COMMISSIONERS.

W. E. Jeffreys, chairman; S. H. Griffin, W. H. Murray.
Regular meeting of Board every 1st Monday of each month.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

S. E. Eure, of Glover, was here Monday.

Preparations for flower gardens have begun.

Mrs. W. G. Jones, of the Red Oak section, is visiting the family of J. J. Jones.

Dr. J. P. Battle and Mr. B. G. Alford are two of the happiest men in town.

R. A. P. Cooley and Z. V. Jenkins are attending the State Convention at Raleigh.

Mr. Alfonso Baines of Stanhope was the guest of W. J. Batchelor last Sunday.

Judge Jacob Battle and W. S. Wilkerson, of Rocky Mount were in the city Monday.

Mr. Jno Edwards, of Rocky Mount, was in our midst Tuesday with the oil wagon of the Standard Oil Company.

T. V. Avent, Esq., of Ita, passed through the city Monday enroute to Raleigh. He is attending the State Convention.

The Board of Education were in session last Monday, but owing to the absence of members the transaction of business was postponed until next Monday.

Mr. F. B. Cooper went to Richmond Friday to accompany his wife, whose condition compelled him to take her to the hospital again.

There will be a big picnic at Mr. Iredell Williams' near Stanhope next Monday. We predict a big time, as Mr. Williams never does things by halves.

On Monday evening, April 16th, the local talent of Elm City will present "The Fruits of His Folly," a popular play in five acts, for the benefit of the M. E. Church of that place.

Mr. S. S. Earle and wife who have been in Indian Territory for some time, were in the city Monday, the guest of J. H. T. Baker's family. They left for Springhope Tuesday morning.

Rev. W. C. Nowell has resigned as pastor of the Baptist Church. The members have extended a formal call to Rev. G. W. May, of Wake Forest. Rev. May is a young man and if he accepts the call, will take charge of this pastorate about June 1st.

The editor returns thanks to little Misses Bessie Harper, Blanch Bridgers and Ruth Rouse for pretty bouquets of violets which found their way to our desk Tuesday afternoon. 'Tis indeed nice to be remembered by these bright buds of the town.

Last Sunday evening as Mr. Walter Taylor was going to his home from Hilliardston, and when near the Gold Mine two unknown men attacked him with pistols and fired at him several times, one of the shots striking his left breast vest pocket burning his clothing but not entering the flesh. They rifled Taylor's pockets and escaped without being identified by Mr. Taylor.

Mrs. C. C. Ward invites the ladies of Nashville and the surrounding community to call and examine the splendid line of ladies hats and millinery goods she is displaying. Beginning to-day she will continue serving her many customers with the very latest designs in ladies' hats, sailors and childrens' caps. Her stock is up-to-date, and the prices are trade winners. Call to-day and inspect the beautiful display of feathery elegance.

There is much complaint upon the part of many people residing in Mannings township and that portion of Nashville township wherein the County Commissioners have ordered compulsory vaccination, and some arrests have been made in order to carry out the instructions of the Board. While this seems to be a hardship upon the people of those infested districts, yet the Commissioners are doing the right thing in trying to get the smallpox under control, and every citizen of the county should co-operate with the Board and the Superintendent of Health in trying to save the county thousands of dollars in getting the epidemic under control.

On the Sick List.

Mrs. S. F. Lincke has been quite sick for several days.

Mrs. Bridgers has been quite sick for several days.

Chris Cokerrell had a short wrestle with the grip this week.

Mrs. Henry Griffin has also been on the sick list for several days.

Mr. F. B. Ricks has been confined to his room for a few days this week.

Little Julia, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lincke, is quite sick.

Our popular young druggist M. C. Yarboro, has been quite sick this week.

J. M. Williams has also had a short wrestle with the grip this week.

Mrs. Pernel has been among those who have suffered with chills this week.

Mrs. A. N. Rouse has greatly improved from her recent attack of la grippe.

We regret to learn that Commissioner S. S. Gay has some sickness in his family.

Mrs. Isa Thompson, mother of Mrs. T. A. Sills, has been quite sick for several days.

Attorney N. L. Eure suffered right much Monday evening from the effects of a chill.

The condition of Mr. J. D. Winstead has not improved sufficiently for him to be at his store.

The condition of Mrs. H. A. Humble is much improved. Rev. Humble is able to be out again.

Mr. Joe Wheelless has been confined to his room at the Central Hotel with an attack of the grip.

Mrs. R. A. P. Cooley has been confined to her room for a few days this week with an attack of la grippe.

Caught at Castalia.

When you get done planting corn, plant some more.

Mrs. Fred Battle and little son, of Atlanta, is visiting her father W. H. Arrington.

Dr. T. A. Matthews says in all his practice there has been more grip in these parts than ever before.

Prof. Gray King, who has been teaching at Rockingham, owing to the condition of his health, is at home.

Miss Annie Taylor who was in Wilson teaching art, was called home to the bedside of her father, W. T. Taylor, Esq., who is very ill.

Notwithstanding the recent unfavorable season for farm work our planters are making rapid progress and will be able to plant in due time.

The enchanting melodies of the feathered songsters filling the air with exhilarating tones of mating love, is a pleasant reminder of Springtime, gentle Annie.

The writer witnessed the closing exercises of Miss Etta Draper's school last Friday evening. The selections and the creditable manner the children acquitted themselves is a very high compliment to this excellent young lady who stands high as a teacher in this county.

Our Town Convention.

Our citizens, and THE GRAPHIC especially, is pleased to know that the differences which have existed in local political circles was amicably settled Friday evening. A convention of the white Democrats was settled upon by the contesting factions and in this meeting on the date mentioned our citizens assembled in the court house to nominate candidates for the various town offices.

Mayor Jenkins called the meeting to order and a report as to the condition of the treasury was made by Treasurer Gay, which showed that there was $234.65 in the treasury. This report will, we understand, be published at an early date, and will show the economy with which the officials have handled the town's finances.

Mayor Jenkins then made a short speech in which he reviewed the work of the administration; the obstacles which retarded the town's progress and the many difficulties the Board had tried to overcome.

E. B. Grantham, Esq., was made chairman of the convention, and S. S. Gay secretary, S. R. Tyson assistant secretary. Before taking his seat Mr. Grantham acknowledged the honor conferred upon him and made a few befitting and appropriate remarks.

The names of Z. V. Jenkins and S. F. Austin were put for mayor and when the vote was taken Austin was nominated on first ballot by one majority. There was some contention on the part of the Jenkins faction on account of a blank ballot and the Austinites consented to another ballot and when the vote was taken Austin received the nomination by a majority of six.

The following nominations were made for commissioners: S. S. Gay, R. U. Brooks, S. G. Griffin, and J. E. Abernathy.

In accepting the nomination for mayor Mr. Austin assured the citizens he would strive to faithfully serve the best interests of the town, and would regularly draw his salary as often as the same became due.

Probably the most applause was elicited when Nominee Gay thanked the convention for the honor conferred upon him and said, "Now give us Bryan for President and Aycock for Governor, and we will attend to the rest."

The following paper, drafted by B. N. Rouse one of Jenkins' ardent supporters, was read at the close of the session. The result of the convention shows that Mr. Rouse "counted his eggs before they hatched," or had failed to reckon his host.

"FELLOW CITIZEN: We come with joyful hearts now that the struggle is over and our (Jenkins) side victorious, to congratulate you on the victory we have achieved. We thing our political views are right, and though we sympathetic with our opponents (Austinites) in their defeat, still we can imagine that this may be a lesson teaching them to see and turn from the error of their way. We have all done our best to win this victory, and the result will repay us for any annoyances during the contest, now are we in truth, doubly victorious inasmuch as our (Jenkins) side has resorted to no unfair means to gain the election. The private character of the opposing candidates hasn't once been alluded to. We have trusted entirely to exposing sophistries in doctrine and laying glaring evidence of misrule before the honest voters. Ere we part let us give three cheers for our victorious standard-bearer (Jenkins). Hurrah for our (Jenkins) side."

The above reminds of the story of the Irishman who laughed at the bull.

Notes From Nuns.

Mr. Jas. A. Tunnell, our efficient postmaster is sick with la grippe.

Messrs. W. H. and J. S. Proctor will locate their saw mill near Sandy Cross at an early date, and will run on full time.

Mrs. W. H. Proctor is visiting her father in Wilson county, being called there on account of the illness of her mother.

Little Hubbard the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Bethel Joynes, died Sunday morning from the effect of pneumonia after two weeks suffering. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

T. B. Lowder, of Stanley county, was here last week looking after the mail route from this place to Nashville. We understand he contracted with R. L. Baker to carry the mail from here to Nashville after June.

Mrs. Odum's Millinery Opening.

Monday and Tuesday were the days of Mrs. C. J. Odum's millinery opening and display of the latest styles in ladies' artistic headwear. Miss Hallie B. Thompson, of Richmond, who has had much experience in conducting this department in some of the largest millinery emporiums in Philadelphia and Baltimore, is in charge of Mrs. Odum's establishment and shows herself to be an artist of rare ability.

Mrs. Odum's display of hats this season is indeed pretty, and we are sure with Miss Thompson's aid, she can suit the most fastidious in style, workmanship and price.

News From Red Oak.

We hear right much talk about the scarcity of tobacco plants.

We had on hand a full stock of "sore eyes" last week, and have more than we want now.

Mr. Charlie Griffin and Miss Lois Jenkins, of Nashville were pleasant visitors here last Sunday.

Quite a number of our people are sick yet. The back-handed licks which April is giving us seem to hurt worse than any.

Mr. J. C. Beal has suffered greatly during the past week with a severe attack of tonsilitis. We hope to see him out again soon.

Our choir has ordered a supply of new song books, "Crowning Day No. 4," and we hope to have some good singing in the union meeting to be held here next 5th Sunday and Friday and Saturday before.

Westrayville Items.

Little Noble Newy is quite sick with pneumonia.

Master Willie Dozier who has been quite sick is improving.

H. E. Brewer, of Rocky Mount, was in our community last Monday.

Fire got out in the forests Saturday night and did considerable damage to timber.

Mrs. Hedrick, wife of Mr. M. J. Hedrick died at her home on the 3rd inst. after a lingering illness. Mrs. Hedrick was 27 years of age and was a most estimable woman, and the sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved husband and relatives of the deceased.
