SOCIAL

DELIGHTFUL BANQUET
Juniors Entertain Seniors at Pleasing Social Function—Many Attend

On Thursday evening the Junior class of the city high school entertained the Senior class at an elegant banquet in the domestic science rooms in the Griffin building. The guests were greeted by a committee of Juniors and ushered into the auditorium, where the following program was rendered:
Commencement Song—Junior Class.
Solo—Miss Lucille Meredith.
Reading—Miss Gladys Sexton.
Hits on the Seniors—Male quartet.
Chorus—Class.

Following this delightful program, the guests were ushered to the domestic science rooms where the banquet was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated with baskets of white roses, the flower of the Senior class. The colors of the class were also carried out in the menu of grapefruit cocktails, chicken salad, lettuce, olive sandwiches, pickles, coffee, ice cream, cake and mints. Miss Mary Belle Moore, president of the Junior class, acted the role of toastmistress on this happy occasion in a very charming manner. The first toast was given by the toastmistress to the Seniors and responded to by Miss Laura Roberts. Miss Jane Hill toasted the president of the Senior class and was responded to by Miss Harriet Dunn, who is president of the class. Miss Minnie Seales read an original poem expressing the hope that all Junior classes will follow the example set by this year's Juniors in entertaining the Seniors. The responses to this were given by Jack Hollister, president of 9-1 class, Miss Nellie Armstrong, president of 9-2, Miss Bertha Thally, president of 8-1, and Robert McSorley, president of 8-2, promising that their classes would follow the good example set by the Juniors. Miss Leslie related some amazing anecdotes on the present senior and junior classes, bringing forth much laughter and merriment from those present. Miss Caldwell told of the hopes and ideals that the faculty cherish for the two classes. These hopes which ever remain in the hearts of the members of these classes to be their guide as they go out from their dear alma mater. William Dunn, Jr., representing the school board, told of the ambition of the board to make the New Bern school second to none in the state and for every boy and girl graduating from this school to attend a good North Carolina college. F. H. Ashley, superintendent of the Washington school and former principal of the high school in this city, was called upon and in a few well chosen words expressed his pleasure at again meeting with these classes he had known so well and worked with during his stay here, and wished the graduates success as they go out into their new field of life. The banquet closed with a song to the Juniors by the Senior class. This was a delightful occasion, one that will long be cherished in the hearts of those present as one of their fondest high school memories. It evidenced the beautiful spirit existing between the classes and the faculty of the high school, and served to weld the hearts of the Seniors more closely to their alma mater. Those enjoying the hospitality of the Junior class in addition to the graduates were, the high school faculty, commencement marshals, presidents of all the high school classes, Supt. H. B. Smith, F. L. Ashley, and T. A. Green, William Dunn and Dr. Z. V. Parker, representatives from the board of trustees of the school.

MRS. L. J. TAYLOR DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINS
On Tuesday evening Mrs. L. J. Taylor entertained most delightfully at her home on East Front street in honor of Miss Frances Royall, who is a member of the graduating class, for the graduates, marshals and teachers of the NEW BERN high school. The class colors, green and white, were everywhere predominant. The honoree was appropriately followed in white voile with a touch of green; white flowers decorated the robes and hallway and the refreshments, consisting of green and white ice cream and cake, completed the harmony. During the evening Mrs. Clyde Elby presided over the punch bowl which proved to be a very popular place among the young people. The guests enjoyed a "do as you please" night. Those who wished music, cards or dancing found it delightful inside, while others retired to the veranda to watch the glorious moonlight on the river. The following seniors were present: Misses Thelma Bryan, Ruby Bryan, Mae Hudson, Lizzie Wadsworth, Harriet Dunn, Addie Rhem Banks, Laura Roberts, Catherine Disoway, Annie Smith, Eugenia Russell, Louise Shriner, Sadie Simpkins, Mamie Hibbard, Etta Williams and Mary Chadwick; and Messrs. Benjamin Epstein, Thomas Carraway, Livingstone Ward, and Robert Pugh. The other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lee Taylor, Mrs. Clyde Elby, Mrs. Sarah Taylor, Mrs. H. E.

Royall, Misses Adeline Royall, Mary Belo Moore, Jane Hill, Caldwell Lealey, Smith, Dasherly and Gwynn and Messrs. Robert Lee Duffy, Jr., Albert Taylor, Rudolph Jackson, Rexford Willis, John Jennette, Jr., John Dunn, Jr., R. S. Proctor, and B. C. Williams.
