

Mayor, Wife Fete Club

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hales recently were hosts to the Friday Night Couples Bridge Club at their home on Church Street. Summer flower arrangements were used.

Club members playing were Mr. and Mrs. Amos Estes, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kannon and Dr. and Mrs. George Tucker. High score prize was taken by Dr. and Mrs. Tucker, and the low score prize was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Kannon.

The hosts served a dessert course following the close of three progressions.

Honored

Frank Kemp was honored at a banquet Friday, May 24, at Forsyth Country Club in Winston-Salem. He was one of several North Carolina Lions honored for their work with the Eye Bank.

Kemp, a prominent Zebulon Lion, was presented a silver tray.

The speaker for the evening was a prominent Philadelphian who told of the importance of the work with the Eye Bank.

Kemp was district chairman of the Eye Bank for District 31G in 1962-63. He recruited 1,000 eyes for the bank. The previous year only 64 eyes were donated.

He was accompanied to the banquet by his wife, Nelle, and two sons, Terry and Timmy.

Pizza Cellar To Have Singers

The Travelers Five, television and night club performers, will be the featured attraction at the Pizza Cellar of Daniel's Restaurant Saturday night, June 15.

The artists were present for the grand opening of the cellar last week and, according to the owners, were very pleasantly received.

There will be $1.00 couples and 50¢ cover charge for the Saturday night affair. Coats and ties, please.

Suitemates Fete

Three Meredith College suitemates were hostesses May 27 honoring Miss Brenda Bunn, an August bride-elect. Hostesses were Misses Mary Frances Carver, Mary Beth Hughes and Harriet Rivers.

The miscellaneous shower given the honoree was held in the college's new dormitory. A color scheme of pink was used in refreshments and decorations.

The honoree was presented a corsage of pink carnations.

The refreshment table was decorated with ivy, pink burning tapers, and a miniature bride.

Background music welcomed the guests, and following bridal games and gift opening, refreshments of raspberry sherbet float, pink and green bridal cakes, peanuts and cheese straws were served.

Attending among the 20 guests were the mothers of the bride-elect and prospective bridegroom, Mrs. William Bunn and Mrs. Bernice Strickland, both of Zebulon.
