

MARTIAL LAW ORDER IN ITALY IS RESCINDED

Laymen's Federation To Be Organized on Sunday

FASCISTI TRYING TO FORM A NEW CABINET BUT MOVEMENT SLOW

Martial Law Proclaimed in Italy To Take Effect At Noon Today, But Situation Improves And Order Recalled.—Populace Is Urged To Observe the Laws And Avoid Disturbances.

(By Associated Press)
LONDON, Oct. 28.—Martial law was proclaimed in Italy today to take effect at noon but the proclamation later was rescinded, it is stated in dispatches from the Sasceni agency in Rome, the semi-official Italian news organization. It is explained that the withdrawal is the result of improvement in the situation.

Special dispatches told of the beginning of a movement by the Fascisti against several towns. Florence, Pisa, Cremona and other centres were declared to have been taken over by the Fascisti who deposed the state authorities and assumed command.

Apparently, according to these advices there was no resistance. Communication in all parts of the country are disorganized and the news of the declaration is the first to reach here since the movement started.

CABINET IN SESSION
ROME, Italy, Oct. 28.—The cabinet council has been in session since midnight in order to receive reports from the provinces where the Fascist movement has taken a subversive direction and to adopt necessary measures to meet the situation.

Old Friends Meet First Time In 62 Years.

Sixty-two years is a life-time for many people, but is a brief span for "Uncle John" Daubney, 103 years old and Minnesota's pioneer citizen. He met N. D. Lammers of Taylor's Falls, Minn., for the first time in 62 years, and they had a great old time. Uncle John, at the right, used to hold his friend on his knee, and laughed about it. Mr. Lammers at the left, was one of the numerous friends who attended "Uncle John's" 103rd birthday, recently observed.

All In Readiness For For The Training School

All is in readiness for the Standard Training School to be held at Centenary Methodist church, beginning Monday night October 30th at 7:30 o'clock. The instructors who are among the best that can be found, will begin arriving in the city tonight. Some of them are coming from Nashville, Tenn., some from Little Rock, Ark., and still one from Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mr. Gobbe, the Field Secretary of the North Carolina Conference will reach here tonight and perfect this plans for the school, make the enrollment, as far as possible tomorrow afternoon so that the first class period can be held without delay Monday night. The leaders of the school are looking forward to a great school and expecting a great ineres in it from the Sunday School workers and others interested in Sunday School and church development.

While this school is held in Centenary church, and has been worked-up and managed by that church, it is no wise going to be confined to only Methodists. Every Sunday School and church in the city has been extended a most cordial and pressing invitation to take part in the school and avail themselves of the opportunity of it.

It is expected that a great many of the interested workers in the other churches of the city and surrounding territory will be in attendance, and they are urged to accept this opportunity to take the work. All who can are requested to attend the meeting tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in Centenary church for information and enrollment in the school, but if any one unable to attend that meeting that will not hinder them from enrolling Monday night.

A get-together meeting of the adult department and workers of Centenary church and their friends was held last night, and special emphasis was placed on the school. The importance of equipping themselves for efficient service in the church, was pointed out in a very forcible address made by Rev. W. V. McRae. In his appeal he stressed the point that if the proper training is given the youths and adults of today it must be done by properly equipped workers. He urged all those present to take the work. Following Mr. McRae's talk, Mr. W. C. Chadwick, Supt. of Centenary Sunday school made a talk, and pointed out the importance of the Sunday school workers training themselves.

GOLDSBORO LAYMEN COMING TO NEW BERN TO GIVE ASSISTANCE IN ORGANIZATION WORK HERE

WOMAN WAS INSANE AT TIME SHE SHOT RECTOR

Mrs. Margaret Carlton, Wife of A Former Judge, Shot And Killed Rev. L. J. Christler While Temporarily Insane, Authorities Feel Sure—Woman Then Committed Suicide.

(By Associated Press)
HAVRE, Mont., Oct. 28.—The Rev. L. J. Christler, rector of St. Mary's church of the Incarnation and widely known as "bishop of all outdoors" and Mrs. Margaret Carlton, wife of a former judge, who were killed yesterday in the clergyman's home, where they had just left Mrs. Christler, were the victims of temporary insanity, in the opinion of officials.

So sure are the officials that the deaths represent a murder and suicide that the coroner announced that no inquest would be held unless relatives insisted. Mrs. Christler, describing the shooting, said Mrs. Carlton came to the Christler home late Thursday night and remained until early Friday morning talking to the rector and his wife. When she started to leave the clergyman accompanied her toward the entrance, the widow said and had just shut a door between a small hall and the room where Mrs. Christler was left when two shots rang out. Mrs. Christler opened the door and found the bodies. That of Mrs. Carlton lay across the minister's body.

All the principals were prominent. Mr. Christler, who was forty-six years old had held churches in New York and New Jersey. He came to Montana in 1907 as missionary of the Milk river valley and had developed his field into one of the largest mission territories in the state.

Mrs. Christler is the daughter of the late David Wadsworth, Auburn, N. Y., manufacturer and a niece of U. S. Senator J. W. Wadsworth, Jr., of New York.

GLASGOW GIVES LLOYD GEORGE ROYAL WELCOME

Former Premier Is Given A Rousing Reception.—Makes Thrilling Speech

(By Associated Press)
GLASGOW, Eng., Oct. 28.—Former prime minister Lloyd George, pursuing his progressive campaign today came to the Glasgow constituency which Premier Bonar Law represents in parliament and where on Thursday he sounded his keynote appeal. Mrs. Lloyd George had a tumultuous reception rivaling that accorded to his successor. Speaking before 5,000 people he directed his attention to many of Bonar Law's utterances. He scored the negative policy of the conservatives in the face of such a manifesto as the labor party had issued, depicting the splitting of the country at a time when changes were being called for from a large section of the population and declared there was no use talking of tranquility and stability when the country was as yet by no means out of the rough.

Only among all men of like minds who believe in keeping the country steady was necessary, he insisted, in the face of storms.

The conservatives, he said, wanted a premier with less vitality and go. To use a glofing phrase as he put it, they said he (Lloyd George) was very good with the niblick, excellent for getting the ball out of the rough but that on the green he was too energetic.

"Well," he continued, "it's not for me to say whether they are satisfied but are we really out of the rough? Go to the Glasgow ship yards for the answer. Examine the numbers of unemployed, then read the labor manifesto and then ask the question are we out of the rough?"

Three Meetings, One For Men, Another for Ladies And the Third For Young People To Be Held At Four O'clock Tomorrow Afternoon.—Every Christian Worker Is Urged To Attend One of These.

Tomorrow the New Bern Laymen's Federation, an organization whose main object will be to carry on the great religious work which was given impetus here by the Ham-Ramsay Evangelistic campaign, will be formed and every Christian in the city, particularly those who were converted at the Ham-Ramsay meeting, are being urged to attend one of the three meetings which are to be held.

It had previously been decided to hold a great mass meeting of the men, women and young people at Centenary church at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. This morning this plan was changed and three meetings will be held as follows:

- Men's meeting—First Baptist church.
- Women's meeting—Presbyterian church.
- Young people's meeting—Centenary Methodist church.

Four o'clock is the hour set for each of these meetings and it is hoped that the attendance will be large. A number of the members of the Laymen's Federation at Goldsboro have promised to attend and to help in the formation of this federation.

Goldsboro has seen the benefits of the laymen's federation and when this is formed here there is no doubt that great good will be accomplished by it.

EYE WITNESS OF HALL-MILLS MURDER TELLS OF HARROWING DETAILS

(By Associated Press)
NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., Oct. 28.—Four hours after she had witnessed the shooting of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills on the night of September 14th, Mrs. Jane Gibson returned to the scene to recover her lost moccasins and saw the woman she said was present when the two were slain bending over the body of the rector. Neither the man who Mrs. Gibson has told the authorities shot Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills or the auto parked nearby at the time of the murder when she made the second visit.
