FOREIGN NEWS NOTES

Occurring Events The World Over.

Brief Review of What Has Transpired in Other Sections During The Last Week and Since Our Last Issue.

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 26.—Fire destroyed four buildings and gutted two on Mission street, between First and Main early today and did damage estimated at $200,000.

Aiken, S. C., Dec. 27.—While taking part in a dove drive near Aiken today, B. F. Tyler accidentally shot the top of his nephew's head off, causing instant death. The dead boy was the son of C. A. Humphrey, of Atlanta. Tyler afterwards tried to kill himself.

Kinross Belt, one of the captors of Jefferson Davis, the President of the Confederate States, died Saturday at Thornville, Ind., aged 63 years. Belt was for years a merchant of Thornville, and for some years has been living on his farm. He was a dispatch bearer of the Twelfth Ohio Volunteer Cavalry.

Boston, Mass., Dec. 27.—Five persons were burned to death in a fire which destroyed the house of John Clark at Watertown, a suburb early today. Every member of the Clark family met death in the flames. The dead are: John Clark, his wife, and their three children, John, aged 11 years; Philip, aged 9, and Doris, aged 2.

Fayetteville, Ga., Dec. 27.—Joe Beadles shot and killed his brother, Nat Beadles, last night at the home of his mother. Joe had returned home to spend the holidays and began drinking. He ran his mother from the house and she informed his brother, who attempted to quiet him. Joe resented the interference of Nat and the shooting followed.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 50.—It was announced today that the American Tobacco Company had given directions to their representatives here to rent out their warehouse, or re-handling house at Frankfort, and cease business until further notification. Developments are awaited with great anxiety by the holders of tobacco of this year's and last years crop.

Valdosta, Ga., Dec. 27.—John S. Moore, a well known citizen of Stockton Ga., was shot and instantly killed by his wife today. Mrs. Moore claims self defense. She says her husband attacked her with a knife, threatening to cut her to death. She seized a pistol and fired, killing him. More was drinking. Moore killed a man several years ago in the room in which he died.

San Jose, Cal., December 26.—Bertram Somers early today shot and killed his five-year-old boy, having mistaken him for a burglar. The child, is believed, was walking in his sleep. The parents awakened by a noise in the room and seeing the outline of a figure near the window they concluded it was that of a burglar. Mr. Somers reached for his pistol and fired, killing the child instantly.

Dalton, Ga., Dec. 26.—News has reached here of a fatal shooting, following a Christmas dinner, near Spring Place, last night. Liege W. Williams, a farmer invited several persons to supper. One of the guests is alleged to have made some slighting remarks about the food, which resulted in a fight between the host his son and Roscoe Russell. During the fight the light was overturned and extinguished. When the room was again lighted, John Tanks, an innocent on-looker, had been shot and was found lying dead upon the floor.

With every charity bed in the city of New York occupied, lodging houses overcrowded, bowery saloons turned into barracks, and an array of wanderers on the streets, the charity organizations in New York are helplessly facing a situation

Mind Your Business.
If you don't nobody will. It is your business to keep out of all the trouble you can and will keep out of liver and bowel trouble if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They keep biliousness, malaria and jaundice out of your system. 25c. at Nashville Drug Co.

which will reach its climax with the great cold wave. After the informal conference of the various charity organizations it became known that more than 50,000 strangers were homeless in that city and that at least half that number spend nights on benches and floors wherever shelter is afforded. While the tide of unemployed who are flocking into the city has not been stemmed, the charity organization members are making vain attempts to care for those already there.

Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 27.—Just as the black cap was about to be placed today over the head of Henry Thaxton, a negro, convicted of the killing of S. T. Hunstucker, white, a telegram from the Governor, ordering a suspension of the execution for fifteen days was delivered to the sheriff.

The prisoner raised his hands and exclaimed: "My God."
The negro had made a statement from the gallows and in a minute more the trap would have been sprung.

At this point a boy rushed up to the gate and handed a telegram to Chief Deputy Brown who quickly cried out "Hold, Colonel, wait a minute."
Then the Sheriff mounted the steps of the gallows and read the message aloud. The prisoners in the jail gave a loud cheer and the prisoner was led back to jail praying and weeping.

More Drastic Remedies Needed.

It seems to us that there is need for more drastic remedies than have been applied. If necessary, a penitentiary sentence for carrying a revolver without a written permit and a jail sentence for the official issuing such permit without good reason might meet the case. If really serious loss and actual degradation and disgrace attended the constant carrying of hidden weapons we might stop a habit which disgraces and injures this part of the country, holds us up before the world as communities of dangerous murderers and every year leave scores of widows and orphans, anguished, destitute and desolate.—Richmond News-Leader.

Pay The Debts.

At this season of the year business men like to get their accounts settled and it is nothing more than right that every man who owes a bill should pay it.

If for some reason it is impossible to do so, let him go and "see" the man. Tell him about it, but don't try and avoid your creditors.

Every merchant and business man has accounts on his books and it is necessary for these to be collected in order that they may meet their own bills and start the New Year right.

If every man who owes an account and can possibly do so, would pay up things would unloose to a great extent and business conditions would be more satisfactory.

In justice to ourselves and right for our friends, let's all try and pay our open accounts, wherever they may be just and this as quickly as is possible.—Wilmington Star.

To Trustees of Every Church.

In the fall of the year when atmosphere doesn't cause paint to dry too quickly, is the best time for painting.

We have contributed a large share of our L. & M. Paint to Churches using paint, and always will do so, and wish to do so to every Church in this locality. We have no agency here, and we will therefore supply the L. & M. direct to the Church at price dealer would charge, and our contributions will be as usual, very liberal.

In the event of Congregation not being able to pay, we will furnish all the Paint Free. More than ten thousand Churches have been painted with the L. & M. Paint.

Address us direct.—Longman & Martinez, Manufacturers L. & M. Paint—New York.

Watched for Fifteen Years.

"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve; and it has never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill," says A. F. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine. 25c. at Nashville Drug Co.

LATEST STATE NEWS.

Condensed From Our State Exchanges

Items of Interest Condensed in Short Paragraphs and Mainly Pertaining to Matters in North Carolina.

Reidsville, N. C., Dec. 27.—John Hagood, a farmer of near Ruffin, age about 60 years, killed himself with a gun which he placed against his breast and discharged with a fire poker. His mind is thought to have been unbalanced for the past few weeks.

Littleton, N. C., Dec. 30.—Chief of Police L. C. Newsom, of the prohibition town of Littleton, was arrested today by Deputy United States Marshal Gibson and after a hearing before United States Commissioner T. N. Harrison, was held for the Federal Court in a bond of two hundred dollars for retailing liquor without license.

The temperance forces of Salisbury are lining up for a battle royal with the liquor traffic early in the new year. It is announced that Rev. M. F. Ham, who led the victory in Asheville, will wage the campaign in Salisbury, which is now looked upon as the strong-hold for whiskey dealers in North Carolina. The date for the opening of the campaign has not been determined.

Sanford, N. C., Dec. 30.—J. H. Worthy, sixteen years old, who has been a clerk in the postoffice here since October last has been arrested and tried, charged with numerous thefts and bound over to the Federal court. He gave the $200 bond required. He was charged with the larceny of packages containing diamond rings, fountain pens, small sums of money and in one case a solid gold engagement ring.

Charlotte, N. C., Dec. 27.—Oscar Sisek, the Stokes County moonshiner, who, it is alleged, shot and killed United States Revenue Officer J. W. Hendricks from ambush last Friday, was captured today in the mountains of Stokes county by two mountaineers and taken to Danbury, the county seat. The United States government offered a reward of $1,000 for Sisek's capture. Hendricks was slain while leading a raiding party near Smithtown, the strong-hold of blockade distillers.

Beaufort, N. C., December 26.—The battleship North Carolina will come to Cape Lookout harbor when completed to receive the silver service from the State. Hon. M. Leslie Davis, chairman of committee from Beaufort Chamber of Commerce has received the information from the Secretary of the Navy that as soon as practical after the commissioning of the North Carolina the necessary orders will be issued for the armored cruiser North Carolina to go to Cape Lookout to receive the silver service to be presented by the State.

John White, a young white man, is in jail at Hertford, charged with a horrible and unfortunate crime, which crime he has confessed, that of the killing of Mr. Stevens, baggage master on the Virginia and Carolina Coast Railroad and whose home is in Suffolk, Va. As the regular southbound passenger train was passing through an open field near Hobbville, a small station about 25 miles north of Elizabeth City, five men were seen standing near the track, one of whom fired into the train and young Stevens, who was standing at one of the windows of the rear coach, received the entire load in the mouth killing him instantly.

When a man really becomes acquainted with himself he feels humble.

After all, the chief difference between most people is in the length of the clothesline.

Why suffer from Rheumatism?

Do you know that rheumatic pains can be relieved? If you doubt this try one application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It will make rest and sleep possible, and that certainly means a great deal to any one afflicted with rheumatism. For sale by Nashville Drug Co.
