Heart Broken.
Since writing the article on Dr. John Hall we notice in last night's New York Journal a long article on the recent trouble that Dr. Hall had with some of his congregation.

The death and suffering of this man of God should certainly be a warning to all others who make it a practice to criticize and obstruct the consecrated labors of their pastor. Below is an extract from the Journal:

"Early this spring, after the unfortunate Warwazak affair, the elders of his church mentioned to him that a younger man would be more suitable for the pastorage. This Dr. Hall regarded as tantamount to a request that he should resign. He felt very keenly the turn that affairs had taken and after thinking the matter over and looking at it from every point of view he decided to immediately resign and so announced, but a large delegation of the leading men of his church called at his house and with tears in their eyes pleaded that he recall it. He was staggered by this display of generous friendship and concluded that some extraordinary mistake had been made. He therefore withdrew his resignation. Then six of the elders resigned, regarding this action of the congregation as a vote of want of confidence in him."

Now The Blow Hurt.
The whole proceedings produced such an effect upon Dr. Hall as to cause a great change in his health. Shortly afterwards while visiting a poor member of his congregation who was lying ill in the top story of a tenement, he was suddenly affected with a heart spasm and fell insensible on the floor of the dying man's room. His friends hearing of this urged him to take a vacation to recruit his health, which he did.

"The remainder of the story is brief. The great preacher gradually sank under the blow. He tried always to account for his illness in various ways with the object of preventing those nearest and dearest to him from knowing what was constantly on his mind and seeing that the blow struck him by those whom he had come to regard as his bosom friends, had broken his heart; the cares, worries, wrangling, meanness and Judas like conduct of those who should have been his staunchest allies and supporters touched him deeply. He had spent the best years of his life, in season and out of season, laboring and toiling for his beloved congregation. To a man so keenly sensitive and highly strung as the great John Hall, the cross was too heavy and he sank under it."

REVIVAL SERVICES.

The Centenary Revival Closed Last Night With a Well Attended Love Feast.

A series of meetings which have been going on for the last eighteen days at Centenary church, closed last night with an interesting and well attended love feast. The pastor read a part of the Second chapter of First John and briefly commented upon it. The symbols of brotherly love and good fellowship, bread and water, were then distributed.

A goodly number of those present then testified to the goodness of God to them and their desire to love and serve him faithfully.

At the close everyone was given an opportunity of testifying for Christ, and with the exception of a very few, the large congregation stood up for Christ and His cause.

The meeting has been a decided success. Thirty seven have professed conversion.

The church has been strengthened, many new family altars have been erected and the fires rekindled upon some, and additional zeal put into them all. More than twenty have applied for church membership, and others will do so. The applicants will be baptized received into the church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The public cordially invited.

BURKEHEAD SERVICES.

Rev. G. W. Callahan preached to a large congregation last night at the revival services at Burkehead M. E. church. He took his text from the 11th chapter of John and 32nd verse. He spoke of the goodness of the Almighty to us.

The meetings promise to be interesting and beneficial to the church members of the city. There will be services every afternoon at 8:30 o'clock, and at 8 o'clock at night. All are cordially invited to these meetings.

A Centre Shot.

While Mr. Linney was speaking at Mocksville Tuesday he proclaimed with a twinkle of his eye, "all democrats are racials," and seeing his old law partner, Hon. E. B. Jones in the audience, said, "Ain't that so brother Jones?" Quick as a flash came Mr. Jones reply with another twinkle of the eye: "All democratic demerits are!" They do say the "ball of the brushes" was struck dumb for once as the crowd went wild with applause at this good natured, but capital bull's eye shot.

Mr. Gibbs Paralyzed.

Mrs. C. G. Lanier telegraphed on the 6 o'clock train this morning for Morganton. She received a telegram yesterday evening announcing that her brother, Mr. George Gibbs, was suffering from a second stroke of paralysis. Mr. Gibbs received the first stroke last Christmas in Louisville, Ky. He has visited in this city and his many friends here will regret to learn that his condition is considered serious.

LANIER.—Mr. C. G. Lanier received a telegram, at noon today from Morganton, which says that the physicians have given up all hopes of the recovery of Mr. Gibbs, and that he is gradually sinking.

Social Tomorrow Night.

The Mission Band, of Salem, will give a social in the Home Moravian church chapel Friday night to the Salem congregation. The objects of the social are to raise money for the benefit of the Mission Band, and to bring the church members in closer relationship. Everyone is expected to bring a contribution.

Samuel G. Woodruff, who has been residing in Indiana for six months, passed through the city this morning en route to his former home at Wilkesboro to visit relatives and friends. He was accompanied by J. H. Hogg, of Indiana, who will spend some time with relatives in the 'State of Wilkes.'

BOTH OF THE SAME NOTION.

MAN and HIS WIFE Each Want a Five Dollars and Each Was in Jail.

There is a little colored woman around Greensboro, who is very often in trouble. She is in that fix now—in jail. The boys of her color call her "Sawed Off," or "Shorty," because of her size.

Yesterday she got a deputy to write to her husband for her, who is in Winston, telling him she was in jail and to send her $5 to get her out.

The letter was sent off last night. This morning she received a letter from her husband asking of her the very same thing—he is in jail and says if he had $5 he could get a lawyer and get out.

The woman is in for larceny and her husband for retailing. Neither knew the other was in trouble.—Greensboro Record.

Horse Swappers Convention.

At a meeting held in Winston last night Mr. Bud Peebles was unanimously elected as a delegate to the great Horse Swappers Convention which meets in Gainesville, Ga., beginning October 11th, and lasting three days. One thing is certain, when Mr. Peebles gets there Forsyth will be represented by a "swapper" who thoroughly understands the business.

DEEPLY IMPRESSED.

The President is Influenced by Garrison the Island as Soon as Possible.

WASHINGTON, September 22.—The president is deeply impressed by various representations made in the last few days in regard to the desirability of the postponement of military occupation of Cuba. The leading advocates favor postponement because of the condition of the troops. Persons who were in Cuba recently, told the president about the unhealthfulness of the climate at this season. As a result of these influences, the president has decided upon a general garrisoning of the island. It is improbable that Lee will be the commanding general in Cuba, however, he will undoubtedly be assigned an important command.

Important Meeting.

Each member of the Delphina Home and Whatsoever Circle of King's Daughters, are requested to meet at the school room of Mrs. Lanier and Miss Dwire Tuesday evening at four o'clock sharp.

Business of paramount importance in regard to our Chrysanthemum show.

Linney Goes to Wilkes.

Congressman R. Z. Linney came in this morning on the Mocksville train from Farmington, Davie county, where he delivered an address last night. He boarded the 10 o'clock train for Wilkesboro. He will speak at Jefferson, Ashe county, on Saturday.

Mr. Reynolds Returns.

R. J. Reynolds returned on the ten o'clock train this morning from Baltimore, where he has been receiving treatment in Johns Hopkins Hospital. We are glad to state that Mr. Reynolds is very much improved in health.

Postponed.

Owing to the inclement weather, the garden party contemplated tonight by the Ladies Aid Society of the First Baptist church, has been postponed until some night next week.

Judge Dick's Will.

The will of Judge Dick was admitted to probate yesterday afternoon before Clerk Ragan. The document was written about 20 years ago, and in it his wife is made sole legatee and executrix. It was written in his own handwriting and covers less than a page of letter paper.—Greensboro Record.
