There is a steady increase in membership to the Farmers Union of Nash county until the organization now has within its ranks several hundred of the county's sturdiest citizenry who are taking a lively interest in the organization and materially assisting in laying the foundation for the accomplishment of the object of the Union. From almost a handful of men the membership has steadily increased in nearly every agricultural State in the Union until now thousands of farmers are standing shoulder to shoulder with their fellow farmers in the great common cause. There is a great battle on wherein objects and principles of vital importance to the farmers are being waged for. A successful fruition of the hopes of the farmer is in no wise antagonistic or detrimental to any other class of legitimate business. The membership of the Union is deserving of encouragement and support by every man who numbers himself among that class; the recognized bone and sinew of our commercial life. By propagating the welfare of the farmer all other classes of business receive their just return. The prosperity of the agriculturists of the South means the prosperity of the South and every class of business. Hence, it is but deserving that citizens, merchants, bankers and all other manufacturing interests lend every assistance and encouragement to the Farmers Union. There should be no backward step in the organization. Farmers should swell its membership and assist every way in adding to its influence and to the end of accomplishing the principles sought.

Only a few more days are afforded for you to take advantage of the 50 cent coupon published elsewhere in The Graphic. The offer will be withdrawn at the expiration of the date named. To get advantage of the offer you must act at once.

Move to New Quarters.

Messrs. Overton & Cook, who for the past two years have been occupying the building next to The Graphic office, carrying a splendid and ever fresh and new assortment of heavy and fancy groceries, notions, shoes, dress goods and general merchandise, have recently purchased one of the stores next to the Nashville Drug Co., formerly occupied by Cooper & Cooper, and have moved into their new home. Mr. Mark Cook, the general manager of the business, informs The Graphic that they will soon add many necessities to their stock, enlarge their grocery department and be in every way prepared to meet the demands of the trading public. They will appreciate a call and will treat you right.

Life Saved At Death's Door

"I never felt so near my grave," writes W. E. Patterson, of Wellington, Tex., as when a frightful cough and lung trouble palled me down to 100 pounds, in spite of doctor's treatment for two years. My father, mother and two sisters died of consumption, and that I am alive today is the safety to Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 180 pounds and have never felt so strong for years."

EDITOR THE GRAPHIC:
Through the columns of The Graphic I wish to in a measure express my sincere appreciation of the kindness shown my mother and myself by Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Bone and their many neighbors and friends during the recent illness and death of mother. Their many acts of uniform kindness and courtesy has made a lasting impression upon me and will long be most kindly remembered.

A Deserving Colored Citizen

One of Nashville's pioneer citizens is P. A. Richardson, who for more than the past twenty years has conducted a barber shop and as the town has advanced and its varied interests extended in scope, likewise has Richardson kept abreast of the wave and today he is numbered among Nashville's progressive citizens and has been an ornament to his race. No man in the town regrets the success Richardson has attained and it has been through the patronage and esteem he is held that today he enjoys a lucrative business in his line. His shaving parlor is an ornament to the town, having recently been equipped with modern appliances and furnishings that would reflect credit upon most any town in eastern North Carolina. Elsewhere in The Graphic he makes announcement to the public of his ability to meet the demands of his patrons and assures them of the very best service of which he and his assistants are capable.

Old Soldier Tortured.

"For years I suffered unspeakable tortures from indigestion, constipation and liver trouble," wrote A. E. Smith, a war veteran at Erie, Pa., "but Dr. King's New Life Pills freed me all right. They're simply great." Try them for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Only 25c at Nashville Drug Co.
