LOCAL

Friends of Mr. F. G. Godfray, superintendent of the local electric light and water plant, will regret to learn that he is suffering with an attack of malaria. His condition, however, is much better today.

Mr. Charles L. Abernethy Wednesday afternoon spoke to the voters at Pollockville and last night at Maysville. Reports are to the effect that he had enthusiastic audiences and made quite an impression upon his hearers.

The first peaches of the season made their appearance on the local market yesterday, being shipped from Georgia. The fruit is of a very poor quality, stringy and with little flavor, and is enjoying comparatively little sale.

Passenger traffic over the roads entering and passing through NEW BERN just at the present time is rather light. Railway men are anticipating a rapid increase as soon as the summer resort hotels are opened and the weather becomes more reasonable.

Congressman S. M. Brinson spent a short while in the city Wednesday afternoon leaving a short time later for Chapel Hill, where he is to deliver the annual address. Congressman Brinson returns to eastern North Carolina on Saturday and is to make an address at Vanceboro in the afternoon.

The Tabernacle Baptist church choir went over to Trenton on Tuesday evening and rendered several selections at the revival which is being conducted at that place by Rev. Raymond Browning. They intend to again go over and assist in the meeting in the course of the next few days.

The next political speech booked for this city is that which Hon. O. Max Gardner will deliver on next Monday. NEW BERN people have heard Messrs. Page and Morrison in their campaign swing over the state, and Mr. Gardner will probably wind up the speech-making being done here by various candidates for office.

For the past several days laborers have been engaged in cleaning up and making improvements to the appearance of the lawn surrounding Christ church, and the place is now most attractive to the eye. Located right in the heart of the city, an effort is always made to keep the lawn in proper condition.

The most unreasonable weather recorded in a number of years has prevailed in this section for the past few days and the temperature is so low that one is reminded of the fall days. This is proving very detrimental to growing crops and the farmers are greatly worried. Forecasts are for a change to higher temperature during the coming week.

The Norfolk Southern Railway Company has a force of men engaged in making repairs to their tracks along Hancock street. That section of track is constantly getting in bad condition and causes drivers of all types of vehicles much annoyance. The railway people, however, are endeavoring to keep it in as good condition as is possible.

The Turner-Tolson Furniture Company are making preparations to remove from their present quarters on Middle street to the building at present occupied by the J. S. Miller Furniture Company, and will occupy the new place as soon as possible. Mr. William Sultan, proprietor of the Fashion Shop, is to move his store to the building now occupied by the Turner-Tolson people.

State Fish Commissioner J. K. Dixon, of Jones county, was in the city for a short while Wednesday night, and in an interview given on Friday, stated that the board would hold an important meeting at Morehead City early in July, at which time a number of matters of particular interest to the fish and oyster industry in eastern North Carolina would be discussed.

The congregation of the Christian church is now considering the immediate erection of a temporary house of worship on their recently-acquired lot, and as soon as possible the work of constructing a permanent and modern church edifice will be begun. Since their church was destroyed by fire more than a year ago the members have held worship in a hall at the corner of Broad and Hancock streets.

ONE-SIXTH OF GERMANY'S COTTON INDUSTRY LOST

BERLIN, May 27.—The Bremen firm of Hagendorf in a report on the continental cotton situation, states that Germany, through the loss of Alsace-Lorraine, has lost one-sixth of her cotton industry, but is still third after the United States and Great Britain in the number of spindles and looms. The German cotton industry is working at twenty-five to thirty per cent normal, and Hagendorf estimates that to occupy the continental looms fully it would require 3,500,000 bales of American cotton during the next six months.

BUSINESS LECTURE TO BE GIVEN HERE

Chamber of Commerce to Bring Man to New Bern to Make Address

Arrangements have been made by the Chamber of Commerce of NEW BERN to bring to this city on Wednesday, June 2, at 8 o'clock, in the court-house, the most famous American business lecturer on the platform, "The Troubles of a Merchant and How to Stop Them" will be discussed.

Under this head, Mr. W. H. Farley, well-known business expert and organizer, will discuss the various questions that are now more than ever before sources of trouble and loss to merchants and business men everywhere. He will show how co-operation and organization will make for a better community or city; how co-operation and understanding will remove trouble between employer and employee. He will show practical improvements in service and store organization that will please the general public and draw trade; how friendly co-operation and organization among business men instead of petty jealousies and narrowness will aid in bringing prosperity to all. He will show how proper advertising will change losses to profits; how systematic continuous newspaper advertising pays the largest dividends of all.

With the aid of three thousand feet of moving picture film and about two hundred stereoptical views, Mr. Farley will give a most interesting and timely discussion.

Every merchant or wife of a merchant, every salesman or clerk, every business man, and all those interested in seeing NEW BERN become a better business center, should not fail to hear Mr. Farley.

A glance at this outline of the lecture is sufficient to show its great value:

- Town Organization and Co-operation.
- Retail Failures and Their Causes.
- Store Organization.
- Newspaper Advertising.
- Window Displays.
- The Business of Clerks.
- Credits and Accounts.
- Salesmanship.
- System.

EGGS REACH HIGH RECORD WHEN HENS GO AVIATING

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27.—A new high record for eggs has been set.

Air service pilots on a flight from France Field, Canal Zone, to Santiago, a distance of 145 miles, discovered that chickens could be purchased in Santiago at less than one-half the price prevailing in the Canal Zone.

Accordingly, each pilot bought a number of chickens and took them back in the plane with him.

On the return trip a conscientious hen in each of the planes, evidently endeavoring in their own way to repay the pilot for the joy ride, laid an egg.

As the route involves a flight over the mountains, it is believed that these are the highest eggs that have ever been in America.

To Residents of New Bern And Others

My attention has been called by the Rector and membership of Christ Episcopal Church in this city, to the bad condition of their church lot, at the corner of Middle and Pollock streets, in most of which a great deal of trash is being thrown away carelessly as to throw trash and old paper and such like over in the church lot, or throwing it in the streets and the wind blows it over in the church lot. It costs these church people a great deal to keep their lot clean—they have to employ a man to clean it up all the time. This is a waste of money and it must be stopped. I ask the citizens of this city, and give the help to help me make this a clean city, and I would be glad to have them do so.

There is a law against throwing trash and paper on the streets, and also a law to make a man keep his own lot clean, and therefore if he must keep his own lot clean, he must not throw trash on his neighbor's lot.

PARROT'S CHATTER IS NEWEST ALIBI IN DIVORCE SUIT

PORT WORTH, Texas, May 27.—The parrot did it. His chatter was the cause.

Such is the latest alibi for seeking a divorce, according to the petition filed in the District Court here by John Petrowsky, an Austrian, against his wife, Marie, whom, he charges, threatened his life when he attempted to chastise her pet parrot for talking too much.
