MISS DAVIS IS BURIED

She Sleeps Her Last Sleep in the Land She Loved so Well.

THOUSANDS ATTEND THE FUNERAL

Simple But Impressive Ceremonies Attend the Last Sad Rites.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 24.—Varina Ann Jefferson Davis, the "Daughter of the Confederacy," sleeps her last sleep in the bosom of the land she loved so well.

Her remains arrived here at 8:10 o'clock in a combination Pullman and the veteran escort followed in a column of four.

The casket was borne from the funeral car and the guard of honor and the veteran escort followed in a column of four.

The escort divided, a portion preceded and others followed the hearse, while the pall bearers and guard of honor walked on either side of the vehicle.

SERVICES AT THE CHURCH.

The funeral of Miss Winnie Davis took place at 3:30 o'clock. The organ played the "Jefferson Davis Funeral March," as the procession entered the church. First came the veterans of Lee camp, then the sons of veterans. These passed up the main aisle and were seated to the left.

Following the Pickett camp veterans were the veterans representing camps in other states, and behind them and immediately in front of the casket, came the honorary pall bearers.

MRS. DAVIS VERY FEELER.

Mrs. Davis followed close behind the casket, leaning on the arm of Colonel Archer Anderson. She walked with bowed head and very feebly leaning heavily on her cane.

Dr. Carmichael announced the first hymn, "How Firm a Foundation," which was a favorite of General Robert E. Lee's.

The crowd about the church when the casket was taken out and placed in the hearse was of immense proportions.

The services at the grave were simple, but deeply impressive.

Roosevelt Not Eligible.

Gov. Black's Men Spring Their Surprise—The Nomination of Roosevelt, They Say, is Impossible, But Later Telegrams Say They Are "Off."

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 23.—The supporters of Governor Black have tonight exposed their hand, which has been responsible for their great confidence in their ability to defeat Colonel Roosevelt for the gubernatorial nomination, and which makes the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt, they say, is "ineligible," to run as a candidate for Governor in this State at this time, owing to his being a non-resident.
