry at a reception.

Mrs. Perry is serving as Grand Esther of North Carolina, Order of the Eastern Star.

The guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Christine Hopkins and Jack O. Howard, District Deputy of the 11th District. The receiving line was composed of Mrs. Barbara P. Finch, Worthy Matron; Spencer Tant, Worthy Patron; Mrs. Perry and her husband; Mrs. Mary Carter Smith, Worthy Grand Matron; Robert F. Spence, Worthy Grand Patron; Mrs. Elizabeth West, Grand Conductress; Mrs. Lucy R. Duncan, Grand Associate Conductress; Mrs. Stella Gillespie, Grand Ad.; Mrs. Margaret Tillett, Grand Warder; and Ham Swift, Past Grand Patron.

The refreshment table was decorated in white, the color of the station of Esther. A white arrangement of flowers centered the table in which the Crown and Sceptre were displayed at the top of the arrangement, being the emblem of the station. White burning tapers in silver holders flanked this arrangement.

Peanut butter sticks, coconut chips, cheese straws, date nut balls, apple cutups, lily sandwiches, and lemon punch were served to the guests.

Mrs. John B. Richardson presided at the register. Goodbyes were said to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bunn.

The Chapter presented Mrs. Perry with a silver compote.

Emit 4-H Club Holds Meeting

The Emit Community 4-H Club held its regular meeting March 18, at the clubhouse.

Judy Strickland, the President, presided. There were 14 members, 1 new member, and 2 leaders present.

The pledges were led by Connie Wilson and Linwood Wright. Carolyn Narron gave the Devotional. Refreshments were served by Emogene and Eugene Glover.

The club voted to buy a desk to use in the clubhouse.

Judy Strickland gave a talk on "How to Give a Demonstration." She then gave a Health demonstration. She told the group how to make a jello dessert and encouraged them to have jello and other desserts like this for their desserts instead of cake and pies.

Toni Sue Hinton gave a talk on Health. She told the group that health is important in all projects.

Judy Strickland gave a report of what the club did during National 4-H Club Week.

Wake Men Serve On Co-Op Board

At Wake Electric Membership Corporation's 23rd Annual Meeting in Wake Forest on Friday night, March 22, some 700 members reelected eight of the former directors of the Cooperative and one new director, who will serve for the first time. C. E. Young, E. C. Hunt and J. P. Bailey, all of Wake County, will serve as directors along with N. C. Brummitt, John M. Ferrell, W. O. Fuller, H. L. O'Brien, Ben L. Husketh and H. P. Price.

N. C. Brummitt, president of the Cooperative, reported that Wake Electric extended electric service to 150 new homes and businesses last year, making a total of 4551 connected services on 1091 miles of line in Granville, Wake, Durham, Vance, Franklin, Nash and Johnston Counties. He also forecast that the kilowatt hour consumption will double by 1971.

Brummitt also told Wake members that their Cooperative has a vital interest in the economic development of the area in which it serves, and that their board of directors is making every effort for their Cooperative to participate in the Rural Areas Development Program.
