A POWERFUL APPEAL

Hon. C. B. Aycock Addressed a Tremendous Crowd Last Night.

GRAND OVATION TO A GRAND ORATOR

Democrats Greatly Enthusi- ed by the Speaker's Gifted Eloquence.

According to the announcement made in the papers and by poster, Hon. Charles B. Aycock spoke at the court house last night. The building was crowded to its utmost capacity, and people were turned away by the score. Never in the history of Winston, perhaps, have her people heard a more clear-cut, forceful, clean and effective campaign speech than that heard last night. The speech was characterized by a lack of personal or party abuse, malice or hatred of any person, party or race. The clear, ringing voice, pleading in earnest tones for white men to bury their differences and stand solidly together for the common interests of the Anglo-Saxon race, will echo and re-echo in the minds of those present long after the victory has been won. No true white man will be indifferent to the earnest demand of his race.

The Twin City Concert Band furnished music for the occasion.

Hon. R. B. Glenn arose promptly at Aycock and stated that he had been requested by the chairman of the democratic township committee to announce that there would be a very important meeting of the Winston-Salem Democratic Club at Democratic Headquarters tomorrow night. The club will discuss the advisability of having a big barbecue and democratic rally in this city for the benefit of the county at an early date. All members of the club and every other citizen who is interested is earnestly requested to be present tomorrow night. "I am not going to make a speech myself," said Mr. Glenn, but I can promise you something good from Hon. Charles B.
Aycock. Notwithstanding the chairman of the republican party of Forsyth county has said that the white people in Eastern North Carolina are no better than negroes, I am sure that Mr.
Aycock will prove to you that the white people of Eastern North Carolina are the equal, if not superior of the white people of the Western part of the State. He brings a message from the East and by hand work we will redeem the Old North State." Mr. Glenn stated that it was his pleasure and honor to introduce his personal friend and one of North Carolina's greatest emulators of democracy.

Mr. Aycock in coming forward, graciously acknowledged the kind words of his introduction.

He said he brought with him the glorious news that the grand old democratic party would carry the state on the 8th of November, and that the great storm that was sweeping over North Carolina, from the Blue Ridge to the coast, would show its good results after the election returns had been reported.

The republican party held power in North Carolina for two years, from 1895 to 1897, and that lasted the State for 25 years. During those two years we had desolation, devastation and political offenses and oppressions.
During that time men were afraid to leave their homes at night to go abroad without being armed. The democratic party made a terrible struggle and won in 1898. Almost immediately the democratic legislature passed a law prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons, but while the republican party ruled in North Carolina this had been necessary for the protection of the citizen's person from injury and wives and daughters from insult and outrage.

Peaceful conditions and absolute guarantee to person and property must prevail for the operation of all legiti-mate industries and avocations of life and these conditions the democratic party restored to the state.

Political conditions and finances prevailing in the state had brought about a state of affairs, wherein it was impossible for the great body of laboring men and farmers to make for themselves and dependent ones a comfortable living and in all sincerity and earnestness these men withdrew from the old parties and formed the populist party and with unequalled zeal and infinite labor accomplished a grand work. But how soon these honest men were dominated and betrayed for base purposes by political tricksters, for within two years we see the conventions of the populist and republican parties meet and nominate their candidates and then began the political side show, which gave to the people of the state the spectacle of the republican

TROOPS TO BE OUT BY TONIGHT

Dewey Determined to Seize All the Insurgent War Vessels.

MANILA, Oct. 25.—Army officers best informed as to the Filipino situation told a correspondent of the Publisher's Press that they are practically assured the insurgents would make no difficulty in withdrawing completely from Manila. The orders for withdrawal reached the insurgent leaders yesterday. Troops will be sent from the city tonight. Owing to Aguinaldo's preoccupation with the withdrawal of troops, negotiations for the exchange of Spanish and Filipino prisoners diag. Ots and Dewey favor the exchange. Aguinaldo has requested Dewey to release the insurgent bunches and steamer Abbie, which brought arms for the insurgents. Dewey refused and said he would seize the insurgent steamer Filipinas wherever he found her. He also said he would seize the four other insurgent steamers unless the exchange of Spanish prisoners was agreed to.

In the matter of taxes—the only reduction was on billiard tables run in connection with bar rooms, while on the property of farmers, and laboring classes they increased the taxes.

Quoting from the Caucasian and the Progressive Farmer the statement of facts of the leaders and best informed men of the fusion gang showed that the legislature of 1897 was a damnable disgrace to the state and the result of the little work they did was disaster to the best interests of the people.

The repeal of the charters of the insane asylums and other noble charitable and humane institutions of the state, so as to divert the money from those channels to the payment of office holders rendering no real service, was some of the work accomplished.

The negro knows that the democratic party is not the negro party and exhibits a race loyalty by his adherence to the republican party which might well be imitated by the whites. He, himself, has drawn the color line and makes use of the expression that it is a sorry negro that votes the democratic ticket, therefore it must be a sorry white man that votes the republican ticket.

Mr. Aycock forcibly referred to the deplorable condition of affairs existing in Eastern Carolina and confirmed all statements of negro dominations.

NO YOU WANT.

Free men of North Carolina, what do you think of Pritchard and Russell calling for United States troops to be placed at your polls to force you into submitting to negro rule and compel you to stand silently by when negro convicts and imported South Carolina and Virginia negroes attempt to cast a fraudulent ballot? And they say they want northern soldiers. But McKinley will never send them. The outraged manhood of the whole north regardless of party will prevent it.

The damnable designs of these North Carolina hellions will be frustrated in this respect and their conduct will be properly rebuked by all lovers of liberty and peace at the polls in November.

You Pritchard, You Russell, You Hobson. You dare have northern United States soldiers brought here to bolster up your fraudulent work.

In Honor of the Fearless Aycock.

The enthusiasm of the leading democrats of these cities and section was manifested in the magnificent guard of honor that left the court house square yesterday evening to meet and escort the Hon. Charles B. Aycock to our city. There were 400 men on horse back and near that number in carriages, phaetons and buggies.

They left the court house square at half past five o'clock under the command of Major T. J. Brown. Our Hon.
Mayor Colonel A. B. Gorrell graced the occasion with his presence, in a carriage with his friend, Colonel Webb.

The company headed by the Salem Cornet Band, met Messrs. Aycock and Glenn just beyond Wauhlown and returned with them, reaching Main street about twilight. As this guard of honor passed up Main street there was a thrill of enthusiasm that vibrated through the sensorium and tingled in every nerve of the thousands who lined the sidewalks and witnessed their return, which at times broke out in the wildest applause. It was like a wave of courage and hope eating higher and higher upon the shores of the white man's endeavor to break away from black domination.

For the people of Eastern North Carolina to have seen this body of men, the bravest and best of our section doing honor and homage to the peerless Aycock, that brave and courtly gentleman, whose big heart is beating with such sincere sympathy for those who suffer intolerant political oppression in the East and which threatened the West, it would have inspired them with full and complete confidence for the absolute certainty of a democratic victory in November.
