THE RIOTS IN CANDIA Twenty British Blue Jacket-Killed and Many More Wounded.

WARSHIPS ARRIVE ON THE SCENE Consulates Burned and the Vice-Consul Roasted in His House. LONDON, Sept. 8.—Sir A. Billotti, the British consul at Candia who went to Candia on board the British battleship Camperdown, cables to the foreign office saying that the rioting at Candia was caused in the following manner: A British soldier on guard at the tax office was suddenly stabbed in the back and he dropped his rifle, which exploded, killing a Mussulman. The firing then became general and a party of twenty British blue jackets, from the British gunboat Hazard, was almost annihilated before the sailors could reach their ship. In addition a detachment of forty-five British soldiers were driven from their quarters near the telegraph station and many of them were wounded. The total casualties, so far as known, are twenty killed and fifty wounded. The fate of the Christians in other towns is uncertain; but it is feared that only those who succeeded in obtaining refuge in the court houses have been saved. The British Vice Consul Mr. Calocherino was burned to death in his house.

DROPPED WIVES IN HIS HURRY. Fugitive Khalifa Abdullah Pursued by Five Hundred Arabs on Camels. LONDON, September 7.—The British war office has received a dispatch from General Sir Herbert Kitchener, the commander of the Anglo-Egyptian forces, dated from Omdurman, on Monday last, saying that over 500 Arabs, mounted on camels, were dispatched after the fugitive Khalifa Abdullah that morning. The general added that the Dervish leader was reported to be moving with such speed that some of his wives had been dropped along the road followed by him. The Sirdar also says: Officers have been counting the Dervish bodies on the field, and report the total number of dead found is about 10,000. From the number of wounded who have crawled to the river and town, it is estimated that 10,000 were wounded. Besides the above between 300 and 400 Dervishes were killed in Omdurman when the town was taken.

A SCENE IN THE SPANISH CORTES. Weyler Told He Was Responsible for Spain's Misfortune. MADRID, September 8.—There were uproarious scenes in the Cortes today. Salmeron, the Republican leader, moved an inquiry into the government's responsibility for declaring war, suing for peace and suspending the constitutional guarantees. When Sagasta demanded that the discussion be secret Republicans and Conservatives noisily protested. The galleries were finally cleared, but so much opposition was shown that it was rumored that the defeat of the government was possible. The senate also held a stormy session, Weyler attacking the political for abandoning the armies in Cuba and Porto Rico. He got in an altercation with Count Almenas and Robledo, the latter of whom silenced him by saying he was more responsible than anybody for Spain's misfortunes. Wheeler's Son Drowned. CAMP WICKOFF, Montauk Point, L. I., Sept. 8.—Thomas H. Wheeler, son of Gen. Joseph Wheeler, and Second Lieutenant Newton D. Kirkpatrick First Cavalry, were probably drowned here yesterday afternoon while bathing. Young Wheeler was a naval cadet in his second year. He had been acting on his father's staff for some time past. He was 17 years of age, was a fine young fellow and had made a host of friends among the older officers. Together with Lieutenant Kirkpatrick he went to the beach this afternoon to enjoy the surf bathing. The surf ran high and the undertow was very strong. Apparently no one saw the young men drowned, and it was not until about 6 o'clock that they were missed. Their clothes were found a short distance from General Wheeler's tent, close to the water, and it is believed that the young officers were swept away by the strong sea. Last night a detail of sixty men from the First Cavalry was stationed along the coast to watch for the bodies that may be thrown upon shore.

It seems to us that one among the important things to do in order to make our tobacco fair a great success in point of attendance is to secure low railroad rates. We know Col. Webb has been promised by the roads running in to this place cheerful co-operation in the matter of railroad rates, and we feel sure they will make considerable reduction in fare, but we want the railroads to treat us like they treated Atlanta in the closing days of the exposition. For instance, they gave a round trip rate from Winston $6.25, from Greensboro $5.90, from Durham $6.80, from Charlotte $4.40. This rate is but a fraction over 1 cent per mile one way for round trip, and it is this that helped to make the closing days of the fair the best. If the railroads will come in and help us out with such a rate as this it will do more to fill Winston with people and crowd our fair with people than anything else that can be done. Cannot the railroads do a grand thing for Winston for once, make a rate of one cent a mile one way for the round trip. It is worth sending a delegation from the chamber of commerce to Washington to see Mr. Yorke, and to Roanoke to see Mr. Bevel to accomplish this. THE JOURNAL would urge it upon our leading citizens as an all important move, and we hope it has begun too soon.

Officers Elected. The Men's League, a social and literary organization of Salem, at its meeting Tuesday night elected the following officers for the ensuing six months: President—B. J. Pfahl. First Vice President—N. V. Peterson. Second Vice President—H. F. Shaffner. Third Vice President—S. G. Rogers. Secretary—W. S. Pfahl. Treasurer—Irvin Douthitt. Board of Governors—Charlie Biewers, J. Phenomenal Sale. Mr. R. B. Crawford, Jr., the hardware man, tells us that he has already sold seven car loads of drills this summer. This is undoubtedly big business and still they come, a car load in today. Incidental Mr. Crawford tells us that he believes the yield of wheat in this section this year will be tremendous. He comes in contact with the farmers and ought to be right. A Distinguished Honor. Mr. John Z. Smith, of Greensboro, brother of our townsman Prof. D. B. Smith, has been awarded the Bingham scholarship. Mr. Smith was nominated by Congressman Kitchener, he having the highest average in a competitive examination held at Greensboro.

Colored Republicans Bolt and Nominate a Negro. LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 7.—The sixth district republican convention yesterday nominated C. Heerams, of Montgomery, for congress. There was a bolt, the bolters all being colored, and they nominated Daniel Butler, colored of Lynchburg. A Hot Time. London, Sept. 8.—The War Office has received a despatch from General Kitchener, stating that the Khalifa was fleeing with the speeding of the wind, but that 500 Arabs with camels were chasing him. His officers had counted 10,900 dead Dervishes and estimated the wounded at 16,000 and prisoners at the least 3,000.

Joseph Chamberlain, secretary of state for the British colonies, and Birmingham's representative in parliament, arrived here this morning on the White Star liner Majestic. He was accompanied by his wife and Miss Chamberlain. Did You Miss Your Journal. Owing to a miscount of our pressman last evening we ran short of papers. This will explain why some FIGHTING REPUBLICANS. Factions Fight for a Field in Which to Hold Their Convention. ONE MAN KILLED, ANOTHER WOUNDED. The Silver Republicans in Colorado Have a Warm Time of it. COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., Sept. 8.—Chas. Harris, of Denver, is dead and another man, named unknown, is wounded as the result of a fight over the possession of the opera house here between two factions of the silver republicans for the use of the state convention of that party. Several days ago the opera house was rented by State Chairman Broad, but Sunday he learned that the Teller faction had secured the house, and he made a hurried trip to learn the facts and again secure the house. In this he failed and last night the building was guarded by men representing the Teller faction. Senator Wolcott has taken an active interest in the matter and is said to have sent men here from Denver to support the Broad faction. A riot occurred in the opera house at 4 o'clock this morning between twenty-two men representing the Teller faction, and Sheriff Boynton, Chief of Police Gathright and about seventy-five men representing the Wolcott-Stevens faction. Charles Harris, of Denver, was killed, being shot through the abdomen, and an unknown man was seriously injured. The opera house is now in the possession of the police and deputy sheriffs. No one is allowed near the doors. The Wolcott-Stevens faction applied for a writ of mandamus compelling Chairman Broad, who was in possession of the opera house, to turn over the building to Broad. The writ was refused.

WILLIAM'S IDEA OF PEACE. The German Army, Well Prepared, Will Guarantee the World's Peace. PORTA, West Phalia, September 7.—Emperor William, speaking at a banquet here this evening on the subject of the government labors, said: "Peace will never be better guaranteed than by the German army, thoroughly efficient and prepared for war, sections of which we now have the pleasing opportunity of seeing and admiring. God grant we may always be able to care for the world's peace with this keen and well preserved weapon."

Loss of Men in the War. Washington, Sept. 8.—The official records of the War Department, as far as completed, show that there were thirty-three officers and 231 enlisted men of the army, 204 in all, killed in battle during the war with Spain. These casualties include all the lives lost by the army in the battles of the Philippines as well as those in Cuba and Porto Rico. The percentage of officers killed is strikingly large, and is said to be unprecedented in the battles of the world. The contrast is especially striking in the case of the battle of Omdurman, where, although the loss of life was heavy, the list of killed included only one officer of the British Army.

Fell Asleep. The infant son of Mr and Mrs L. M. Swink, after a few hours only of existence in this beautiful world, made a pilgrimage last night to brighter fields beyond the swelling flood and now joins the angels in service and praise around the throne of the Great God who giveth and who taketh away. To the bereaved parents, whose hope and love had clustered so tenderly and joyously around this, their first born, we all can tender and do extend the sincerest condolence and sympathy. But God has really blessed them in placing beyond the stars a beacon light to guide them, and a connecting link to brighter and better joys than earth at its best could have given them or their offspring here below.
