

Rev. and Mrs. Duckett Return To Zebulon

A retired Baptist minister and his wife, a native of Zebulon, have returned here to make their home.

The Rev. Rex B. Duckett and his wife, the former Daphne Stell, are residing in the home of her father, Pittman Stell, on Arendell Avenue.

The Rev. and Mrs. Duckett came here after 13 years in Miami, Fla. They spent 35 years in the State of Florida where the Rev. Mr. Duckett held several pastorates.

He is a 1914 graduate of Wake Forest College. Mrs. Duckett attended Meredith College.

The Ducketts are the parents of one child, a daughter, Mrs. Estelle (J. E.) Culbreth, and have three grandchildren, Rex, Pat, and John Culbreth. Mr. and Mrs. Culbreth and children reside in Charlotte, where Mr. Culbreth is associated with an insurance company.

Takes Advance Inf. Training in Georgia

Army Pvt. Nathaniel McLean, 23, whose wife Shirley, lives in Zebulon, completed eight weeks of advance infantry training at Fort Gordon, Ga., in late July.

McLean received instruction in rifle squad tactics and escape and evasion. He entered the Army in March of this year and received basic training at Fort Gordon.

McLean is a 1957 graduate of Shawtown High School, Lillington. His mother, Mrs. Estelle Boone, resides in Durham.

Wendell Native's Husband Gets Job

The husband of a Wendell native has been appointed to a staff position with the University of North Carolina at Raleigh.

Frank D. Sargent, husband of the former Frances White of Wendell, was appointed to the dairy staff of the college and will devote his activities to the state's DHIA testing and animal breeding work.

Sargent came into the dairy department as a graduate student from the Animal Breeding Section, where he expects to earn his Ph.D. next February.

His new duties include field operations of the DHIA testing program in the state plus animal breeding work that will be chiefly concerned with the use of sires with AI herdmate comparison groups.

Sargent is a native of Concord, N. H., where he was raised on a dairy farm and received his BS degree from the University of New Hampshire. He earned his MS degree at N. C. State College, where he had come to study under Dr. J. E. Legates, head of the Animal Breeding Section.

Mrs. Sargent is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Halbert White of Wendell. The couple are the parents of a young daughter.

Completes Navy Basic Training

Charles H. Pippin, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon L. Pippin of Route 2, Zebulon, recently completed basic training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill., in graduation ceremonies consisting of a full-dress parade involving more than 1,000 men.

The intensive nine-week training included naval orientation, history and organization, basic military regulations, ordnance and gunnery, seamanship, shipboard routine and sentry duty, damage control, military drill, physical fitness, swimming, first aid and survival.

During their training period recruits receive tests and interviews which determine their future assignments in the Navy. Upon completing the program they are assigned to service schools for technical instruction or to ships or shore stations for on-the-job training in a Navy rating specialty.

Naval training produces the power behind seapower by supplying skilled personnel for the technical duties of today's Navy.

Local Girl Grad At ACC Finals

Mrs. Carolyn Vann Anthony was among 58 seniors to be graduated from Atlantic Christian College on August 21.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Talmadge Vann of Route 1, Zebulon, she was awarded the bachelor of science degree in elementary education. Her minor field of study was history.

While at Atlantic Christian, Mrs. Anthony was a member of Omega Chi sorority, the Woman's Recreational Association, and served as treasurer and chaplain of the Student National Educational Association.

She will teach in the fifth and sixth grades at Belfast Elementary School, Belfast, during the coming year.

Quiet Weekend

Local police officers had an easy time of it last weekend. There was not an incident to investigate or a culprit to put in the calaboose.

Night Policeman Windel Perry said it is the first time no arrests or lock-ups have been made in "three or four months."

Bicycle Lost

Joel Roberts, 16, of Horton St. reported to local police authorities that his bicycle was stolen Friday night. He reported to the police department Monday that he had recovered his vehicle.

Sister Dies

Mrs. Estelle Louis of Ft. Pierce, Fla., sister of Mrs. Vance Brown, died Monday morning about 8:30. Funeral services and burial were held Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown did not attend the funeral rites.

Ballentine To Speak

Stockholders of the Federal Land Bank Association of Smithfield, (1070 Wake, Johnston and Wayne County farmers) will hear L. Y. (Stag) Ballentine, Commissioner of Agriculture, speak on "North Carolina Agriculture, Past, Present and Future", at their annual meeting Saturday, August 31, at 10:30 A.M. in the main courtroom, Johnston County Courthouse at Smithfield. This is the 46th anniversary of the association, chartered to make and authorized to service Federal Land Bank loans on farms in Wake, Johnston and Wayne Counties, according to report of L. M. Gould, Manager.

One director will be elected and reports will be given of the operations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1963. The capital, amounting to $405,865., together with reserves amounting to $180,228.88 is owned by the members, whose existing loans originally amounted to $8,117,300. With headquarters in Smithfield and branch offices in Raleigh and Goldsboro, the association has for 46 years been making and servicing long term, low interest rate Federal Land Bank loans to farm owners of Johnston, Wake and Wayne Counties and the association is much stronger financially and in better position today than ever before to serve the needs of the farmers, says Gould.
