IN THE HOUSES OF WORSHIP.

Able Addresses Listened to by Large Congregations.

FIRST BAPTIST.

The text used by the pastor of the First Baptist church yesterday morning was John XIV, 1-12.

He began by saying that the expression "verily, verily, is often used by the Savior and always to introduce some doctrine of great importance. He mentioned the ministry of angels, regeneration, the resurrection of God's people, the eternity of Christ's being, the death of the old life, etc. He spoke of the faith produced by miracles, of the works of the nature, of the faith that rests simply on the word and truth of Jesus. He mentioned some of the works which Christ did and which we may do, such as witness bearing, relieving the poor, healing the sick by the use of means. He explained how we may do greater works. It is Christ who does the work through us. He was pleased to accomplish greater things through the instrumentality of his people than He undertook to do while He was in the flesh. He enabled his people to do spiritual wonders which was greater than the miracles performed by Christ for the relief of bodily ailments.

Although a service of song was held and the pastor made a short talk on the "human and the divine side of salvation," Dr. C. J. Watkins, Jr., F. Sizer, Albert Jane and Fred N. Day made very interesting statements in reference to the work of the church and the effort to raise money for the new building.

On next Sunday at 11 o'clock, Bishop Routhaler will preach for pastor Brown, it being the 1st anniversary of his pastorate and all his friends are invited.

METHODIST PROTESTANT.

Pastor Frank, who has been recently returned to this charge, preached at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

In the morning he chose as a text, Luke 22:31, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat." Christ's consolation lay in the approbation of the Father, V. 1, and in the steadfastness of his disciples, V. 28. He was solicitous about Peter's welfare. His position and mission, John 21:15-17, made Satan anxious to sift him. In the sifting in Pilate's Hall Peter was found deficient in piety, the first requisite in preaching.

Sifting decreases quantity but increases quality. Quality is what the church most needs. Tests will surely come. "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation." Sifting separated Job's glory and possessions from him, but he remained unmoved.

At night the text was Luke 17:21. "The kingdom of God is within you." There are two entities, matter and spirit. Christ dealt with both. On the one hand, He performed charitable deeds, turned water into wine, etc. On the other hand He preached a spiritual kingdom with himself as king. He said, "My kingdom is not of this world." To see it "Ye must be born again." It has a small beginning, but it will have a comprehensive consummation.

EPICOPAL.

The subject of the rector's discourse at the morning service was, "How to read the Bible." He said that the first essential was church membership. An infidel does not know how to read the Bible, it is foolishness to him. Scripture is not of "private interpretation," its meaning will be distorted by individual ideas. The church alone has the authority to interpret Scripture. The Bible has been preserved by the same at the price of martyrdom. As a mother teaches her children the elements of piety, so the church as a faithful mother instructs her children, the family of God in the principles of the faith and the mind fixed in the light position to understand. Scripture unfolds, enlightens, corrects and furnishes to every good work.

Every Christian should read daily, a verse, a paragraph, a chapter or a book of Scripture. The Bible reveals the character of Christ, which reading we behold as in a mirror and are conformed to the same likeness.

CENTENARY.

The services at Centenary Methodist Episcopal church yesterday were very well attended, considering the rainy day.

The service at night was not so well attended, but the congregation gave very earnest attention to the pastor's searching and helpful discourse. The congregation is cheerful and hopeful. They expect a good year in every respect.

At Y. M. C. A. Yesterday.

There was a large attendance at the men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon. An able address was delivered on the subject of "Personal Purity," by Rev. Thos. Needham, of Virginia. His text was, "Whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap." Among the ones who left the Nassau street church were dramatic artists, comedians, and vaudeville artists. The awful results of many of these sinners when they die is in. At the close of the address there were a number of requests for prayer.

THE UNION TOBACCO COMPANY.

Trustworthy Information That It Is in the Ring to Stay.

The following circular, under date of December 1st, was received from a reliable New York correspondent, who is in a position to speak authoritatively.

"UNION TOBACCO.

"A meeting of the directors of the Union Tobacco Company was held at 39 Wall street Friday. William H. Butler, who yesterday tendered his resignation as a director of the American Tobacco Company, was elected president. Seward, Guthrie & Steele were elected general counsel.

The names of the directors are: Thomas F. Ryan, Samuel Thomas, Frank Tilford, of Park & Tilford; Frank McCoy, R. A. C. Smith, and William H. Butler, of New York; P. A. B. Widener, George W. Bremer, one of the largest leaf tobacco owners in the United States, and W. L. Elkins, of Philadelphia.

"AMERICAN TOBACCO.

"American Tobacco stock halted at 14 and declined in points after the incorporation of the Union Tobacco Co. The volume of transactions in the meantime was small, comparatively. Yesterday something over 10,000 shares of full stock were dealt in with an advance of 1/4 points. It is expected that American Tobacco will maintain its reputation for pronounced fluctuations, now that the wealthy directors of the new Union Company are known, as well as the fact that experienced tobacco men will manage the business. Interesting developments in the cigarette and plug tobacco trade are promised shortly. The American Co. up to the present time has maintained its virtual monopoly of the cigarette field, and in this field its large profits have been made. The new company expects to establish excellent brands of cigarettes, paper and all tobacco."

Home Again.

Corporal Thomas L. Stauber, of the Winston company, of the First North Carolina regiment, received an honorable discharge on December 1st, and arrived in this city on the 8:30 train last night.

He says that when he left Savannah the equipment of the First regiment was being loaded on the transport Michigan and that the regiment would leave tomorrow for Cuba, where the boys will do garrison duty.

W. H. Chick has received an honorable discharge and will arrive here tomorrow.

FUNERAL OF MR. JONES.

The funeral of Mandy E. Jones, who died Friday night, was conducted by Revs. Tilly and Brown at 3:00 o'clock Sunday, in Broad Street Baptist church, of which church the deceased has been a member for several years. The remains were laid to rest in the Salem cemetery. The deceased leaves a wife, two daughters and five sons, who have the hearty sympathies in their aid and bereavement of a host of warm friends.

Given a Preliminary Hearing.

Will Raper, the negro charged with an attempt to commit rape last Wednesday night on the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Smith, of Abbott's Creek township, was given a preliminary hearing at 10 o'clock this morning before Squire R. W. Nadrig, who, after hearing the evidence remanded him to jail without bond to await the action of the Superior court. He will probably be tried at the present term.

Gone to the West Indies.

S. E. Hough left on the 5:10 train yesterday evening for New York where he will be joined by his brother, whose home is in Philadelphia. They will sail next Saturday for the West Indies and will probably stop at Jamaica. They will be absent about one year. Mr. Hough's family will remain here, at least until next summer, when they will probably join Mr. Hough in the West Indies.

The City Directory.

The name of all societies, clubs, clubs, etc., together with the meeting night and place of meeting will be inserted free in the new Winston-Salem directory if sent to address below, or left at Phoenix Hotel on or before Saturday December 10th. Only those sending us the above information will be inserted in the work as it is impossible to insert them unless given to us by above date. Address, E. F. TURNER & Co., P. O. Box 48, Winston, N. C.

HIS LIFE AT STAKE.

Bob Stevens on Trial for the Murder of Ison Harris.

Supreme court convened promptly at the appointed hour this morning. His Honor, Judge McIver presiding. The first case called was the state vs. Robert Stevens for the murder of Ison Harris.

The state through the solicitor announced that it was ready for trial and the defendant represented by Messrs. Sapp, Denton & Hall as counsel announced his readiness.

The jury was selected with but little difficulty and is composed as follows: W. P. Hampton, T. J. Craver, W. S. Lowry, Wm. Simpson, R. S. Westmoreland, B. H. Linville, G. F. Kerner, W. H. White, R. F. Jones, B. Y. Stafford, John Clinnard, J. W. McKaughan.

The following witnesses testified: Will Hairston: We all went to Green Scales restaurant; asked Green Scales if he had any whiskey; he said no. Ison Harris was in there and got to talking pretty loud; ordered us out; I got up and said if you look for Alex Scales to get any whiskey you just as well go on for you get none; Alex snatched Ison in the mouth twice and kicked him; he fell out in the road and got up and went off grunting; Bob Stevens says it's his home; Ison went on grunting; Bob says you liked to cause me to get a beating and I am going to beat you; he ran across the road and hit him; I heard two or three heas and I heard Ison say you have hit the wrong man; this is Ison Harris; I was fifteen or twenty steps off and it was dark; Tom Stephens say it would do to let him beat the old man and he and Press Simons went and got Bob; Bob said let me go back and flush beating him; I'll have to pay for it any how; I went on home with Bob; I did not see Ison any more; he was about 40 years old; he walked with a stick; Bob Stevens had a hickory stick; Ison lived nine or ten days; Bob was not drunk but had drank some; Ison was well off in drink; this was in October; I saw no stick or other weapon in Bob's hand; Crawford Anderson, Will Johnson, Alex Scales, Robert Penn and Bob Stevens were arrested; after trial before justice of peace all but Bob were turned loose.

Chris Simonton: I was present when Alex slapped Ison; Tom Stephens, Will Hairston, Bob Stevens, Alex Scales and myself were present; Tom asked Alex for a drink; we went in Green's restaurant and Bob called for whiskey; Green said he didn't have any; Ison said if you depend on Alex's getting any liquor you won't get any; Alex asked everybody who was talking about him; all denied it and Bob Stevens said Ison said it and Alex snatched him twice on the face with his fist and kicked him; he was falling; we went on off and old man Ison went on another part of the road grunting; Bob left us and went after Ison and said you liked to cause me to get a beating and now I am going to beat you; I heard Ison say you have got the wrong man; this is Ison Harris; Tom said let's go and get Bob off of the old man; we went after Bob had struck three or four licks and when we got there Ison was down and Bob was standing over him with a stick; we took Bob away and left Ison lying there; he said nothing but grunt; Bob said let me go back and give him a good beating; I've got to pay for it any how; Ison was an old man and looked weakly; I have never seen him since.

Dr. Summers: An hour or two after Ison Harris was hit I was called to see him; he was in bed in a house on Old Town street; I found a cut an inch and a half long on the left side of his head; he was bleeding profusely when I waked him up; I had to enlarge the wound to tie the artery; the skull was mashed in and fractured; I raised the bone off of the brain next day and took it out; the hole was probably half an inch; without an operation the man would have died very shortly; the wound I should say was caused by some blunt instrument like a rock; it might have been made by the end of a stick.

Joe Brim: I knew Ison Harris; he was 50 years; he had rheumatism and I let him have this stick to walk with; it had a loaded ferrule, a brass knob with lead in it; the end of the stick is broken off and was broken off the day it was found where old man Ison lay.

Alex Scales testified and denied striking the deceased but said he kicked him.

Alex Allen testified that he was coming up the street and saw a man catch hold of old man Ison and then begin to strike with a stick; head Ison say you have got the wrong man; I heard the other man say you don't believe I'll kill you; two men came up and carried this man off after he had struck Ison four times; heard him say to let me go back and kill him; I've got to pay for it any how; I went up to Ison; he was down and bleeding; he got up and caught on a telegraph pole to keep from falling; Ison said Bob has killed me, killed me for nothing; I got him home.

The state here rested and the defendant's testimony introduced.

Robert Penn testified that he saw Alex Scales an hour before at Emma Hubbard's kick Ison; saw Scales with a pair of brass knucks; was not at Green Scales restaurant; saw Ison after he was hurt; heard some of your gang done this.

Emma Hubbard testified to seeing Alex Scales kick Ison and at the same time chase her with a pair of brass knucks.

Robert Stevens then was sworn in his own behalf and testified. That Sunday night I went to Green Scales restaurant with William Hairston and the other boys. I had no dispute with Ison Harris. I do not know him and never saw him in my life and never struck him.

This concluded the testimony and the case was opened before the jury by A. R. Bridges, colored, for the prosecution. He will be followed by Messrs. Denton and Sapp and the argument concluded by Solicitor Mott.

Mr. Denton speaking as we go to press.

AT THE ARMORY.

The Peruchel-Belden Company Close a Week's Engagement Saturday Night.

The Peruchel-Belden Company close of their week's engagement at the Armory Hall Saturday night, by the rendition of that interesting four act comedy drama, "Kathleen Mavourneen." Large and appreciative audiences greeted the company at every performance and every one was highly entertained. Miss Ella Belden, as "Kathleen," well sustained the reputation she had already made with our people as one of the best actresses that has ever visited our city, and the remainder of the cast were all that the audience could expect, various numbers of the company being compelled to respond to numerous encores. The work of Mr. Peruchel was particularly well received.

The company left on the 5:10 train yesterday evening for Danville, where they play this week. They will play in Greensboro next week, and will then return to Winston to play three nights for the benefit of the Elks.

TWO POWERFUL SERMONS.

Rev. Thomas Needham at Broad Street Church.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather Sunday morning the congregation was small. Rev. Mr. Needham preached a tender and masterly sermon on "Consecration," from Rom. 12:1. The body is the avenue through which sin enters the body. The old nature is older than the spiritual nature and many are trying to live after the old earth born.

It is mockery to try to present the body as a boy's trifler, unless the whole being is given to God. The burnt offering in the Old Testament is consecration in the New. The peace offering must be a free offering. If we love God more than we do ourselves we will freely give ourselves to Him. Must keep the feet, hands and ear pure? Lev. 19:27.

The night service was attended by a large congregation. Mr. Needham announced his text as found in Isaiah 25:17. A criminal's first impulse after committing a crime is to flee from the hand of justice. They may stay the hand of earthly justice, but the eye of God is always upon them.

You are hiding in some refuge of his which our text says will be swept away by the hand of God.

You plead God's mercy. God will not damn a soul but sin will. There were two professions at the night service.
