Wakefield News

Mrs. Vera B. Rhodes

Our Sunrise Service at the Zebulon Cemetery was well attended. Some over 300 is my guess.

And I guessed the number of seed in a large pumpkin once at the State Fair and did not miss it one. I won two tons of Smith-Douglas fertilizer for the prize. That was before I lost my left hind foot of a Grave Yard rabbit. Ha ha.

Back to our Easter service. It was very impressive. I think all enjoyed it. We had four pastors of the combined churches participating with the Rev. Robert Ward of Union Chapel bringing an appropriate and impressive sermon.

The Wakelon High School Band added much to the service with several selections. We thank Mr. Burns and the members of the band for coming.

We served hot coffee and chocolate in the Church Annex, and it was good after standing out for the service so early in the morning.

The sunrise, the birds singing, the flowers, the dew on the grass, the cool breeze, and the lovely trees all showed the great handiwork of God.

Our attendance picked up at church and Sunday School and we had lots of visitors on Easter.

Arrangement of white flowers were put in the church by the W. H. Winstead family in memory of Mr. Winstead. Mrs. Winstead and son Charles of Chapel Hill attended.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Allen Pippin, Mr. and Mrs. Craven Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Stroud. Mrs. Stroud is the former Rochelle Pippin.

Mrs. Fannie Bolton had some of her children home for Easter.

Mrs. Maggie Perry is a patient at the hospital; also Mr. Cracker Bunn and Mr. Berlie May. All were improving.

Mrs. Jack Palmer and Peggy and Patsy and two other friends are spending the week with the W. L. Simpsons and Mrs. Terry. The Palmers are from Baltimore.

Mrs. Jerry Garritt, daughter of Mrs. Callie Powell, is spending some time here. Her father is in Rex Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. P. P. Pace were here for the holidays with the Harold Pippins.

Mrs. Alice Hood is about the same. Our Wakefield-Zebulon Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, took her for our shut-in of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Gay and Don and Alice were here last Sunday from Kinston to see Mrs. Hood.

Mrs. Munk Jones is very ill at Rex Hospital.

Your diamonds will sparkle with new life if you give them a bath with lukewarm water and ammonia, scrub with old toothbrush.
