FULL RESULTS ELECTION NOT KNOWN TODAY

Exact Number of Republican Majority in the House Is Not Yet Known

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—Whether the republicans will have six or seven votes over the necessary majority of 218 for control of the house of representatives probably will not be known until tomorrow. One district, third Kansas, is delayed. With this district missing the republican strength is 234; democratic 207; socialist 1; farmer-labor 1, and independent 1.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Retention of republican majorities in both senate and house was declared to be "very gratifying" to republican leaders in a statement issued today by John T. Adams, chairman of the republican national committee.

The spirit of unrest following after the world war and unusual prominence of local issues to be the general situation and the tendency of a large class of people to vote for a change in officers were credited with the cutting down of the republican majorities of two years ago.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET WAS A GRAND SUCCESS

Over Two Hundred and Fifty Attend Affair of the Y. M. C. A.

GREAT SPEECH MADE BY ASHEVILLE, N. C. SPEAKER

Songs And Short Addresses, Feature Get-To-Gether of Men And Boys

Fathers and sons were drawn closer together as a result of the Father and Son banquet last night at Century Church.

Nearly three hundred sat down to a feast of material and thoughtful food. It was an inspirational meeting and every one present got a lot out of it.

It was a well-balanced menu and program that was spread out for the guests of the occasion. Music was mixed in, to the pleasure of all present.

The speeches were not overdone, just enough to entertain and not enough to bore. The principal speaker was Mr. A. C. Roberts of Asheville, and he delivered one of the best ever heard in this city. He was an orator, but a user of the English language that put over to his audience the message that he had to deliver in fine style.

Mr. Roberts illustrated his speech with fitting and entertaining stories, that gripped his audience in no uncertain way. He drove home the way that fathers and sons should live and act, to accomplish what is intended for all to acquire to make life worth living.

He is one of the best speakers that has ever addressed the boys and their of this city and his message will long live in the minds of those who hear him.

J. B. Dawson gave greetings to the boys in a short address and Redmond Dill responded in a pleasing manner for the boys.

Mr. William Dunn, Jr. acted as toastmaster in a pleasing way and handled the big affair like a veteran.

Mrs. E. E. Heidt sang for the guests and upheld her splendid reputation as a superb vocalist. She also very impressively read one of Edgar Guest's poems on the boy subject.

Mr. Conkey greatly delighted the throng with several selections. He is a past master at the art of singing.

Others who spoke briefly were Beamer Harrell, Harry Jacobs, Henry Smith, Edgar Hartley, the secretary of the Washington, N. C., Y. M. C. A.

Rev. W. V. McRae, was present and opened the festivities with prayer, and the meeting was closed with the benediction by Rev. Vasche.

The supper was served by the Ladies' Committee of the Methodist church, headed by Mrs. Clyde Eby.

REPUBLICAN SENATE MAJORITY CUT IN TWO AND THAT OF THE HOUSE SLASHED TO A HANDFUL

AUTHORITIES IDENTIFY MAN WHO SHOT RECTOR AND SLEW CHOIR LEADER

All Information Will Be Placed Before Supreme Court Justice Parker And Grand Jury Foreman Gibb. Prosecution Will Ask For A First Degree Murder Charge For Man And Woman.

(By Associated Press) NEW BRUNSWICK, Nov. 9.

The information on which the state of New Jersey expected to obtain indictments of three persons for the murder of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and his choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor R. Mills was to be laid before Supreme Court Justice Parker and Grand Jury Foreman Gibb today at Somerville.

Persons close to the authorities say that the investigators have identified the man who Mrs. Jane Gibson says she saw shoot Mrs. Mills and the rector. The authorities will ask that he be indicted for first degree murder.

They will also seek to indict the "woman in gray" for first degree murder on the ground that she was an accomplice but did not actually kill either Dr. Hall or Mrs. Mills. The third man under suspicion is said to be a member of the Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist, of which Dr. Hall was rector. Authorities hope to obtain his indictment on a charge of being an accessory after the fact. They say he drove the automobile which trailed Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills to the Phillips farm where they were murdered and also that he has concealed information from the authorities.

Addressed to The Sun-Journal last night from Beaufort were to the effect that the entire democratic ticket had been elected by a majority of between 600 and 700 votes.

EVANGELIST IS AWAKENING MISSOURIANS

Rev. M. F. Ham Stirs People of Neosho, Mo., With His Powerful Sermons

REV. M. F. Ham, of the Ham-Ramsay Evangelist organization, who recently concluded a six week's meeting in New Bern, is awakening the people of Neosho, Mo., and is drawing large crowds there.

The following account of the Sunday services is from the Neosho Daily Democrat, of last Monday, which reached New Bern today:

"Three great and largely attended services were held at the tabernacle Sunday and the great union evangelistic effort is now well under way. Providence smiled on the campaign yesterday, in providing a beautiful day for the services, and great crowds heard the noted evangelist at each service. At the night service the large choir platform was packed for the first time since the campaign opened and the audience was estimated at considerably over 2000 people. The song service at each meeting was spirited and effective and considerable very favorable comment has been aroused regarding this feature of the services. At the afternoon service Miss Fleta Rudy very beautifully rendered a solo 'Hold Thou My Hand' to the great delight of the audience. Miss Rudy is fast becoming a favorite with the large audiences with her beautiful soprano voice. At the night service Mr. H. G. C. Baldry sang a most beautiful arrangement of 'The City Beautiful'." Mr. Baldry's rich bass voice has long been popular with the Neosho people and it was by special request of many of the Neosho citizens that Mr. Ramsay urged him to sing.

Both soloists were accompanied by Mr. Rodgers.

"At the morning service the evangelist delivered a most unusual and impressive message on 'The Trial and Execution of Jesus Christ from a Legal Standpoint' and the sermon made a more favorable impression than any Mr. Ham has yet delivered.

"Probably no sermon, lecture or address of any kind has aroused more comment and speculation than that delivered by the noted evangelist at yesterday afternoon's service when he spoke on the 'Inevitable and Imminent Downfall of the Present Civilization.'"

"At the night service the tabernacle was filled and the large audience sat in rapt attention as Mr. Ham preached a powerful sermon on the familiar text 'Be not deceived, God is not mocked. Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap.' Just prior to his message he sang a beautiful solo in line with his sermon. No service of any kind will be held today as it is rest day for the evangelistic party. Services will be held Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock and Tuesday night at 7:30 Mr. Ham will preach his sermon on 'The Christian Home.'"

UNUSUAL VALUES IN SUITS ARE OFFERED

Hill's, clothiers, have an interesting advertisement in The Sun-Journal this afternoon in which they announce some unusual values in men's suits for the remainder of this week and are inviting the men and boys of this city and section to look these over at once.

"We are making these reductions in order to get some ready cash," said Mr. Horace M. Hill this morning and he expects the demand for the suits at these prices to be heavy.

It is estimated that not enough people are saving for Christmas.

This Is the Net Result of Tuesday's Election In Which the Republicans Finished So Disastrously. — Tight Races In A Few Undecided Districts Not Affecting the General Result Postpone Final Figures.

Continued republican control of congress but with a senate majority cut in two and a house majority of 160 slashed to a scant handful appeared today as the net result of last Tuesday's congressional elections with returns almost complete. Tight races in the few undecided districts not affecting the general result and delays in counting, however, threatened to postpone the final figures.

The general picture of Tuesday's storm of ballots was virtually finished early today when belated Montana returns sent the republicans over the top in the house contest. Election of R. Scott Leavitt, republican in Montana, gave the republicans the 218 votes necessary to control the next house but even there the republican tidings were coupled, with news of defeat of Rep. McCormick, republican, Montana, by his democratic opponent John M. Evans.

With seven congressional districts in four states—Kansas, North Dakota, Washington and West Virginia still unreported at 7 o'clock the roll in the next stool: Republicans 220, democrats 205, socialist 1; farmer-labor 1 and independent 1. The republican margin promised to be increased slightly in the remaining contests. In the returns to date 76 places now held by republicans had been captured without a single democratic loss.

Latest figures today show the next senate will have 52 republicans, 41 democrats and one farmer-labor representative with results of two senatorial contests—one in Washington and the other in North Dakota—still undecided.
