Ex-Constable Charged With Attack On Girls

(Special to Sun-Journal ROCKY MOUNT, Sept. 14 .-Although his term of office had expired several weeks ago, former County Constable J. J. Dawes, of Nash county, Saturday afternoon visited the home of a white farmer and exhibited a warrant for the arrest of a young woman from this city, who was a guest at the home. He took her into custody and left with her in his automobile The girl was later -returned, however and on Monday she reported to relatives and friends that she had ben mistreated, resulting in a warrant being drawn for the former officer's arrest. She charged that at a point between Elm City and Sharpsburg she had been dragged from the automobile and taken into the woods, where she had been criminally assaulted. The case was heard late yesterday afternoon in the recorder's court and while Dawes admitted the bogus warrant, he denied the charge of an assault. There was some conflicting evidence introduced by the young woman and Judge Long finally fined Dawes $100 and costs. The defendant appealed from the judgment.
