Relief For The Farmer.

It must be apparent to every one who thinks about the matter that the present prices of farm products are too low to be profitable to the farmer and healthful for the rest of the population. Inasmuch as the farmers constitute 35 to 40 per cent. of the population of the country any condition that interferes with their buying power is a menace to the whole nation. The manufacturer and the merchant depend largely upon the agricultural class as an outlet for their trade. It is to their interest therefore that the farmer shall get a fair price for his crops.

There has been a considerable decline in the prices of manufactured products, but not nearly so much as has been the case with the products of the farm. Cotton that sold as high as forty cents a pound has dropped down to around ten cents and tobacco that averaged in 1919 fifty-one and a half cents, in 1920 averaged twenty-one and a half cents. Wheat, corn, oats and other farm products have declined in about the same proportion. Manufactured products have gone down considerably it is true. You can buy a pair of $15 shoes now for $10, and those that were $10 are about $7 or $8 and so on. There has been a drop of about half in the prices of clothing and dry goods and some other articles of merchandise but they have not dropped like cotton, corn and tobacco. Skilled labor has declined a little but not much. As a matter of fact the railroad man, the carpenter, plumber, bricklayer and so on is getting more today than he did during the war, because he can live cheaper. He gets about the same pay as he did then and buys his supplies for much less which is equivalent to having his pay raised.

The farmer and the unskilled laborer are worse hit by the readjustment or deflation period than anybody else. The farmer cannot control the prices of his crops nor can the unskilled laborer regulate his rate of pay.

The interesting question now is where shall the farmer turn for relief? The answer is that he must depend mainly upon himself and such cooperation as he can get from his neighbors. He must do intensive farming; he must diversify his crops; he must raise more and better live stock and he must join the cooperative marketing associations. By planting the best seed and using the best methods the farmer should try to get more from each acre that he cultivates. By raising better hogs and cattle the farmer can increase his income without much additional expense. By joining the cooperative tobacco and cotton association he can help to get for himself and his fellow farmers prices for his products that will justify him in raising them.

In the meantime it is to the interest of all whether they are farmers or not to do anything they can to help bring the great agricultural industry up to a profitable level. We are all tied up in the same bundle and no class can suffer long without other classes being disastrously affected.—Beaufort News.

White Man Charged With Serious Crime
Much Feeling Said to Exist in Vicinity of Spring Hope Where Prisoner Criminally Assaulted Small Child.

Much feeling is reported to prevail in Spring Hope and vicinity against a white man named Jesse Nines, aged about thirty five years, who is charged with the serious offense of having criminally assaulted the five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Scullman, well known and respected people residing about three miles from Spring Hope in the vicinity of Webb's Mill, and upon whose farm Nines resided. The offense which has aroused the people of that community is said to have been committed shortly after the noon hour on Wednesday, but it was not until later in the day the child told her parents of the affair, and immediately Nines was arrested by the officers. As the crime became known a preliminary investigation by a committing magistrate was regarded as a hazardous undertaking and Nines was rushed to the county jail, and later removed to some other safety zone.

Local and Personal.

Mr. T. B. Dameron paid Richmond a short business visit Tuesday, returning to Nashville the following day.

The friends of Mrs. J. C. Lindsey will be glad to know that she has almost fully recovered from a brief illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Batchelor and little niece, Miss Ruby Batchelor, and Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Rouse, of Greenville, spent Sunday in Nashville visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. Marvin Harrison, who is in the service at Camp Jackson, S. C., spent Saturday and Sunday in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Harrison, and other relatives and friends.

It will be indeed gratifying to the scores of friends of Mr. S. A. Batchelor to learn that there is slight improvement in his condition and greater hopes are entertained for his recovery. However, his condition is yet regarded as critical.

The closing exercises of Stanhope High School are being held to-day. Prof. J. Henry Highsmith delivered the annual address at 11:00 o'clock to a large and appreciative audience. At noon a sumptuous picnic dinner was served and this evening the annual concert will be held, the play to be presented being a very interesting opera, "The Captain of Plymouth," embracing more than twenty characters.

The Graphic takes delight in donating to the Nashville Civic League a quarter-page advertisement in which we call attention to the entertainment the League has provided for all Nashville people next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at Nashville High School. Since the League is to receive a liberal per cent. of the proceeds and the further fact that the numbers presented by the entertainers are guaranteed to be of a high order, the citizens can well afford to turn out and spend a pleasant evening and at the same time help a worthy cause.

Rocky Mount suffered another serious fire on Tuesday morning when a large storage warehouse belonging to Messrs. W. S. and W. C. Vaughan and wherein was stored many thousand pounds of tobacco belonging to Mr. T. S. McDearman, a well-known tobacconist of that city. Just how the fire originated appears to be a mystery, however, despite the heroic efforts of the local fire department within a very short time the building together with its contents was totally destroyed. The loss is estimated at approximately $100,000. The building and tobacco was partly covered by insurance.

The Graphic has been furnished with a detailed account of the work of the Nashville Civic League and a report of the funds that have been administered through this worthy organization for the past year or so. Since the report embraces quite a number of figures relative to the receipts and disbursements of the organization during a period of approximately eighteen months, producing the report in type this week could not have been very well accomplished, however, it will appear in our next issue, and will prove to be of great interest to those of Nashville's citizens who delight in real accomplishments for their town and community.

Large crowds continue in attendance upon the series of revival meetings now in progress at Nashville Methodist Church and indications clearly point to a great amount of good to accrue to Nashville and vicinity by reason of the forceful sermons delivered by Rev. Eugene C. Few, the pastor. The membership of Nashville Baptist Church are heartily co-operating in the meetings and many people from the near-by country are in attendance upon such service. Prof. Milan, the director of the singing, arrived in the city Monday afternoon and is assisting in the rendition of the music. The meetings will continue through this week, coming to a close next Sunday evening. One service daily is being held, at 7:45 p. m.

Mr. Marcus Ellen Dies Suddenly.
It will be learned with sincere regret by the hundreds of friends in Nash county of the death of Mr. Marcus Ellen, one of the county's most prominent farmers and business men of the Dutch section, who died suddenly of heart trouble while on a business trip to Rocky Mount Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Ellen was apparently in perfect health a few moments prior to his death, which occurred at the home of Mrs. Fernie Ward, a relative, who resides on Falls road and where he had called to pay a short visit. He was a brother of former County Commissioner S. J. F. Ellen and is also survived by another brother, Mr. J. W. Ellen of whitakers. The deceased was about fifty-one years old and was regarded by all who knew him as one of the county's best citizens.

Candidate for Town Commissioner.
To the Voters of Nashville:
At the solicitation of my friends I have become a candidate for the office of Town Commissioner subject to the action of the primary held on Friday, April 22nd. I shall appreciate the support and influence of all my friends in said primary.
HAROLD D. COOLEY.

Many pupils of the various schools of the county will take part in the contest. Expected at this meet will be representatives from Red Oak, Middlesex, Castalia, Bailey, Mount Pleasant, Rocky Mount, and possibly other leading institutions of the county.

Nashville Civic League Meeting.
The regular meeting of the Civic League was held at the home of Mrs. R. M. Collins Monday afternoon, April the eleventh, with thirty-five members present. After the business meeting the following program was rendered: Paper, "What a Child means to its Parents," by Mrs. Davenport; Reading, "The Wind in the Chimney," by Mrs. C. B. Ward. In the musical program Dixie was studied. A brief discussion of its history was given by Mrs. Dameron.

Reduce Tobacco Acreage.

The tobacco Association of the United States is sending out the following letter:
The absolute importance of reducing the acreage of bright tobacco is becoming more and more in evidence every day.
There is no demand whatever for low grades and will not be to any appreciable extent until conditions in Central Europe become more stabilized and their commercial and financial situation very much improved, and there is nothing now to give any encouragement that this will take place anywhere in the near future. As this chaotic condition continues, the necessities of life will become more and more an essential to Europe and tobacco and cotton must wait.
There being two years' supply of common tobacco now on hand will result in low grades of tobacco continuing to be way below the cost of production, and the only salvation is to have a half crop planted, which will possibly make from ten to fifteen per cent more per acre than a full planting, with every reason to believe that the result of this reduction in planting will be good to fine tobacco, which is the only kind that there is any chance of being in good demand. Therefore every farmer should take this into serious consideration and feel that the only way to have a reduction is for everybody to reduce.
Tobacco Association of the U. S.

Farm Profits

can best be reckoned by a close examination of expenditures and returns.
The farmer who has been using a Checking Account finds this a simple matter. He is able to compare the entries in his pass-book with his canceled checks and arrive at a correct estimate of his profits.

If you are not taking advantage of the helpfulness of a Checking Account, we cordially invite you to do so at your earliest convenience.
