SOCIALISTS CLAIM THAT THEY ARE TO LAND MANY VOTES

One of Party Leaders Makes This Prediction At Convention

PRESENT ADMINISTRATION IS VIGOROUSLY ATTACKED

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, May 8.—An attack on the administration of President Wilson and the prediction that the Socialist party would poll more than two million votes in the presidential campaign, were made today by Maurice Gilliquit, temporary chairman of the Socialist national convention at its opening session here today. He said the party would survive the attacks, "unparalleled in ferocity and lawlessness" made on it in the last year by "all the powers of darkness and oppression in the country." He declared that the last three years had furnished the "most striking and abhorrent proof of the fallacy of the God Man" theory in politics. "If there remained any large section of workers who put their trust in the old party Messiah," he said, "Woodrow Wilson must have fatally destroyed their native faith. For he remembered that in 1916, Woodrow Wilson ran as a radical." "He promised socialism through the short cut of the democratic party and thousands of radicals throughout the country voted for him rather than to throw away their votes on the hopeless candidates of the socialist party."

COSTLY ORNAMENTS PLACED ON EXHIBIT

Priceless Treasures Seen For The First Time In Pennsylvania Museum

(Correspondence Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, May 8.—Gold ornaments, idols, crowns, armor and other relics of great historic value which date from the civilizations of the Incas, Aztecs and other Mexican and Central and South American peoples are contained in a collection of 300 specimens recently placed on view for the first time in the museum of the University of Pennsylvania. The exhibit was only recently brought to its present completeness by the purchase of objects which had been in possession of a noble French family for generations, but which were sold because the family was impoverished. The gold was used by the Incas only for religious emblems and objects, shipped to Spain by Cortez and others in the sixteenth century. This explains the religious objects which were sold. A grave relic of a princess, the gold ornaments were in a modern parance in a box. A grave relic of a princess, the gold ornaments were in a modern parance in a box. PUBLIC LIBRARY SERVICE LIMITED

Only Small Percentage of People Have Access To These Places

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8.—Only 10.4 per cent of the population of North Carolina has access to free public libraries, leaving almost 2,000,000 persons not provided with free library service, according to the estimate of the United States Bureau of Education, made public today. American Library Association officials declare that this lack, as revealed by statistics of public library development recently compiled by F. P. Claxton, Commissioner of Education, will give residents of North Carolina a conception of the benefit to be derived from the "Books for Everybody" movement launched by the association. To devote to the task of making public library service a vital influence in every American community, the A. L. A. is gathering a "Books for Everybody" fund of $2,000,000. Miss Annie F. Petty, Librarian of the North Carolina State Normal College, at Greensboro, is the state director of the "Book for Everybody" fund in North Carolina. The report for North Carolina shows 35 libraries that are classed as free public libraries, containing 108,000 volumes and serving a population of 289,130 persons, leaving 1,761,107 persons without access to libraries. In the judgment of the Bureau of Education, the smallest library that can usually be depended on to render an adequate service is one of 5,000 volumes. Only eight libraries in the State, measured by this standard, can be termed "universities of the people". They serve 154,045 persons, with 2,052,240 persons practically deprived of the help of an institution which, more than any other, promotes adult self-education. In 91 counties there is no library with as many as 5000 volumes. Seven counties each have a library of this size which might serve as a nucleus for a county library. The county library is advocated by the American Library Association as the best method of reaching the rural districts. This form of library service recently was endorsed by Commissioner Claxton. In commenting on the results of the Bureau of Education's survey, American Library Association officials point out that the library development of the last several years, under the guidance of the efficient North Carolina Library Commission, may be too recent to be taken fully into account. While revised population statistics would show a much larger public served by existing libraries, as the compilation is based on the 1910 census, it is indicated that the growth of population in the wide areas without public library service probably would tend to keep the percentages, as announced by the Bureau of Education, nearly constant. In view of the rapid industrial development which is bringing into North Carolina an increasing number of new Americans from foreign shores, who must depend upon public libraries to give them their education in American language, institutions and ideals, the general need for library facilities throughout the state is declared to present a serious situation. This condition, coupled with the widespread social and industrial unrest throughout the nation, constitutes one reason for the American Library Association's vigorous "books for everybody" movement, which points to a time when books will be freely available to every man, woman and child in America. In the "Books for Everybody" movement in North Carolina, the American Library Association will cooperate with the North Carolina Library Commission and with local libraries.

$2,500 NECESSARY FOR THE SUPPORT OF FAMILY OF FIVE

Railroad Brotherhood So Asserts Before Railway Labor Board

WANTS MINIMUM WAGE THROUGHOUT INDUSTRY

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8.—A minimum of $2,500 a year is necessary for the support of an American family of five, W. Jett Lanck, consulting economist for the railroad brotherhoods asserted today before the railroad labor board. Mr. Lanck, who yesterday charged corporate profiteering with being chiefly responsible for the present living costs, presented today a demand on behalf of the 2,500,000 railway employees for the establishment of a minimum wage throughout the industry. He presented to the board a compilation of budgets about the cost of living based on statistics made under his supervision and by federal and state agents. "It is impossible," he said, "for a family of five in the United States to maintain itself even in decent poverty under existing conditions for a penny less than $2,500 a year." Mr. Lanck in his statement declared that "the fundamental cause of all economic instability, all industrial unrest, all interruptions of production and disturbances has been high prices and profiteering by organized capital, middle men and retailers."
