FLAMELESS ELECTRIC HEAT FOR GRACIOUS LIVING

Today's hallmark of excellence is the Gold Medallion Home—the home where electricity does everything.

Here you will find flameless electric heat—the truly modern way to heat your home safely, cleanly and quietly. Consider too the unique advantage of individual temperature control for each room which only electric heat provides.

Perhaps you are wondering though whether this flameless electric heating system can compare favorably in cost with competitive systems. For proof that it does, just ask a CP&L representative about CP&L's new, still lower rate for total-electric living when you visit this home. Or, if you prefer, call a nearby CP&L Office.

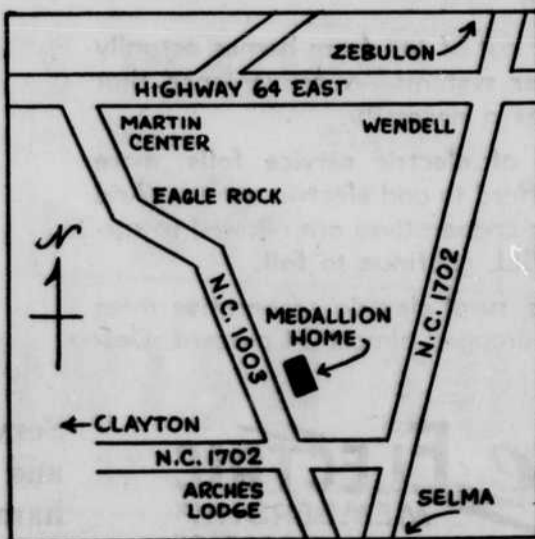

Remember—only flameless electric heat provides matchless Medallion Living.
