WRECK VICTIMS

The condition of five people hospitalized as the result of an accident in Clayton Monday is reported by Rex Hospital as being unchanged.

The condition of Claude Dennis is reported as still satisfactory. The condition of his wife, Janie Dennis, who suffered a fractured right wrist and lacerations of the face also remains satisfactory. Bonnie Dennis, nine, hospitalized with abrasions to the left side of her face is still doing satisfactorily. Mrs. Etta Fulghum, Mrs. Dennis' mother, with lacerations of the lip and contusions of the leg remains in satisfactory condition. The condition of Mrs. Algier Wood, 80, grandmother of Mrs. Dennis, is still "fair." Mrs. Wood sustained a fracture of the left leg and lacerations of the left eye.

The accident occurred at 5:15 p.m., Monday when a car driven by Roy Atlee McGee of Clayton made an improper turn in to the path of the Dennis auto, heading east on U. S. 70, according to Police Officer James Moore of Clayton. Occupants of the car driven by McGee were only scratched and bruised.

Estimated damage to the 1962 Oldsmobile driven by Dennis was estimated at $700, according to Officer Moore. Damage to the 1955 Buick driven by McGee was estimated at $500.

McGee has been charged with making an "improper turn and failing to see movement could be made, causing an accident," said officer Moore.

Claude Dennis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Dennis of Wendell.

Mrs. Wood is the mother of Mrs. Ed Andrews and Mrs. Fulghum is her sister.
