

OTHERS DID GREAT WORK AT OAK HILL

Editor News-Topic: A number of errors are noted in a front page article in your issue of the 16th inst., which is headed "Story Leaves Oak Hill for Trinity." The article referred to states that Prof. T. E. Story went to Oak Hill just after the consolidation of the districts there and that during his stay of seven years the school had grown from an attendance of 50 the first year to 150 last year. Of course I don't know who is responsible for the errors and, in attempting to correct them, I want it clearly understood that I have no desire to detract from the credit due Mr. Story for the splendid work he has done at Oak Hill, but at the same time I think it is nothing more than justice to those who taught at Oak Hill before Mr. Story went there that the article in question be corrected.

In the first place, Mr. Story did not go to Oak Hill immediately after the consolidation there. Prof. W. L. Winkler of Watauga county was in charge of the school the first two years after the consolidation, and those were most successful years in every way. In fact, a large measure of the success which Oak Hill has attained is due to the splendid work and organization effected by Prof. Winkler during those two first years of school. It was at the end of Mr. Winkler's first term that the special tax was voted, which, by the way, was the first rural special tax in Caldwell county. The enrollment those two years was above 90, which included 15 or 20 boarding students, and the attendance was near 70 each year. Following Prof. Winkler, Prof. Wiley G. Hartzog of Boone taught three of the most successful terms that Oak Hill has ever had. It was due to the efforts of Prof. Hartzog that the high school was secured in 1911. During Mr. Hartzog's principalship the enrollment was more than 100 and attendance more than 90 each term.

Prof. Story became principal of Oak Hill in 1914 and his seven years there have been most successful ones. During that time, and large due to the leadership of Prof. Story, the brick building was erected and the full high school course added. Mr. Story has worked hard to make a success of Oak Hill and the work of the past few years speaks in the highest terms of praise for him. Due to his tireless efforts the school has grown until last year the average attendance was near 125 and a number of the graduates were doing most successful work in the colleges of the State. It is hardly possible to give Mr. Story too much credit for his work at Oak Hill, and truly the school is the lower as he goes to Trinity, but in justice to those who were pioneers there I think you should publish these corrections. Respectfully yours, D. T. SMITH, Boone, June 20, 1921.

ACCIDENTS KILL MORE PEOPLE THAN CANCER

Accidents kill more people in the United States in one year than the much-dreaded scourge of cancer, according to a compilation of statistics just completed by the American Red Cross. The toll of accident deaths in 1918, the latest year for which figures are now available, was 83,000, the announcement stated.

Automobile fatalities have increased tenfold during the last decade, the statement continued. Ninety people out of each million of population were killed by automobiles in 1918 as compared with 10 per million annually from 1906 to 1910. While slaughter by automobiles has thus increased, it was pointed out, the safety movement in America has appreciably reduced the number of deaths on railroad and trolley tracks. "The control of accident fatalities and injury is one of the outstanding problems in the movement for longer and healthier lives," says the Red Cross statement. "Life-saving and first aid instructions, which the Red Cross provides through chapters scattered throughout the country, has in the last seven years helped lessen drowning accidents. If the drowning death rate of 1906-1910 had prevailed in 1918, for instance, there would have been 2,100 more deaths than actually occurred."

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Breast Tea at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold.

Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

RUB RHEUMATISM FROM STIFF ACHING JOINTS

Rub soreness from joints and muscles with a small trial bottle of old St. Jacobs Liniment

Stop "dosing" Rheumatism. It's pain only; not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Liniment" right on the "tender spot," and by the time you say Jack Robinson—out comes the rheumatic pain. "St. Jacobs Liniment" is a harmless rheumatism cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin. It takes pain, soreness and stiffness from aching joints, muscles and bones; stops sciatica, lumbago, backache, neuralgia. Lumber up! Get a 30 cent bottle of old-time, honest "St. Jacobs Liniment" from any drug store, and in a moment you'll be free from pains, aches and stiffness. Don't suffer! Rub rheumatism away.

THOMAS C. CARLTON

(Centralia (Kan.) Journal) Thomas C. Carlton, son of Pickens and Martha Carlton, was born near Boomer, N. C., Sept. 5, 1852. Died at his home in Centralia, Kan., June 6, 1921, at the age of 68 years 9 months and one day. His boyhood days were spent in North Carolina. He was married to Mattie E. Kendall on March 22, 1883. They came to Centralia, Kan., immediately after. Two sons were born to this union, Homer W. and Roby F., both of whom have died, Roby Oct. 12, 1907, and Homer Jan. 25, 1913. He leaves a wife, Mattie E. Carlton, and three brothers and three sisters, who live in North Carolina. Mr. Carlton came to Kansas thirty-eight year ago. His capital at that time consisted largely of good health, pluck and honesty. He came with the determination of making good, and make good he did. He was a man who did not wait for some opportunity to turn up, but made opportunity by improving every minute of his time building up a home of his own, so when he reached the mature age of life he could rest with ease. For the last few years in life he and his wife were enjoying the fruits of their labors. They spent a great deal of time at different resorts.

Mr. Carlton was a man whose life was filled with sunshine. He was always looking on the bright side of life, making those happy with whom he associated. His work is done. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

He possessed what money could not buy.

While passing through this life, for he never seemed to think of self, but his children, friends and wife.

Unselfishness, we all well know.

Is part of God's glorious plan, and, like many of his other laws, are disobeyed by man.

God does not judge a man by what he proclaims.

But from the goodness of his heart then those whose lives are filled with love of God becomes a part.

Funeral services were held in the Congregational church Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Carlton was a friend of the three pastors, Mr. McClain, Mr. Warner and Mr. Bussey, who conducted the services. The men's quartet sang three appropriate selections. Burial was beside his two sons in the Centralia cemetery.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank the many friends and neighbors for their kindness during the long illness and at the time of the death of my dearly beloved husband, and especially the children of the neighborhood for being so quiet. The ministers who were so kind to him during his illness and for their later services, and the singers. Also for the many beautiful floral offerings, the flowers gathered by the children of the neighborhood and for the many home flowers from the Southside people. The thoughtfulness and kindness of all, from the least up, will not be forgotten.

Mrs. Mattie E. Carlton. Mr. and Mrs. Carlton will be remembered by a host of friends and relatives in North Carolina, who mourn greatly with Mrs. Carlton in her great sorrow.

SAFE TO PREDICT LINNEY WILL BE CONFIRMED

Frank A. Linney will be confirmed as district attorney for the western district of North Carolina, says a dispatch from Washington. This prediction is as safe as any forecast of an even of the future may be. It is one on which a gambler would give long odds. Negro opposition to Mr. Linney crumbled late Friday before the Senate judiciary sub-committee, composed of Senators Ernst of Kentucky, Cummins of Iowa and Overman of North Carolina. The sub-committee is expected to recommend unanimously for confirmation. The negro protestants say of Mr. Linney that he "met our every contention" or "surrendered to our views." Mr. Linney and his friends say he did nothing of the sort; that he merely informed the committee that as district attorney he would enforce the law without respect to race or color, that he would prosecute those who seek to disfranchise the negro of his constitutional right and that the famous Linney campaign circular was not a disfranchisement document but one suggesting only that the "negro question" be eliminated in southern politics.

On these matters Mr. Linney told the committee his record and views had been an open book all long. Yet the negroes present concluded the hearing by saying they had "misunderstood" Mr. Linney and his attitude, that they would not have taken up the time of the committee with their protests. Henry Lincoln Johnson, negro national committeeman from Georgia, appeared as a sort of attorney for the race at the Senate hearing. Negro leaders from Boston, New York, Chicago, Toledo, Washington and other cities were present, together with a delegation of 20 or more from North Carolina, led by Prof. D. C. Suggs of Salisbury.

After the hearing all said they were satisfied with Mr. Linney's promise to enforce the law impartially as between the races, in cases of registration and otherwise. Mr. Linney and his friends ask "what else might a district attorney, sworn to uphold the law, be expected to promise?" and so on.

NOW HAVE A CHANCE TO BUY STATE BONDS

Treasurer B. R. Lacy is sending out the advertisements for the $8,000,000 worth of State bonds which the council of state authorized him to sell at a recent meeting. Despite the fact that these bonds are to yield but 5 per cent the treasurer is hoping to dispose of them to the people of North Carolina. He is going to make a special effort to sell the $100 denomination bonds, since there has been an insistent demand of some people in the State that bonds of the smaller denominations could be sold.

The next time you buy calomel ask for

The purified and refined calomel tablets that are nausealess, safe and sure. Medicinal virtues retained and improved. Sold only in sealed packages. Price 35c.

Special emphasis is being placed on the $100 bonds at this time. Half a million dollars worth of the $100 bonds are being offered. They will yield 5 per cent, are free from all State taxes and will be payable in ten years' time. The treasurer thinks they offer an especially attractive investment to the man of small means who has some surplus money which he will not need immediately. The bonds, of course, are gilt-edged security, and can be handled just as the United States bonds either as collateral or otherwise. The bonds must bring par, under the law which authorizes the sale.

DO YOU KNOW THAT

Four million men were in the American forces during the world war? There were 309,781 in the Revolution? There were 2,772,408 in the Union forces during the civil war? There were more than 750,000 in the Confederate forces, actually engaged? There were 280,564 in the Spanish-American war? Of the four million in the world war, 3,091,000 were National Army men? The total number of regulars was 527,000? The total number of National Guardsmen was 382,000? The total American dead in the world war was 77,118? The total wounded was 221,050?
