Wakefield Church Has More Added To Its Name

The congregation of Wakefield Baptist Church recently voted to add Central to the church's name. It is now Wakefield Central Baptist Church.

The Rev. Horace Hamm, pastor, said the addition to the church's name came for distinctive reasons. Many times there was misunderstanding of which church was which in public notices and other news media and announcements.

There is a Negro church in the community named Wakefield Baptist Church.

A name addition brought some complications, the minister said. Finally, some of the older members suggested Central. They said that many, many years ago there was a Baptist Association named Central Baptist Association. The church was a member of this Association.

However, with much prayerful discussion and consideration, Central was incorporated into the church's name with the consent of the congregation.

Youth Week

Youth Week will be observed at Union Hope Baptist Church from Nov. 17 to Nov. 24, the pastor, the Rev. Walter Howard Mayes, has announced.

The public is invited to attend the worship services—morning or evening—both to be in charge of the young people.

Application Date For Rental Units Set For November 18

Applications for apartments in the low-cost housing development for Zebulon will be held Monday, November 18, according to Melvin Massey, executive director.

A later date for applications for the low-cost units constructed in Wendell, Wake Forest and Apex will be set, Massey said.

There are 32 units in the Zebulon development, 12 white and 20 non-white. The white are located where the old fair grounds were and the non-white are across from Devil Dog Manufacturing Co.

The monthly rent shall be determined by the management on the basis of the estimated annual family income, Massey said.

After applications are taken, Massey said screening and investigations will begin.

The management agrees to furnish without additional charge electricity for light, refrigeration, cooking and water heating, and water not in excess of the amounts set up by the management.

Tenants must keep the premises in a clean and sanitary condition; to maintain the yard in a neat and orderly manner; not to use the premises for any illegal or immoral purposes; not to make any repairs or alterations without the written consent of the management; not to display any signs whatsoever; not to use tacks, nails or screws or other fasteners in any part of the premises except in a manner prescribed by the management; and not to permit or keep animals of any kind on the premises.

Massey said a minimum of approximately $25 and a maximum of approximately $50 will be (Continued on page 7)

Veneer Company Employee Fired, Then Goes Beserk

Vernon Grice, a West Barbee St. Zebulon resident, was charged Friday afternoon, November 8, with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill on Howard Beck, William Beck, Alvin Beck and Mrs. Betty Blackley.

Police Chief Willie B. Hopkins said Grice discharged a volley of gun fire about 1:45 p.m. Friday in the office of Beck Veneer Company here. There were no injuries to the three Becks or Mrs. Blackley.

Hopkins said the first blast from Grice's .12 gauge shotgun struck the jamb of the only door in the office building. The second discharge of buckshot landed above the head of Mrs. Blackley.

The panel door of the office building was open and only a screen door shielded the entrance. Hopkins said he understood from investigations that Howard Beck, plant foreman, and Grice had a disagreement over an operation procedure in the kiln drying section of the plant. Grice worked in the kiln, and had been an employee of the manufacturing company for about five years, the officer said.

Auto Firm Robbed Last Sunday Night

Sunday night thieves entered J. M. Chevrolet Company here and burglarized the front offices, according to Police Chief Willie B. Hopkins.

Hopkins said the Nab machine was pried open and $10 taken from it. The cash register was entered and approximately $5 was missing from it. About $2 was taken from a box used by the employees as a coffee cache.

Evidence pointed to the Coca-Cola box, showing signs that it had been tampered with but not entered. The thieves did not bother with a new cigarette vending machine.

The offices of the owners and bookkeepers were pilfered. One of the office girls said files were rifled and sheaves of paper on desks were strewn.

A garage man discovered the breakin Monday morning on his arrival to work. He immediately notified the local police department.

Hopkins said fingerprint experts from the county were called and he said "good fingerprints" were gotten.

Extended Call

The congregation of Zebulon Baptist Church has extended a call to the Rev. Paul Beam. The Rev. Mr. Beam is presently serving as associate pastor of River Road Baptist Church in Richmond, Va.

The minister, in his late thirties, has been in the religious field for 12 years, and with the Richmond church for eight years. He is married and the father of two daughters, 9 and 5.

The couple and daughters were in Zebulon Monday, and the minister is to make a decision this week, according to information received by this paper.

Open House

The beauty and efficient banking service of Peoples Bank & Trust Co. will be shown to the public in an open house Friday, November 22, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., Robert D. Massey, cashier, announced this week.

The bank has been completely renovated inside and outside. New conveniences for better services to the public have been added and the public will be allowed to see them at the open house, Massey said.

Refreshments and favors will be available to those persons attending the event.

Wakelon Bulldogs Lose Last Game To Enloe, 31-6

By Wayne Davis

Some 20 valiant and crippled Wakelon gridiron warriors traveled to the eagle's nest of Enloe this past week to do battle. The 31-6 score is no indication as to the closeness of the game. Coach Chapman and the players would like another crack at Enloe next year when the Bulldog squad is at full strength. Most of the second half was played with three sophomores and one freshman in the Bulldog backfield. Several other Bulldogs played with injuries of varying degrees. Randy Creech missed most of the second half with an ankle injury he picked up last week in Spring Hope and Thurston Debnam went out in the second half with a hip injury. Thurston will probably miss the coming basketball season because of a separated or pulled ligament in his hip.

Wakelon's only score was mustered by the Sophomore-Freshman combination, coming midway in the third quarter. Johnny Clark, behind good line protection, hit Ben David Thomas with passes of 12 and 25 yards to set up the TD. Ben David made two outstanding receptions and turned in a 15 yard run on the end of the second to set up a score from two yards out by Kenny Temple.

The Eagles scored the first time they gained control of the ball for a 6-0 lead. Early in the second quarter the Eagles scored a second time after recovering a Wakelon fumble on the Bulldog two. Except for this gift TD the half time score would have been 6-0, which is not a bad half of ball playing. Wakelon could mount no offense in the first half, penalties stopping two drives before they could get started. Enloe's defense stopped the Bulldogs the other two times they had possession in the first half.

Second Half

Enloe took the second half kick and marched 62 yards for an 18 to 0 lead, with Dave Bevacqua, the Eagle quarter back, going 45 yards on a bootleg play. Wakelon moved 55 yards with the return kick for their TD and an 18-6 score. Enloe came back late in the third quarter for another score from 55 yards out on a double reverse and a 24-6 lead. The Bulldogs moved the ball well in the final quarter, only to have three pass interceptions to kill any hopes of another Bulldog score. The final Enloe TD came after picking off a Wakelon pass for the 31-6 winning score.

The Bulldogs, as viewed from here, are the best 1-A Team with a 3-7 record in the state. If the ball had bounced the right way a few times over the past season their record could have been 7-3. The season was not an easy one, in that there were no breathers on the schedule. However, this past season will serve as a proving ground for the next season, because the Bulldogs lose only two players by graduation, Ben Stallings and Jerry Bullock. Ben Stallings, a co-captain at 145 pounds, found himself out weighed in most games, but seldom if ever outplayed. Jerry Bullock, a transfer to Wakelon this year, and one of the larger boys on the squad at 175, proved a valuable addition to the team and showed an outstanding effort in the final game with Enloe, being a real tiger on defense. Both will be hard to replace.

Overall experience gained by Johnny Clark and Jerry Brayboy in their first varsity year and the fact that Randy Creech and Thurston Debnam will be seniors next season will make for an attack that will be hard to handle. Some names to watch will be Kenny Temple, Ben David Thomas and Vincent Rountree. All three of these boys love the game and are aggressive players and eager to learn. The Bulldog line, one of the scrappiest per pound to be found, were often out weighed by as much as 40 or more pounds per man, but never gave an inch without a struggle and let no one run over them. The linemen are often over looked and seldom get their name in print, however ask any backfield man where the game is won.

Coach Maurice Chapman may have suffered his first losing season, but every boy on the team is a winner and that's the reason for playing the game.

Game statistics:

	Wakelon	Enloe

Passes Attempted	13	11
Passes Completed	6	5
