FORMER PREMIER LLOYD GEORGE URGES BRITISH PEOPLE TO USE CAUTION TO AVERT ANY CRISIS

"The Banner of Party Strife Has Been Hoisted," He Asserts And "It Is For the People of This Country To Decide As to Whether Party or Nation Comes First."

(By Associated Press.) LEEDS, England, Oct. 21.—David Lloyd George, the retiring prime minister, speaking at a great meeting of coalition imperialists here today declared "the banner of party strife" had been hoisted at the recent meeting of conservatives at the Carlton Club which voted against continuing the coalition.

"It is for the people of this country," he exclaimed, "to decide whether party comes first or the nation first. I stand for the people."

Mr. Lloyd asserted that the combination which had achieved the victory in the late war had been brought to an end not because it had ceased to serve the nation but because a party was not getting enough of it.

He then launched into a vigorous defense of his administration in his usual picturesque language.

"I have sought honest, sincerely and with it a dominant purpose to serve my native land to the best of my ability," said Mr. Lloyd George.

"In the war the government did every thing it could. I am told you may have been a very good war minister but you are not good in peace. War is not a bad test and I have done a few things in peace."

Alluding to the United States he said: "The United States must emphasize march side by side on the path of peace and good will."

"If Lord Balfour had not come to the disarmament arrangement with the United States you might have a huge increase in taxation."

This meeting will be followed by announcement of the dissolution of parliament Monday night or Tuesday.

STUDENTS PLAN TO GO ON STRIKE

Opposed to Communist Professors And May Stop Their Studies

(By Associated Press.) KHARKOV, Russia, Oct. 21.—Students were paid by the Soviet government last year to attend classes at the University of Kharkov, but this year they are paying their own way, and the enrollment is larger than at any time since the war.

The unusually large attendance for the beginning of the fall term is attributed to the fact that many of the old professors have been reinstated to their university positions. Last year many of the regular professors were replaced by Communist professors. As a result the attendance fell off materially, and eventually there was a governmental investigation. It was finally decided to try the scheme of paying the students to attend school, the scale of stipendium being 8,000 Soviet rubles a month. The average government employee was receiving at the same time 4,000 rubles a month.

The majority of the university students here are not Communist sympathizers. They objected strenuously to being taught by Communist professors, even though paid for it. So when the students threatened to strike other plans were thought out, it being evident that the Communist professors were not at all popular in the university.

Just before the university opened this fall, it was announced that nearly all of the old time professors, many of them great favorites for years in Kharkov and other cities to fill up the classes. The students willingly agreed to pay the 8,000 rubles a month tuition fee in order to have their old professors back.

WOMAN IS FOUND GUILTY MURDER

Mrs. Giberson Is Sentenced To Life Imprisonment For Killing Husband

(By Associated Press.) TOMS RIVER, N. J., Oct. 21.—Mrs. Ivy Giberson, charged with slaying her husband, William F. Giberson, at Lakehurst, on August 14, was found guilty of first degree murder last night.

She was immediately sentenced to life imprisonment by Judge Kalisch, who followed the recommendation of the jury.

The jury, which had been out a little less than two hours, reported to Judge Kalisch at 8:30 o'clock. Only a few persons were in the courtroom at the time. A majority of the afternoon's audience had departed after sentencing. The second ballot settled the fate of the prisoner, the jurymen agreeing that, because of the prisoner's sex, she should not be sent to the electric chair.

"Ivy Giberson, face the court," Judge Kalisch had begun his task of sentencing the woman.

"I shall not punish you more severely than the jury has recommended. You are, therefore, sentenced to a term of imprisonment for the duration of your natural life at hard labor."

Mrs. Giberson remained calm during the reading of the verdict and the imposition of the sentence as though she were listening to an invitation to attend a party. She made no comment. However, observers noted that as the woman was led from the courtroom back to her cell in the county jail, her cheeks were spread with a tell-tale flush which indicated she was laboring under violent, though pent-up emotions.

Arrived at her cell, Mrs. Giberson flung herself full length on her narrow cot, and gave no heed to the conversation which her keepers attempted to carry on with her. Not as much as a sigh or a tear broke the barrier of silence the woman had thrown over herself.

Judge Jeffery, Mrs. Giberson's counsel immediately gave notice of an appeal to the Court of Errors and Appeal. He declined to state on just what grounds he would ask for a reversal of the lower court's action.

OLIVER J. SANDS CO-OPERATIVES WILL HOLD MEET EARLY IN WEEK

Executive Head of the Marketing Association Makes Address Here

Mr. Oliver J. Sands, executive head of the Co-operative Marketing Association and who made a most interesting address before five hundred or more Craven county farmers and business men at the court house here yesterday afternoon, left last night returning to his home at Richmond, Va.

The unusually large crowd which was on hand to hear Mr. Sands was very gratifying to those who had the meeting in charge and much benefit was derived from his remarks.

Those who heard Mr. Sands here had every doubt removed from their minds about the successful operation of the association during the first brief season of its operation. He told them that the association was functioning even more smoothly than had been hoped for by its most ardent advocates. In introducing him, Mr. C. Kirkpatrick, who was presented by Mr. Harry Jacobs, characterized him as an expert on the details of the co-operative, and his speech justified Mr. Kirkpatrick's remarks.

Citing Wednesday's sale of three and a half million pounds of association tobacco to the R. J. Reynolds Company, and the fact that the South Carolina members of the association will receive checks for a second cash payment to their first this month, Mr. Sands said the association has passed the highest hopes of its organizers.

"Every one of the American domestic manufacturers is buying our tobacco; the government is behind us; the courts are behind us; the banks are behind us. I don't believe there was ever a company formed with a business as big as ours that has run as smoothly and successfully as this association of ours in its first year of operation," said Mr. Sands.

"The association is in a position to make every member who has delivered tobacco, two more payments each as large as the first and go out of business today," Mr. Sands told the Eastern Carolinians explaining that no tobacco of this association has been sold as low as the value placed on it by the bankers and that some has even brought five times as much as the amount of the first cash advanced to its member growers.

(By Associated Press.) Manila, P. I., Oct. 21.—The municipal councils of Calocan, San Juan, Passay and San Pedro Macats, towns in the province of Rizal which adjoin Manila, have passed ordinances barring all ballerinas (professional dancers) from entering dance halls in any of these municipalities unless accompanied by escorts. Several years ago the Manila municipal board banished all dance halls from the city, but they sprang up just outside the city limits.

Secretary Cecilio of the province of Rizal, said the purpose of the ordinance requiring dancing girls to have escorts is to discourage maberets and dance halls which allow women to dance in consideration of gifts of a poseta (ten cents) or more from their partners for each dance.
