COLORED NEWS

By Lizzie B. Askew

A Standard First Aid Course sponsored by the American National Red Cross, Wake County Chapter, Raleigh, is being held on Thursday nights at the home of Rev. C. E. Askew. The course began last Thursday night and will continue for five weeks. We hope that as many as possible will attend. The course is a helpful and a needy one. The instructors are Mrs. Esther Dozier and Mrs. Delia Lunsford.

The president and members of Wakefield Baptist Church Missionary Circle wish to take this opportunity to extend their deep gratitude to everybody for the loyal support that has been given our Woman's Day activities, and the fine financial contribution which amounted to $85.00. North Carolina State Conference of NAACP Branches, commemorating the 100th Anniversary Emancipation Proclamation was held Sunday at 3:00 p.m. at the State Fair ground. The address was made by Bishop S. G. Spottswood. Mrs. Annie Rose Jordan sang "How Great Thou Art" and "Every Time I Feel the Spirit." Address by Clarence M. Mitchell III, member of House of Delegates of the Maryland State Legislature, Fourth Legislative District, Baltimore, Md.

There will be a program Sunday at Wakefield Baptist Church observing "Mother's Day."
