THURSDAY, DEC. 21, 1911.

The press and people of the State are loud in their praises of Hon. Ashley Horne, for his generous gift of $10,000 to aid in the erection of a monument on Capital Square in Raleigh, in honor to the women of the Confederacy. Ashley Horne, like Jule Carr, is one of North Carolina's greatest assets. Both have done great things for North Carolina and her people. The accumulation of wealth by these gentlemen is a blessing to the State.

Rocky Mount's Poultry Show was a big success. Now let the progressive business men of that city through their Chamber of Commerce take active steps in the matter of making Rocky Mount the Fair City for Nash and Edgecombe counties. There are hundreds of farmers throughout the two counties ready and willing to give their cooperation. The two counties could put up one of the best fairs in the State next fall.

It is passing strange the claim is made that "everywhere the cotton farmers are holding their product off the market," when you have but to look at port receipts to ascertain that thus far they have marketed more cotton this season than ever before. It is true that some farmers are holding on to a part of their product, but the great majority of them have about sold out.

The magnificent new Y. M. C. A. Building at Rocky Mount was formally opened on Monday afternoon. Not only is the building a credit to Rocky Mount, but all Eastern North Carolina, and will long stand as a monument to the Atlantic Coast Line and the citizens of Rocky Mount, who provided means for its erection.

Since Castalia Township has voted $15,000 bonds for road improvement the question is asked by the citizens, "Why is it these bonds have not been sold?" Possibly the attorneys representing the Castalia Road Commissioners may be able to throw some light on the situation.

The citizens of Rocky Mount have for several weeks past been endeavoring to select a slogan for the city, but thus far they have been unable to "name the baby." Suppose they leave it up to the ladies, if the men cannot come to an agreement. Then there will be fun.

The time approaches for that class of farmers who are not content to stay in one place long at a time to begin loading up their household effects and "light out" for some other roosting place for the next twelve months.

"Ten Wanted a Better Job"

That question will be asked you almost daily by business men seeking new services, if you become qualified to make a better position to make the most of your talents and occupation. The only way to get a better job is to be better than the others. You will find that the only way to get a better job is to be better than the others.

A Message From Ralph Pitt.

To the Tobacco Farmers of Nash and Adjoining Counties:
Tobacco is higher than it has been for the past twenty years. Now is the time to sell and Pitt's Warehouse is the place. I would advise that you sell all you can before the Christmas holidays or as soon thereafter as possible. Thanking you for your past patronage and hoping to sell for you again soon, I am, with best wishes for a merry Christmas and happy New Year.

Your Friend,
RALPH PITT, Prop'r.
Pitt's Warehouse, (Gravelly's old stand) Rocky Mount, N. C.

WANTED! 500 MEN!

Will You Be One of Them?

THEN LISTEN!

The Graphic is making an effort to make some needed improvements in the plant and also meet some obligations that must be met by January 1st, 1912. It will be a hard matter for us to do so unless our friends and subscribers do their duty.

Can We Depend On You?

There are several hundred subscribers whose time has expired or soon will expire. If each one of these will pay us $1.00 on account or renewal we can easily meet our obligations and make the improvements so much needed in this office.

Look At Your Label

and see just how your subscription account stands, and send in your renewal at once. We have been patient, lenient, and have manifested confidence in you. The amount is small and to hand or send it in will in no way embarrass you.

Have We Been Loyal?

For the past seventeen years The Graphic has "stood by" Nash County and her people as has no other newspaper; the longest period any newspaper has ever existed in Nash County. The paper has not been run as a money making proposition, but in the interest of Nash County regardless of section. It has been run at a personal sacrifice of the editor, who has given seventeen of the best years of his life. This, we think, is evidence of our loyalty.

Your Dollar Will Help Us Now!

We are depending on you to assist us at a time when needed. Send in your remittance to-day. Do your part and all will be well.
