

ZEBULON RECORD

VOLUME 38, NUMBER 22, ZEBULON, N. C., MAY 30, 1963

Mike Allen is being congratulated by Jack Cramer, second from left, after winning a jersey heifer calf in February. Mike entered the Ralston Purina contest and his entry blank was adjudged a winner. Also looking on is Ed Hales, Purina representative of Zebulon, Mike's father, J. R. Allen, and Bruce Butler, assistant Wake County farm agent. Mike is 14-years-old.

Pizza Cellar To Hold Formal Opening Tuesday Night

Zebulon's first and finest pizza cellar will formally open Tuesday night, June 4, Jo and Harris Daniel, owners, have announced.

The addition to the restaurant located a short distance from the city limits on the bypass will feature six kinds of pizzas—pepperoni, mushrooms, green peppers, sausage, onion and combination.

The cellar, cozily lighted with candles in ruby globes on red checkered table cloths, is in the basement of the restaurant. It is completely air conditioned, and there is a juke box to provide music for listening or dancing.

Persons wearing informal dress will not be allowed in the cellar, the owners said. Women in short shorts or other scanty summer wear and men without shirts and coats will not be permitted to dine there.

Only persons over 18 years old will be permitted to use the cellar.

High School Junior Selected For Gifted Summer School

Clara Sue Arnold has been selected to attend The Governor's School of North Carolina. She was selected from some 500 gifted high school students who auditioned April 6 in Greensboro.

Miss Arnold, 17 years old and a member of Wakelon High School junior class, presented a vocal selection, "O Lord Most Holy," for her audition.

She will attend the school for gifted high school students to be held at Salem College. The eight-week session is from June 10 through August 2.

The popular Wakelon student is a member of the Monogram, Science, and glee clubs.

She said she was "thrilled" at being named a winner. Her plans are to attend college and become a public school music teacher.

All her expenses to the summer program will be paid, except personal and travel expenses.

She is the older of two daughters;

Campbell Graduate

One of the busiest students among the 1,700 enrolled at Campbell College this spring is Richard Dale Beck of Zebulon.

When Campbell became a senior college last year, it undertook for the first time the full preparation of public-school teachers. Later this month he and 89 of his classmates will graduate as its first crop.

Beck is doing his student teaching at Angier High School in physical education and health classes of Bruce Shelley School. A graduate of Statesville High School, where he lettered in four sports, he has qualified for the Monogram Club at Campbell as a member of the golf team.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beck of North Wakefield St., Zebulon.

of Mr. and Mrs. Johnsey Arnold of Zebulon.

Hospital Supervisor Attends Conclave

The Duke Endowment has just concluded a series of conferences in which administrators and other executives of more than 150 Carolina hospitals exchanged ideas and discussed mutual problems.

Wendell-Zebulon branch hospital was represented by Mrs. Mary Temple, unit supervisor, at one of the conferences.

The meetings were held in Charlotte with officials of hospitals assisted by The Endowment attending in small groups. Endowment staff members conducted the sessions and participated in consideration of subjects ranging from the most economical method of handling laundry to total operating expenses. Administrators find that information received in these discussions is extremely useful as they work to reduce costs of service and at the same time improve the quality of patient care.

Church School Set For June 3-7

The Vacation Church School for the Zebulon Methodist Church will begin next Monday morning at 9 a.m. and continue through Friday. Sessions will conclude each day at 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. Douglas Finch, the director, announces that the faculty and all plans have been readied for the school. Four classes are planned with a nursery for workers' children.

Teachers for Kindergarten I are Mrs. Peggy Lewis, Mrs. Patsy Pott and Mrs. Myra Turlington. The Kindergarten II leaders are Mrs. Ann Davis, Mrs. Georgiana Barreau and Mrs. Elizabeth Pearce.

Primary teachers are Mrs. Barbara Quick, Mrs. Mary Kay Grogan and Mrs. Paulette Pugh.

Junior teachers are Mrs. Sarah Ihrie, Mrs. Patricia Griswold and Mrs. Betsy Green.

Nursery workers are Mrs. Betty Privette, Mrs. Wilma Privette, Mrs. Jean Perry and Faye Finch and Treva Temple will assist in the nursery.

"Friends Near and Far" is the kindergarten theme. Primaries will study "Friends From Many Lands" while the Junior study is "Meet Your Neighbors."

Refreshments will be served daily by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

The June 3-7 Vacation Church School is open to all members of the Methodist Sunday School and any other interested children from age four through the sixth grade.

Dance Review

Mrs. Frank Massey presents "A Night For Dancing" featuring the Massey School of Dancing.

On Friday evening, May 31, at 8 o'clock in the Wakelon School Auditorium, the Massey School of Dancing will present its annual Dance Revue. A variety of dances such as tap, ballet, and jazz, will be enjoyed by everyone who attends.

The admission is 50¢ for all school children and adults. Pre-school children will be admitted free.

Class Reunion

All members of the 1952 graduating class of Wakelon High School and their families are invited to attend a reunion Saturday afternoon, June 8, at 3 o'clock in the high school auditorium. Following the assemblage there will be a wiener roast at 5 o'clock in the park. Members who plan to attend are asked to notify Elton Chamblee or Lawrence Liles.

Swimming Pool Is Opening Saturday

The pool will open Saturday, June 1, for those who are members of Zebulon Swimming Pool Association.

Roscoe Spellman, a member of the Wakelon School faculty, and Ronnie Clark have been employed as guards, pool officials have announced.

Plans are being made for swimming instruction. Persons who complete the courses will be awarded certificates. These classes will be sanctioned by the Red Cross.

Pool officials said they feel that "things will work out better with more mature persons in charge of the pool."

Dues have been hiked five dollars. They are currently $20 per year. Last year they were $15. Dues must be paid by June 1.

There are 218 members in the private organization.

Officers of the association are Dr. B. D. Thomas, president; John Glover, vice president; and Crafton Hudson, secretary-treasurer. Directors are Frank Kemp, M. L. Hagwood, Coy Pate, Hardin Hinton and Robert D. Massey.

Methodist Church Gets A Portrait of John Wesley

Last Friday night at the conclusion of the Aldersgate service at the Zebulon Methodist Church, a bronze medallion and portrait of John Wesley were presented to the Church.

Jimmy Spivey, president of the Methodist Men, presented a specially framed portrait of Wesley by the late Frank Salisbury to be hung in a suitable place in the church. The portrait was received by E. H. Moser, the church lay leader, on behalf of the congregation.

The medallion was presented by Mrs. P. O. Farmer, president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Miss Jane Ihrie, president of the MYF, received the medallion on behalf of the church. The medallion was inscribed "The World Is My Parish"—John Wesley with a triangle, representing the Holy Trinity, superimposed upon a circle, representing the world.

The presentations will be permanently hung either in the vestibule facing Gannon Avenue or in the hallway between the sanctuary and assembly rooms.

The Aldersgate service marked the commemoration of the 225th anniversary of Wesley's "heart-warming" experience.

Performing

Lewis Liles, talented Zebulon youth, will perform on Talents, Inc., on WRAL television Sunday, June 2, at 2 o'clock. He will play the organ. Selections he will play are "You're My Everything" and "Shanty In Old Shanty Town."

Liles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Liles.
