BIG GAINS IN OUR EXPORTS TO SOUTH AMERICA
By O. P. AUSTIN - STATISTICIAN
THE NATIONAL CITY BANK OF NEW YORK
(FROM THE WEEKLY TRADE RECORD ISSUED BY THE NATIONAL CITY BANK)

Exports from the United States to our neighbors in South America show remarkable gains in the new fiscal year which began with the month of July. This is the more remarkable because of the fact that the fiscal year ending with June had shown a reduction of more than 60% in our exports to that continent. Every month since the opening of the new fiscal year, according to the Trade Record of The National City Bank of New York, has shown big increases in the value of exports to South America despite the fact that most of the merchandise leaving the country is going at lower prices than a year ago. In fact, the value of the exports sent from the United States to South America in the 3 months of July, August and September, 1922, totals 36% more than in that same period of last year, while the total value of the exports to North America in the same period showed a decline of 11%; to Europe a reduction of 19%; and to Asia and Oceania no change when compared with the same months of last year. The South American market therefore is the one in which our exports show big gains in the new fiscal year 1922-3.

This increase in our sales to our South American neighbors is especially interesting in view of the fact that manufactures form the bulk of the materials which they buy from us. And it is in the exportation of manufactures that we are most concerned in considering the future of our export trade. All the world comes clamoring to our doors for our foodstuffs and raw materials, especially bread and meats and cotton, of which our surplus is constantly growing less with our increase of population, but it is in manufactures that we must make our fight in the world markets. On the other hand, we clamor at the doors of other countries producing tropical foods and manufacturing materials such as coffee, cacao, india rubber, wool, nitrates and other of the natural products of South America, and as it happens that our South American neighbors have not yet become manufacturers in any large degree the interchange between the two continents is a perfectly natural one, for we of the United States are now the largest manufacturing country in the world.

So it is interesting to see that the quantity of cotton cloths sent to South America in August, the latest month for which details are available, was 50% more than in the same month of last year; newspaper and book paper more than doubled that of the same month last year; galvanized iron sheets over 4,000,000 pounds against one-half million in August, 1921; tin plate three times as much in value as a year ago; wire over 13,000,000 pounds against less than 1,000,000 in August, 1921; and of automobiles sent to South America the value in August, 1922, was ten times as much as in August, 1921. And these are merely examples of the increasing popularity of American manufactures with our South American neighbors.

We are reciprocating to their generosity by taking increased quantities of their merchandise, for in July of the current year our imports from that continent showed an increase of over $10,000,000 when compared with the same month of the preceding year. August a gain of $5,000,000 and September a gain of $10,000,000 over the same month of 1921, these increases in our purchases of their products including coffee, cacao, wool, hides and skins, india rubber, nitrates and many other articles of tropical and sub-tropical growth for which we are dependent and must always be dependent upon other countries. And the increase in the exchange of the products of our factories for those of the fields and forests of our nearest neighbor, South America, is an encouraging feature of our after-war trade.

National Guard Has Been Well Organized In State

(By Associated Press)
RALEIGH, Nov. 21.—North Carolina's National Guard not only has organized all but three of the twelve units allotted it by the United States War Department but also has been developed in numerical strength and equipment to the point where it ranks second in the fourth corps area, according to figures released by Adjutant General J. Van E. Motta today.

In June, 1921, there were 1245 officers and men in the State's National Guard as compared with 2490 officers and men on November 1, 1922, the figures showed. There are 26 units organized and fully equipped in 29 counties, where instruction is being given under the direction of experts designated by the war department.

Companies also are in process of organization in Morganton, Charlotte, Red Springs and Edenton. It was stated.

North Carolina's allotment included a regiment of infantry, a battalion of engineers, an ambulance company, one hospital company, a veterinary company, one transport company, a divisional signal company, two batteries of field artillery (155th Howitzers included), one anti-aircraft machine gun company, one squadron of cavalry, an extra troop of cavalry and two coast artillery companies.

"The units not yet organized or in process of organization," said Adjutant General Motta, "are one hospital company, a coast artillery company and a company of engineers."

"The National Guard of the state is in the best condition of its history and this department has received from officers in charge of the recent encampments information to the effect the North Carolina units showed a high degree of efficiency," he said.

Georgia is the state in the fourth corps area which ranks above North Carolina.

"Present war department plans," said Major Gordon B. Smith, who is attached to the adjutant general's department, "call for the organization of the Thirtieth Division, National Guard, in the state of North Carolina, which, briefly, is to augment the regular army in time of emergency and take its place on the firing line along with the regular army," he asserted.

Units of the National Guard are stationed at the following cities in North Carolina: Raleigh, Edenton, Gastonia, Oxford, Burlington, Warrenton, Henderson, Durham, Greensboro, Concord, Charlotte, Winston-Salem, Waynesville, Wilmington, Plymouth, Mount Gilead, Parkton, Wilston, Graham, Youngsville, Goldsboro, Louisburg, Hendersonville, Lincolnton, Hickory, Asheville, Andrew, North Wilkesboro, Canton, Raeford, and New Bern.

Lodge's Expense
Washington, Nov. 21.—Expenditures of $3,970 consisting of contributions to state and municipal Republican committees and to Republican clubs, were listed by Senator Lodge, Republican, Mass., in a small campaign expense account filed today with the clerk of the senate. The senator noted no contributions.

Bryan's brother was elected governor of Nebraska, but it does not run in the family.

Small towns are so lucky. In Washington it is considered proper for girls to pay their own way.

MOTHER!
Clean Child's Bowels with "California Fig Syrup"

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." If the little tongue is coated, or if your child is listless, cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, give a teaspoonful to cleanse the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation of the bowels, and you have a well-playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has messages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup. . . . Adv.

GIRL NOW WELL AND STRONG
Daughter Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as Mother Advised

Wauseon, Ohio.—"My daughter always had backache and leg-ache at certain periods and could not go on her feet at those times. We read about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound doing girls so much good so she began to take it. That is two years ago and she is a different girl since then. She is able to do any work she wants to do—although she is still well and strong. We recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers with giling daughters, and I give you my permission to publish this letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. A. M. BRUKTOLDER, Route No. 2, Box 1, Wauseon, Ohio.

Something out of balance will affect the finest clock, causing it to gain or lose. So it is with women. Some trouble may upset you completely.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will correct the cause of the trouble and disagreeable symptoms will disappear as they did in the case of Mrs. Bruktolder's daughter.

MOTHERS—it is worthy of your confidence.

The Shakespeare department of the Women's Club will meet tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock with Miss Mary Ward at her home on Pollock street. Every member is cordially invited to be present.

Oppose Open Saloons
St. Louis, Nov. 21.—The executive committee of the Association Opposed to Prohibition this afternoon went on record as "unalterably opposed to the saloon." A resolution to this effect was adopted in connection with the first national meeting of secretaries of state branches of the association which is in session here.

Stuck to Game; House Burns
Pottsville, Pa., Nov. 21.—Several thousand persons at a football game at Coaldale, near here yesterday, refused to desert the game to fight a fire when the alarm was turned in and as a result a home situated in a sparsely settled section of the borough was destroyed.

The safe side of every argument is the middle.
