Refreshments were served to 16 members, two leaders, one new member and two visitors. Hosts were Rowland and Nancy Strickland. Refreshments consisted of homemade vanilla ice cream and cookies.

Carolyn Pippin Honored at Dinner

Miss Carolyn Pippin, September 1 bride-elect of Sidney Richardson, was complimented last week at a formal dinner party given by Mrs. A. S. Hinton.

The honoree was presented a corsage of white carnations and a gift of crystal by the hostess.

Guests were presented satin covered napkin rings adorned with nosegays by the hostess.

The auxiliary tables from which guests were served were covered with hand embroidered white linen cloths and centered with a yellow candle decorated with a matching nosegay.

The dining table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with a low arrangement of chrysanthemums and white roses.

The guests were served frozen watermelon balls with frosted grapes, baked ham, string bean casserole, potatoes with cheese sauce, green peas, pineapple-glazed apple salad, hot rolls, homemade peach ice cream, nuts and bridal cake.

Guests were Miss Pippin, her mother, Mrs. Woodrow Pippin; the bridegroom-elect's mother, Mrs. Garland Richardson; Mrs. Lawrence Liles, Mrs. Rodney McNabb, Miss Harriet Page, Miss Kay Pippin, Miss Judith Creech, Miss Dyanne Strickland and Mrs. Connie Mack Bunn.

Following the dinner a contest was held whereby each guest wrote their favorite recipe for the bride, which was bound into a folder. The honoree was presented a set of measuring cups and spoons.

Mrs. Donald Stallings assisted the hostess.
