ZEBULON, N. C.

Guy Massey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Massey, was first runner-up in the World Peace Speaking Contest. Guy, who will be 16 in September, is a member of the sophomore class at Wakelon School, a member of the Science and Public Speaking Clubs, treasurer of the band, and Methodist MYF.

Senior Woman's Club to Meet

The Senior Woman's Club's last meeting of the current club year will be held Tuesday night, May 7, the president, Mrs. Armstrong Cannady, announces.

This meeting will be a family night affair for the members' husbands and guests. A supper, prepared by the members, will be served. Club members are to prepare one dish and may find out what they are to carry by calling Mrs. A. S. Hinton or Mrs. Cannady.

There will be no program and the meal will be served at 6:30.

Wakelon FFA Holds
Father-Son Banquet

The Wakelon Chapter of Future Farmers of America held its regular Father and Son Banquet Friday evening, April 19, in the school cafeteria.

The purpose of the banquet was to promote a closer comradeship between father and son; to provide an opportunity for the development of a stronger bond between fathers and the school; and to make it possible for the fathers to become better acquainted with the work of the Future Farmers of America.

The speaker of the evening was John H. Ihrle, III, dairy farmer and citizen of the community. He pointed out some of the aspects of farming a generation ago and of the present.

Several awards were made at the banquet. The first degree of membership, The Green Hand, was presented to the following members: Carl Bunn, Charles Denton, Jerry Flood, Don Liles, Adrian Murray, Vicky Murry, Linwood Oakley, Dan Perry, Phillip Privette, Frank Pulley, Jesse Ray and Ellis Rhodes.

Other awards presented were: public speaking, Jimmy Parrish; tool identification, Linwood Oakley; land judging, Richard Joyner; farm mechanics, Dwight Pearce; and poultry farming, Pou Ihrle.

Golden Anniversary

Tuesday, April 30, was the 50th wedding anniversary of the Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Wheeler. There was no celebration.

The Rev. Mr. Wheeler is a retired Baptist minister. His wife is the former Effie Edwards Martin. They are the parents of three children, Mrs. Ray Goodwin of Zebulon, Mrs. H. M. Shaw of Raleigh, and Miss Esther Martin of Windsor.

Miss Palmer Hostess To Mes Amis Players

Miss Mary L. Palmer was recently hostess to the Mes Amis Bridge Club. The drawing room of Wakelon dormitory was vivid with arrangements of spring flowers.

Playing were Mrs. Howard Beck, Mrs. Philip Olive, Mrs. Ben Thomas, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. I. D. Gill, Mrs. Helen Gregory, Mrs. Lois Wall, all members; and Mrs. Jack Mitchell, Mrs. L. E. Long, Mrs. Stephen Blackley, Mrs. Wallace Chamblee and Mrs. Wallace Temple, guests.

Club high score prize was presented to Mrs. Wall, with low going to Mrs. Smith. Guest high and low prizes went to Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Chamblee, respectively.

After the conclusion of three progressions, the hostess served strawberry shortcake, chicken salad sandwiches, cheese straws, pickle and coffee. Fruit punch was passed during play.

Mrs. Page Entertains
At Bridge Wednesday

Mrs. Fred Page was hostess to the Wednesday Afternoon Club last week at her home on Arendell Avenue. Arrangements of spring flowers were used for decoration.

Members playing were Mrs. C. V. Whitley, Mrs. A. R. House, Mrs. E. C. Daniel, Mrs. M. B. Chamblee, Mrs. F. E. Bunn, Mrs. E. H. Moser, Mrs. S. G. Flowers, Mrs. J. F. Coltrane, Mrs. J. K. Barrow, Mrs. B. H. Johnson and Mrs. John Kemp. Mrs. Elizabeth Ellett came as guest.

After three progressions the hostess served congealed fruit salad, ham biscuits, pickle, ice box chocolate pie and coffee.

Card of Thanks

We should like to take this way to express our grateful appreciation for the many evidences of love and concern shown during the illness and death of our mother, Mrs. John D. Horton.

Measure
Security...

You can measure your family's security by the amount of money you have accumulated . . . to meet emergencies, pay unexpected expenses, soften the blows of adversity. You can measure your ability to achieve security for your family by your saving-power . . . the wisdom to set up a program of systematic saving, the persistence to follow your program faithfully. If you have the will, we have the way!
