Deadlock Is Reported In The Mudania Conference

THRACE IS POINT OF DISPUTE

Several Days May Elapse Before Agreement on Armistice is Reached

NOW DEADLOCKED
French and Italians Differ From British Relative to Thrace Matter

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 6.—The Mudania conference is not ended, it was finally stated at the conclusion of the British cabinet meeting this morning, but it is deadlocked and cannot be resumed before the British and French governments have conferred over the situation.

On broad lines, the British policy, it was stated, is the same as it has been since the Greek debacle, which means that the British are opposed to the Turks crossing the straits before the peace conference.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 5.—After conferring for most of the night with the high commissioners and military experts here, the allied generals this morning prepared again to leave for Mudania for a resumption of the armistice conference.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Indications this afternoon were that the entire Near East situation was pending toward what it was before the signing of the allied note of September 23, in which the allies promised to support the Turkish claims to Thrace, provided the Nationalists would undertake not

POLITICS ARE LIVENING UP IN CARTERET

Democratic Chieftains Neighboring County Held Conferences Last Week

BEAUFORT, N. C., Oct. 5.—The political pot is beginning to boil pretty actively in Carteret county now. Owing to the fact that the county is closely divided between the two political parties there is more interest here in the campaigns than in those counties where there is only one side and the voters have practically no choice.

The democratic chieftains held a meeting at the county courthouse last Saturday for the purpose of raising funds and devising plans to carry the county. The meeting was a private one but the News learns that it was decided to put on a vigorous campaign and that speakers will be sent to all parts of the county.

value. He also spoke of the indifference of many Christians to the welfare of their friends and neighbors. From every standpoint, the sermon was one of the most interesting that has been delivered thus far.

It was in part as follows:
Reading his text, "Am I my brother's keeper," the evangelist said that was a question asked by a murderer; and whenever it is asked now it is prompted by a guilty conscience.

Owing to the life and the teaching and the power of Jesus Christ, the world is answering this question in the affirmative all realms of human activity. If the railroad kills a man or cripples one, it is made to pay the bill, if a merchant endangers the public health or the life of his fellow men by selling adulterated food or drugs, he is punished for it. You are not allowed to endanger your brother's health by spitting on the sidewalk, throwing garbage into the street or permitting disease breeding filth on your own premises. You are not permitted to endanger your brother's property by erecting a frame building within fire limits. If you leave an open ditch or obstruction in the street without a warning light, you must pay any damage resulting to your brother. For the same reason pest houses are maintained, quarantine is established, the practice of medicine and the sale of drugs are regulated. And to protect your brother's morals and that of his children, picture shows and dance halls are regulated and censored. What a pity that the various types of moral leprosy are not absolutely prohibited instead of feebly regulated!

15 GALLONS OF LIQUOR TAKEN BY OFFICERS

Raid Was Made on German Street Last Night—Owner of Liquor Escaped.

Fifteen gallons of liquor, belonging to George Carter, colored, who lives on German street, were seized by the police in a raid which was made on his home last night.

The officers evidently had received some information concerning certain activities that were scheduled to take place in the vicinity of George's home, for they got to his house just as an automobile drove up and George took the liquor out of the car. They started to intercept him. The automobile drove off with a rush and George ran into his house. He put down the liquor but continued on his way through the building, going out the back door at high speed.

Seeing that he probably wouldn't come back for some time, the officers took the fifteen gallons of confiscated liquor and carried it down to headquarters.

Fishermen Along The Coast Have Case In Court

A case of rather unusual interest is slated to go up for trial in superior court here today when an effort will be made to straighten out a tangle between property owners and fishermen along the coast.

Neither side was willing to give in. As a last resort, J. R. Morris and others filed suit against Captain Day. Much interest is attached to the outcome of the case, especially on the part of those who live in the neighborhood of Cedar Island. The plaintiffs in the suit claim that the fishing grounds are public property and that Captain Day has no right to interfere with their activities.

NEW BERN TEAM GETS A BIG LEAD

New Bern High School, playing straight football, ran away with the Rocky Mount High School team this afternoon in the first half, piling up a total of 26 points; 13 in each quarter. Rocky Mount was unable to score in the first half. New Bern put in most of her second string players during the end of the half.

The second half was still in progress as the Sun-Journal went to press. However, Rocky Mount seemed to have little chance of overcoming the lead of the locals.
