They are not seriously wounded. The two Davis' are probably fatally wounded. Daw and Miller are badly but not seriously wounded. No white men were killed, though it is not certain that Mayo, who was shot through the lung, will recover. Only two others, George Piner and N. B. Chadwick, were wounded. Their hurts are slight. Pinerbas a flesh wound in the abdo-

FRENCH'S CLOSE CALL. The good work began last night with

i. Z. French, a white carpet-bagger. He was waited ou at his room at the to the tra n by a squad of militia with fixed bayonets and put on the train with the injunction to leave North Carolina and never-return again upon peril of his life. It is believed he has gone to Washington. So intense was the bitter feeling against French that after he reached the station a rope was thrown over his head and everal strong men were in the act of swinging him to an overhanging beam, when influential citizens interfered, and , with difficulty prevented the lynching. French has been a ting sheriff here for some time.
